

Children Love Candy Cascarets

Careful mothers know that Cascarets in the home mean less sickness, less trouble, less worry, less cost. When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, feverish breath, sour stomach or a cold, a Cascaret quickly and harmlessly "works" the poisons from the liver and bowels and all is well again.

TO MOTHERS! While all children detest castor oil, calomel, pills and laxatives, they really love to take Cascarets because they taste like candy. Cascarets "work" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the child's tender stomach, liver and bowels without pain or griping. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box contains directions for children aged one year old and upwards.

Member of Long-Hairs Runs Amuck With Gun

NEW YORK, March 6.—Theater-going crowds in Forty-Eighth street fled in panic tonight when a long-haired person who said he was Enrico Fabatino, "president of the Buffalo Bolsheviks," ran amuck with a revolver. Apparently it made no difference to him who his bullets hit, for he fired in all directions. Only one of the shots took effect.

John P. Rothman, a broker, was shot in the left shoulder, but it was said at a hospital that the wound was not serious.

After firing four shots, shouting wildly and flourishing his weapon, Fabatino ran toward Broadway. Several patrolmen caught him and he was disarmed, but not gently. Charges of felonious assault and carrying concealed weapons were preferred against him, and he was sent to the psychopathic ward at the Bellevue hospital for observation.

COOKE PATTON IS HERE AGAIN

Inevitable and Irrepressible Comedian in Cast of Elks' Show

E. Cooke Patton, who plays Bateato, the Jap, in the Elks show, "Officer 666," Grand theater, Wednesday and Thursday, March 12 and 13.

It is pretty generally conceded that the best known Elk actor in Salem is E. Cooke Patton, book-seller and stationer, booster, postcard expert, magician, business man, hypnotist, and perpetual member of the Elks show committee.

Cooke has appeared in every Elks show that has been put on since the local lodge began operations back in the 90's, and the annual play would be just about as complete without him as a boat without a rudder. He scored a big hit in last year's Elks show, "The Man From Home," and in the play of the previous year, "Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford?" and in all the plays before that, clear back to the beginning of dramatic life in Elkdom.

In this year's play, "Officer 666," which will be staged at the Grand theater Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 12 and 13, the veteran comedian will be seen in the role of "Bateato," the Japanese butler and general trouble-maker for "Travers Gladwin" (James Mott). "Bateato" is one of the funniest Japanese characters in any American play, and Mr. Patton is seen at his best in his portrayal of this incorrigible son of Nippon. "Bateato" has two awful habits. One of them is continuous talking, and the other is carrying out literally all the orders that are given to him. This results in a terrible mix up for everybody in the play who comes in contact with the Jap, and when Bateato is finally ordered not to talk at all his silence results in more trouble than ever.

"Bateato's" mysterious scene at the opening of the play with Police Officer No. 666, (George C. L. Snyder) is one of the finest pieces of comedy work Cooke Patton has ever done. In this scene he "plants" the atmosphere of mystery which is one of the unique and essential features of Augustin McHugh's famous melodramatic-farce, and his scenes with the picture crook (Oscar B. Gingrich) and with "Helen," the heroine, (Miss Olga Gray) are even more mysteriously comical. He keeps the audience in a roar of laughter from the time he makes his first appearance. The laughter comes out of his continuous talking and when after three acts of incessant chatter he is finally arrested for refusing to talk, the audience is thrown into a veritable scream. Incidentally it may be stated that the police force which arrests Mr. Patton is a whole show in itself. The force consists of Mayor C. E. Albin, Governor Ben W. Olcott, George Snyder, Dan Langenberg, and two real cops from the Salem police station.

The seat sale for both performances of "Officer 666," will open at the Opera House Pharmacy Tuesday morning, March 11. The prices are the same as last year 50 cents and one dollar.

