Bill Proposes Spending Money for Public Work. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Appropriation of $100,000,000 for expend diture on public works to preven unemployment was proposed in bill introduced today by Senato Kenyon of Iowa, republican in charg of the senate investigation of labo conditions who proposed to author ize advances by the war finance con portion to the extent of $300,000	thought I was not looking at her. She veiled her eyes with her wonder- ful lashes in an instant when she met my gaze, but she was nct quite quick enough to conceal the venom which they contained. I had seen that look before in other eyes, not frequently but ofter enough to recognize it. In the course of my teaching I had come across two or three school girls who hid behind beautiful faces, tempers and dispositions that Satan himself migh envy. When those girls had been thwarted in any cherished design that same look leaped into thei eyes. It had always seemed to me like the look of a trencherous ani mal, waiting its chance to strike. From that moment I began definitely to dread Grace Draper. I was with a positive start of disma that I saw her turn and begin to descend the stairs toward the sta- tion, saying coolly: "If we stand talking here an ionger we shall miss the train bdck I don't believe I figel like shoppin or running around in the city today if you have nothing for me to do, she looked at Dicky. "I might a well take the train back to Marvi with you." If I could have screamed aloud a I followed her down the stairs, o if I could have seized the smoother is the stairs.
