

SOCIETY

BY DORRIS LEAH SIKES.

THE French band which comes to Salem next week is by far the greatest musical treat which has ever been given in this city. Composed of men, all veterans and medal winners of the late war, the band will possess double interest for the entire populace.

If we knew nothing of the fame of the band, the women acting for patronesses for them on their tour of this country, both local and national, would assure us that it is of significant worth.

The list of national patronesses, including the most prominent women of the day are:

National patronesses:
Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mme. Jusserand, wife of French ambassador, Countess of Reading, wife of English ambassador, Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Mable Boardman, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Edward N. Hurley, Mrs. J. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Joseph Leiter, Mrs. Frank C. Polk, Mrs. H. R. Rea, Mrs. William C. Redfield.

And How It Is Fitted.
First we aid you in selecting the right model for your particular type of figure, then we fit the garment and make alterations to suit your particular needs. Thus every customer is assured of having a garment comfortable in all positions.

Why, they were the instructors in our city schools out for a lark and the ship George Washington was the Elks clubhouse.

Over 100 guests were present at the collation, which was given under the auspices of the Salem Teachers' association. Many of those present attended in costumes suited to the characters they represented. Dainty refreshments rounded out the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. T. H. Vinton, wife of Senator Vinton, was hostess for a charming dinner given in the private dining room of the Hotel Marion Friday evening, the guests including 20 of her friends. They were seated about three tables, the centerpiece for each being dainty pink primroses and the charm of the scene was further enhanced by the use of pink shaded candles.

Mrs. Vinton's guest list included Mrs. Gus Moser, Mrs. W. H. Straper, Mrs. W. W. Banks, Mrs. M. D. Shanks, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. A. W. Orton, Mrs. W. M. Pierce, Mrs. Julien Hurley, Mrs. Walter Dimick, Mrs. S. B. Huston, Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mrs. J. C. Porter, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Lawrence E. Harris, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. W. B. Dennis, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, Mrs. J. A. Linnville, and Mrs. Peck.

A new and worthy custom was instituted in Salem yesterday in the Washington's birthday celebration at the armory which was given under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The patriotism of the people and the regard with which Washington was held in their eyes was evidenced by the large attendance, even standing room being at a premium. Mrs. C. C. Clarke and Mrs. Seymour Jones, the committee in charge, express their appreciation for the services of everyone who helped on the program and especially to the children, both for the parts they took and the manner in which they conducted themselves.

Judge Johns of the supreme court gave the address for the afternoon, summarizing the life of Washington. Because of throat trouble, Miss Lena Belle Tartar was unable to render the vocal solo, "Song of a Thousand Years," as announced but read it instead. The program follows:

Star Spangled Banner and flag salute
Audience Greeting—Mrs. Seymour Jones, regent of Chemeketa chapter.
America (new tune) public school children
My Own United States—school children
Transfer of Veteran's Flag to Boy Scouts—Mrs. J. G. Heltz, honorary regent of Chemeketa chapter.
Land of Mine—School children
Reading, "I Am An American"
Willard Marshall Chorus—Girls from Senior high school
Address—Judge Johns, of the Supreme Court.
Solo—"Song of a Thousand Years," Lena Belle Tartar
O Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean Audience

Complimenting a number of ladies of the legislature and supreme court, Mrs. Henry J. Bean and Mrs. C. P. Bishop entertained with a luncheon Friday at the home of the former. The dining room was a profusion of daffodils and about the table were placed yellow shaded candles. A yellow motif was further carried out in the ices of yellow and white.

The guests enjoyed a number of vocal selections by Mrs. Brand, wife of Representative Brand, and readings by Mrs. Childs.

The guest list follows: Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. W. M. Pearce, Mrs. Elmer Dodd of Hermiston, Mrs. Childs,

In Society and Clubdom

Feb. 25.—Illahee Red Cross Mrs. Walter McDougall enter taining.

Feb. 27.—Cherrian banquet.

March 5.—Concert by French band.

Announcements for this section should be phoned to the society editor on or before Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Gus Moser, Mrs. Dimick, Mrs. S. B. Huston, Mrs. Ben Sheldon, Mrs. T. A. Vinton, Mrs. Lewis Bean, Mrs. Brand, Mrs. George Burnett, Mrs. J. V. Johns, Mrs. Harry L. Benson, Mrs. Laurence T. Harris, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Seymour Jones, and Mrs. Bennett.

Five hundred and dancing supplemented by a three course luncheon proved entertainment for a group of friends who gathered at the R. C. Magee home Tuesday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Van Osdell, Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Wittzel, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Miss Violet Crew, and Miss Bloominger.

Miss Joy Turner's Beethoven club composed of violin and piano students, will give an informal recital at the residence studio, 335 North Capital street, this afternoon. Membership of the club numbers about 32, the most of whom will take part in the recital.