SHIP WORKERS ARE DIVIDED

Referendum Promises to Be Close on Question of Going Back to Work

TACOMA, Wash., March 6.—A sharp division developed between the leaders of the shipyard strikers in Tacoma at a mass meeting of the strikers at Tacoma hall this afternoon and is declared to indicate a close referendum vote tomorrow among the workers on whether or not to return to work. A personal appeal to stay out was made by W. T. "Paddy" Morris on the grounds that to go back is to surrender, while Tom Russell, who did not openly oppose staying out, took the position that the rank and file would have to decide the question and that it would be one of whether the pocketbook and the family larder could stand for a prolonged wait for adjustment. When the crowd of more than 1,200 strikers was asked if they could afford to stay out until an adjournment was reached there were mixed cries of "no," and "yes." It was announced from the platform that the boilermakers union would meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow to take their referendum vote and that there would be a special meet-

Two Excellent Recipes in which

Columbia Brand Oleomargarine is used with pleasing results.

DOUGHNUTS

1 cup sugar, 2 1/2 tablespoons COLUMBIA BRAND OLEOMARGARINE, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, flour to roll.

Cream the butter and add one-half sugar. Beat egg well light, and remaining sugar, and combine mixtures. Add 2 1/2 cups flour, mixed and sifted with baking powder, salt and spices. Then enough more flour to make dough stiff enough to roll. Take one-third of mixture on flour board, knead slightly, pat and roll out to 1/4-inch thickness. Shape with a doughnut cutter, fry in deep fat, take up with a fork, and drain on brown paper. Repeat this process until mixture is used.

BISCUITS

2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder 1/4 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons COLUMBIA BRAND OLEOMARGARINE, and 1/2 cup milk.

Mix dry ingredients. Work in oleomargarine with tips of fingers; add gradually the liquids, mixing with knife to a soft dough. Press on a floured board, pat and roll lightly to 1/4-inch thickness. Shape with biscuit cutter. Place on buttered pan and bake in hot oven. It is impossible to determine the exact amount of liquid owing to the difference in flour.

ing of the shipyard laborers, riggers and fasteners at 3 p. m.

Several questions among the strikers were brought before the meeting. Among these were the charges of that only unions whose international were affiliated with the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor would have representative at the coming wage adjustment conference at Washington, D. C., March 15; that the representation at the conference was undemocratic; while a third charge threshed out was that the international officers of the metal trades union were working in the interests of the emergency fleet corporation to separate the northwest from the metal trade workers of the coast and other sections.

Return Is Expected. SEATTLE, Wash., March 6.—Anticipating a favorable vote by Seattle Metal unions on the proposition of whether or not to return to work, shipyard owners today began active preparations for reopening both steel and wooden yards next week. More than 25,000 men here have been on strike for higher pay since January 21.

Today it was announced that the draftsmen have voted to return to work. The moulders' union also has voted, but the results were not made public. Officers of the shipyard laborers, riggers and fasteners' union, said that nearly 200 out of 600 had voted to continue to strike. The result of the referendum taken by all unions is expected to be known before Saturday night.

Shipyards here, it was said, probably will operate on a single day shift plan when they are re-opened, instead of the former three-shifts.

SAYS HE DIDN'T DISOBEY ORDERS

Governor Allen of Kansas Refutes Statement by General Traub

LAWRENCE, Kas., March 6.—"General Peter Traub does not remember that he rescinded his order sending Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross workers to the rear during the battle of the Argonne," Governor Henry J. Allen said today in explaining his presence at the front as against General Traub's testimony before the house rules committee, in Washington, that if Governor Allen was at the front, it was in violation of orders.

General Traub's testimony was that "if Governor Allen said he was at the front, he was there, but officially none of the Y. M. C. A. workers had any place at the front."

Governor Allen's statement was made during an address to students of the University of Kansas.

"General Traub must have known Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross workers were at the front during the battle, for after the battle he wrote a letter commending their work. I have a copy of the letter," said Governor Allen.

"Such statements as are now being made by these in high command merely cloud the issue and do not apply to the charges I made regarding the delinquencies of the high command with regard to the sending of the 35th division into battle poorly equipped and not giving them the proper support.

"I do not wish to enter into a controversy with General Traub, but when he seems deliberately to forget that he rescinded the order sending the Y. M. C. A. workers and the Red Cross men to the rear and is publicly indicating that, with others, deliberately disobeyed orders, some response is necessary."
