MR. AND MRS. C. A. H. FISHER

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. H. Fisher, an account of whose wedding anniversary dinner was published in The Statesman last week, were married in Adrian, Mich. For the past 16 years they have made their home in Salem.

Four generations were represented at the dinner, there being seven children, fifteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren in the family.

Those who helped Mr. and Mrs. Fisher to celebrate the event were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wiltsey, George Newton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dickson, Miss Mina Cook, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Pearl Wiltsey, Marvin Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher and Arthur Fisher. George Newton was one of the guests at the event 50 years ago.

The members of Sedgwick Post, No. 10, Grand Army of the Republic, and Sedgwick Women's Relief corps, No. 1, enjoyed a union dinner at the relief corps rooms at McCornack hall Saturday. About 150 veterans with their wives and families gathered around the tables, which were decorated with winter foliage.

In the morning at 11 o'clock the Grand Army veterans held their installation service, with General W. H. Byars as installing officer. The following were placed in office: F. A. Thompson, commander; J. M. WaGon, senior vice-commander; Henry Pasco, junior vice-commander; Dr. D. F. Lane, surgeon; Rev. James Lyle, chaplain; Gideon Stolz, quartermaster; A. Huchst, patriotic instructor; E. L. Briggs, officer of the day; D. M. Wilson, officer of the guard; Daniel Webster, adjutant.

At 2 o'clock the relief corps gathered for their installation exercises, with Mrs. Frank Thompson in charge. The new officers are: President, Alice P. Caldwell; senior vice-president, Susan C. Salmon; junior vice-president, Jennie M. Pope; secretary, Mary M. Entress; treasurer, Mattie F. Cameron; chaplain, Mollie Denison; conductor, Laura B. McAdams; guard Sarah Peterson; patriotic instructor, Rose Vloris; press correspondent, Vera B. Glover; musician, Lena Hewitt; assistant conductor, Mary Cook; assistant guard, Rowena Johnson; color bearers, Effie W. Dunlap, Mary Lickel, Gertrude Remington and Charly Gamble.

In honor of their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Higgins were presented with a beautiful plant from the corps. Mrs. Louise Welles, the outgoing president, received a solid recognition pin of the order and Mrs. Maria Thompson was presented a box of candy for her services on the program.

Many Salem people will be interested to learn of the change in residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Bishop from Pendleton to Portland. Their address in Portland will be 524 East Twenty-fourth street North in the Irvington district, where a number of Pendleton people have homes. Mr. Bishop has left the Pendleton Woolen Mills of which he was manager, to accept the management of the Columbia Sellwood Woolen mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are well known in Salem, having visited here many times with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, the parents of the former and with Chasney Bishop, a brother. On their trips to Salem they have been the inspiration for many social events in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ward, who have been at the Marion hotel for several days, left last night for Portland, where they will spend several weeks before going to Bend to make their home. Mr. Ward has been located at Redmond, as county agricultural agent of Deschutes county, but has recently given up that position to become vice-president of the First National bank at Bend.

Mrs. Frances Whitehead, city editor of the Baker Herald, who is in Salem during legislature, was the inspiration for an informal gathering of Salem newspaper women Sunday evening. Following a theatre party, the group went to the home of Mrs. Burton A. Meyers, where a luncheon was served. Invitations included Mrs. Whitehead, Lucile Watson, Carl S. Dibble, Mollie Runcorn Brunk, Gertrude Robinson, Mrs. Burton A. Meyers, Ella McMunn, Lucile Saunders and Dorris Sikes.

The guests included not only those now engaged on the papers but a number of former newspaper women. Various other informal get-togethers are planned.

One of the many social events which it was thought best to postpone in Salem on account of the influenza was the banquet of the four-minute speakers of Willamette university which was to have been held January 16, the date set for similar demonstrations in all schools and colleges where four-minute speakers were trained. Arrangements are now being made to have this banquet soon. Perhaps during the present month. Professor Della Crowder Miller, head of the department of oratory and public speaking at Willamette, is chairman of the college speakers.