One of a series of dances which the Yeomen are staging this season is the one at the Masonic temple Wednesday evening for which invitations are being issued. A committee composed of Cecil McDonald, Mrs. W. H. Prunk, and Miss Joy Turner are planning for the event. Invitations for the dance can be secured at the Red Cross Pharmacy in case anyone is overlooked.

Miss Marjorie Kay returned Friday evening to Eugene after a few days spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay. Miss Kay is a popular Delta Gamma girl.

Very gay in its suggestiveness of the Valentine season was the dancing party which members of the Monday night club enjoyed last Monday evening. The rooms were elaborate in their decorations of red hearts and baskets hung from the ceiling and about the room ivy and potted plants were used effectively the decorative scheme. Punch was served to the guests throughout the evening. March 10 is the date for the next function of the club.

In the preparation of the entertainment which the Patriotic league will give at the opera house this week to raise funds for the benefit of the soldiers some of the best talent in Salem has been secured. Among these will be a part of Miss Elizabeth Levy's violin ensemble which was so enthusiastically received upon its appearance at the hotel a week ago. Little Miss Genevieve Barbour, the clever dancer, will appear in two dances and the high school girls' glee club will have several members. Receipts will be used to settle an account of old standing for material used in making bags for the men of Company M. With the arrival of these men at so imminent a date, the league wishes to clear the debt at once.

The program follows:
Part One
(a) Gaily We're Tripping (Vocal solo) Girls' Glee club of Salem High School.
(b) Beneath Thy Lattice (Hopkins) Direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar.

and Elin T. Albert, Jr., of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirk, Ninta E. Harris, of Hoquiam, Wash.

Miss Edna Smith, former clerk at Barnes Cash store, will leave tomorrow for her home in Cripple Creek, Colorado.

A gay dinner, party was the one which Mrs. Mrs. Al H. Steiner gave Friday on the occasion of the birthday of her husband and daughter, Margaret. Added to the patriotic decorations were Oregon grapes and violets. Those bidden were: Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. James Imlah, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. Marshall, Miss Mildred Imlah and Miss Marie Marshall.

Senator Vinton entertained 38 men, including all of the senators and some of the press correspondents at the state house, at dinner Friday evening at the Hotel Marion. The men gathered around a table decorated with daffodils and marygolds. In the center of the table was a large gold basket of the flowers flanked by daffodil shaded candles.

A charming musicale was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts Thursday evening. Daffodils harmonized perfectly with the yellow color scheme used in decoration and a delightful atmosphere of informality prevailed. One of the most enjoyable features was the singing by Mrs. Charles A. Brand of Roseburg who interpreted beautifully songs by Chadwick, Thomas, Schubert and others, Professor John R. Sites accompanying. Stirring and dramatic were the readings on the late war by Mrs. Charles Childs, wife of Representative Childs of Brownsville. Messrs. F. E. Saunders and T. S. Roberts played solos and duets, among which were selections from Il Trovatore and Tannhauser. After the program the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The guests were Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Albert Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. Jane Roberts, Mrs. Minnie Harding, Mrs. Blair, Miss Blair, and Hugh Roberts.

Public school children all over the state of Oregon Friday took part in one of the most fitting celebrations of Washington's birthday which has ever been staged. This was the planting of black walnuts as a memorial to the honor of the great president.

In 1907 O. M. Plummer, director of the Portland schools, visited the tomb of George Washington at Mount Vernon and secured a half a dozen black walnuts from the celebrated trees which overhang the tomb. He brought these back to Oregon and planted them but only one sprouted. The next year this was transplanted and now has become a tree standing 40 feet high.

This year when the crop of nuts was gathered and hulled it was found to weigh 100 pounds. Through the kindness of Mr. Plummer these were distributed throughout the state and will go down in everlasting commemoration of "the father of our country."

One of the prettiest affairs which have honored wives of legislators this season was the entertainment for Mrs. E. P. Dodd of Hermiston, at which Mrs. Grace Eoff was hostess on Wednesday evening. Before her marriage Mrs. Dodd was Miss Stella Alexander, a popular young Portland woman.

The reception rooms were charming in their color scheme of yellow and white, carried out with daffodils. Assisting the hostess about the rooms were Mrs. R. W. Craig, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Charles Roberts, and Mrs. William Steusloff. The women who enjoyed Mrs. Eoff's hospitality were Mrs. T. B.

Kay, Mrs. Charles Robison, Ben Oicott, Mrs. Joseph Hinkle, Hermiston, Oregon, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. R. W. Craig, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. William Steusloff, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Cook Patton, Mrs. Roy E. Pemberton, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. Frank Griffith, and Mrs. Percy Cupper.

Mrs. Alexander Thompson, representative from Wasco county, will speak to the boys at the reform school today. Mrs. Thompson is deeply interested in child welfare work. She will be the guest of Superintendent and Mrs. L. M. Gilbert for the day.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
