WASHINGTON, March 3.-President Wilson tonight was ready to begin the return journey to the peace conference, having transacted in seven days of his stay in Washington all pending public business except such as will engage his attention at the capitol in the final hours of tomorrow of this congress. Immediate. ly after adjournment he will leave for New York on his way to Paris. Working at top speed on the last full day available to him in the capitol, the president cleared his desk sufficiently to get out for a walk this afternoon with Mrs. Wilsontramping briskly through matines crowds and homegoing war workers Large crowds followed them and finally the police had to intervene as the traffic became impeded.

Several times the president stopped to speak to wounded soldiers.

After opening the conference of governors and mayors this morning n the east room of the White House. President Wilson had his time clear for correspondence and the signing of bills until shortly after noon, when he received the new ambassador from Argentina, Dr. Thomas A. Lobreton who presented his credentials. Later he received a delegation representing farmer organizations, who promsed support to the league of nations and suggested amendments to the constitution. Secretarys Baker, Danels and Houston called at the exe utive offices this afternoon and tonight A. Mitchell Palmer, who be comes attorney general tomorrow conferred with the president.

In welcoming the new Argentine envoy, Mr. Wilson expressed appreciation for the friendship of the great South American republic and promsed all possible assistance for the maintenance of harmonious relation between the two countries.

"It is a cause for congratulation. Mr. Wilson said, "that notwithstanding the confusion and dislocation of interests inevitable in such a critical period, the relations between our two countries have shown no strain and he friendship between our peoples has remained unimpaired.

"With the return of more stable conditions many difficulties which till hamper us will gradually derease so that we can even now look forward with hope to the full reuniption of all normal activities. "It is therefore a propitious moment

'or us to strengthen further the riendly ties that united our nations and our peoples between them great er knowledge and a more just appredation of each other will ensue and the danger of misunderstanding will be minimized.

"You can rely on the cordial cooperation of this government in all your efforts to attain this object." Among the bills signed today by the president were the rivers and harbors appropriation bill and the measure validating $2,700,000,000 worth of informal war contracts, Plans for the president's departure remained unchanged. He will to from the capitol to the train, asriving in New York about 8:30 p. m. and will go direct to the Metropolitan Opera House to speak to the league of nations.