Miss Selma Kumrow, who for the past four months has been connected with the Y. W. C. A. hostess house cafeteria in the Puget Sound navy yard, has returned home to continue her studies in the Salem high school. Miss Kumrow at present is entertaining Joseph DePrano of Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. DePrano before entering the service, was connected with the Philadelphia board of education.

Professor Della Crowder Miller entertained at her dinner guests on Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. E. Sherwood of Kimball college of Theology. On Friday evening, Professor Miller entertained Sergeant Harry Bowers and Miss Ruth Spoor, both graduates of Willamette university with the class of 1918.

Miss Laura Heist who is engaged as reconstruction aide at Camp Devens, Mass., writes to relatives in Salem of the wonderful results which are being obtained among the men who receive treatment there. She gives many instances of the results obtained by surgical skill, but emphasizes that the psychic effects are the most wonderful.

Marion Hunt, who but recently received his discharge from the service and who has been visiting with his parents in Salem, is now in the Columbia Sellwood Woolen mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are well known in Salem, having visited here many times with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, the parents of the former and with Chasney Bishop, a brother. On their trips to Salem they have been the inspiration for many social events in their honor.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hunt, since that time, is now domiciled at the Beaver Glen stock farm at Waldo hills. Previous to his entering the service, about three months ago, Mr. Hunt was engaged in farming. He has spent his time at Fort Scott, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. August Huckestein, Jr., of Independence, spent Sunday with the parents of the former. Mr. Huckestein is with the Standard Oil company in Independence.

Miss Mable Patrick, who for a couple of years has been employed on the state board of control is enjoying a vacation at the home of her father, A. M. Patrick, in Polk county.

Doyle B. Smith writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith, of Salem Heights, that he has just completed his studies in New York and Princeton, New Jersey, and has been commissioned as assistant paymaster in the navy. Mr. Smith enrolled as a first class yeoman nearly two years ago and did clerical work in Bremer-ton until three months ago. He is at present in New York awaiting appointment to some post.

DON'T FOOL YOURSELF.
A man suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints or sore muscles may laugh and say these symptoms of kidney trouble "don't amount to anything." It is folly to ignore Nature's warnings. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in kidney or bladder troubles and "it is better to be safe than sorry." J. C. Perry.

Reconstruction Problems May Be Cause of Probe

To investigate reconstruction problems and submit their findings at a special election to be held in October of this year, is the object of creation of a special reconstruction commission by a bill introduced by Representative Sheldon yesterday. The commission would include 15 members, eight of them to be appointed at the suggestions of various organizations of the state and the other seven from the citizenship of the state at large, all to be named by the governor. The bill provides an appropriation of $5000 for the commission's work and another bill by Sheldon calls for a special election with a $15,000 appropriation.

YOU KNOW, BUT SOMETIMES FORGET

Everybody knows an imitation is never so good as the genuine article. Foley's Honey and Tar stands at the top of the list of family remedies for colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and gripe coughs. W. L. Anglin, Antioch, La., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar 15 years. It is the best." J. C. Perry.

Wants to Give Medals to Oregon Men in the Service

Soldiers, sailors and marines should each receive a medal in commemoration of his service to his country under the provisions of a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Sheldon and Idleman and providing an appropriation of $10,000 for that purpose. The last legislature recognized the boys in Mexican border service with presentation of medals.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY.

Don't miss this. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c to Foley & Co., 2335 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup, Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. J. C. Perry.

BUYS LARGE FARM.

DALLAS, Ore., Feb. 3.—(Special to The Statesman)—Frank Pawk, a prominent farmer and stock raiser of the Salt creek community just north of this city has purchased the farm of Mrs. Sarah Smith located about two miles north of Rickreall. The farm is considered one of the best pieces of land in Polk county practically all of it being tillable soil. Mr. Pawk recently disposed of a portion of his Salt creek ranch and will move onto his new place this spring.

The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They endanger the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors, cures all their inward and outward effects. It is the great alternative and tonic, whose merit has been everywhere established.

Would Hold Institutions to a 6 Per Cent Limit

Representative Schuebel would bind down the state institutions by a six per cent limitation the way the general levying power is held down and introduced a bill yesterday providing that such institutions cannot receive more than 6 per cent in excess of what they received during any preceding biennium.

BIG DEMAND FOR GOATS.

DALLAS, Ore., Feb. 3.—(Special to The Statesman)—According to U. S. Grant of this city, president of the National Mohair Growers' association and one of the well known Angora goat breeders in the United States there never has been a bigger demand for the Angora goat than at the present time. Mr. Grant receives inquiries every day from breeders all over the country for prices on his blooded stock and of late the sales have been much larger than the production of his herd. While attending the national convention recently at Phoenix, Arizona, a well known Texas Angora goat breeder offered Mr. Grant the sum of $5000 for a supply of bucks from his herd but the offer was declined on account of excessive demand.

BUSINESS PERKS UP IN SALEM
This Is Assertion of Business Men—Mr. Littler Makes Comments
There seems to be an air of business confidence in Salem. Many of the business men predict that we are to enjoy the best business year. Sale has seen for a long time. This is not a shallow guess but is a conclusion based upon the present volume of business, known business projects which are soon to be launched, the return of men now in the army at navy and public work which will give many men employment.
Among the business men who were the smile of confidence is J. B. Littler of The Bootery. When asked what he thought of the business outlook, Mr. Littler said:
"The brightest prospects I've seen. We are due to get our prosperity now. Portland, Astoria and other coast towns got theirs from shipping and war work. That about over now, and they're overpopulated, with many unemployed. Salem hasn't had the advantages of any considerable amount of war work but she has moved along in healthy conservative business way. She hasn't had a boom and she won't have a set-back. She's not overpopulated.
"Building and all kinds of construction have been delayed on account of the war, but now that the war is over, the restrictions are removed and I look for considerable activity along these lines.
"As for my own business, Saturday was the Bootery's second anniversary and it was the best business day since we opened our doors ten years ago. Of course, some of the business was due to the fact that we were holding a sale—offering 12 per cent discount—but we have had other sales and we have never had the volume of business that our cash register showed Saturday night."
"I'm really enthused over the bright prospects for business. Unless all our signs fail this year will be hummer."

School District May Be Established at Monitor

MOUNT ANGEL, Ore., Feb. 1.—The residents of Monitor have started a move to establish a school district at that place, taking a part of three districts in Clackamas county. A hearing is to be had at the county superintendent's office at Salem on Friday, February 7 and very likely will be a very interesting affair.
Several large motor trucks have been busy of late hauling ties and lumber from the Butte Creek Lumber company located near Scotts Mills from their mill to Mount Angel for shipment. On account of the frost and wet weather those trucks have been pretty hard on parts of the road as soon as material can be had the road will likely be repaired. The Butte Creek Lumber company expect to increase the capacity of its mill and employ from 50 to 100 men this summer.
No new cases of influenza having developed in the city for the past two weeks, the city health board removed the ban on public gatherings, movies, pool halls and schools. The individual cases if any appear in the future will be quarantined and the ban will still be kept on dances. Schools will be open as usual Monday, February 3.

WOULD LEGALIZE MATCHES

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 3.—A bill to legalize boxing matches in Washington known as the Wray bill was defeated in the state senate today by a vote of 29 to 19.

Lieutenant Arthur Lee of Newberg Decorated

First Lieutenant Arthur Trumbull Lee of the 364th Infantry has been given the distinguished service cross for extraordinary heroism in action near Trosson Farm, France, September 28, and at Leauwen, Belgium, October 31, 1918. On the afternoon of September 28 Lieutenant Lee advanced with his platoon to Trosson Farm under heavy artillery and machine gun fire and captured seven machine guns and much ammunition. Forced to retire he returned with his capture and platoon in good order. On October 31, while attempting to locate machine gun nests which were holding up his advance he was severely wounded that, in spite of his desire to continue, he was unable to do so. His home address, is Rev. George H. Lee, Newberg, Oregon.

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do any housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. Buzza, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Buzza that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham, Medford, N. J.
