

THE OREGON STATESMAN

Issued Daily Except Monday by THE STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY 215 S. Commercial St., Salem, Oregon

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

R. J. Hendricks... Manager Stephen A. Stone... Managing Editor Ralph Glover... Cashier W. C. Squier... Advertising Manager Frank Jaskoski... Manager Job Dept.

DAILY STATESMAN, served by carrier in Salem and suburbs, 15 cents a week, 50 cents a month.

DAILY STATESMAN, by mail, $6 a year; $3 for six months; 50 cents a month. For three months or more, paid in advance, at rate of $5 a year.

WEEKLY STATESMAN, issued in two six-page sections, Tuesdays and Fridays, $1 a year (if not paid in advance, $1.25); 50 cents for six months; 25 cents for three months.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, 23. Circulation Department, 583. Job Department, 583.

Entered at the Postoffice in Salem, Oregon, as second class matter.

THIS ALSO IS SALEM'S DUTY: DO YOUR BIT.

Salem must grow symmetrically—culturally and materially. This will be a solid growth; it will be enduring. It will persist throughout the generations. Salem should encourage in every way possible every new industry; must help in all possible ways the expansion of the industries already established.

THE GOVERNOR'S SECRETARY.

Governor Olcott has chosen well in naming Don H. Upjohn as his private secretary. The regular line of work that falls to the Governor's secretary will be taken care of easily and efficiently by Mr. Upjohn, and he will be invaluable to his chief in a more important way because of his training in the law, his long association with public men and his experience of nearly a decade with Oregon state affairs.

TO THE AMERICAN WAR MOTHERS.

To the editor of the Salem Statesman: May I beg a little space in your paper to address a few words to the Salem American War Mothers and the committee in connection with the homecoming reception for our boys to be held in the near future?

You may not all be aware of the fact that Prof. J. R. Sites, of Willamette university, who will give the first concert of his Symphony orchestra on Thursday of this week, was compelled to postpone this same concert, the date of which was first set for Feb. 4, until now, because, in order to get the French band, it was necessary for us to take it on Mar. 5 or not at all.

Let us make it possible to keep it here and we will not need to look to the outside so often for entertainers. We can then keep our money at home. Prof. Sites is chairman of our music committee and will assist us greatly in making the reception a success.

MRS. JOHN A. CARSON, President, Salem Unit American War Mothers.

Henry Albers is no doubt sorry he did not go bone dry a long time ago.

Don't worry; there will be plenty of sunshine for the spinach you are going to plant to help keep Salem on the map of prosperity.

The Socialists are now discussing who started the war. We don't know. But we have heard of a Democratic politician who got a second term because he kept us out—Exchange.

Wouldst thou know if a people be well governed, if its laws be good or bad? Examine the music it practices.—Confucius.

Thus spoke the great Chinese leader who preceded Jesus Christ many centuries. From the above we fancy that "Jazz" music (?) was as prevalent in China in the time of Confucius as it is today. Whatever a people practices is the outcome of the mental state of said people.

THE BATTLE HYMN OF VICTORY

(W. T. Rigdon, author of the song printed below, under the heading of "The Battle Hymn of Victory," offered a five dollar prize for the best title. Announcement was made in The Statesman of a week ago last Sunday, and suggestions were to be sent, sealed, to W. T. Rigdon, 252 North High street, Salem, till Saturday, March 8th, at 6 o'clock.

The Battle Hymn of Victory. Hurrah, the Victory is Won. Columbia to The Rescue. Liberty Spirit Song. Battle Hymn of Victory. Our Khaki Boys' Crusade. Battle Hymn of Democracy. Battle Hymn of Victory. Victory Hallelujah. The Knell of Autocracy. The Second Birth of Freedom. The Freedom of the World. The Fight for Right. Uncle Sam to Will-yu-am. The Knell of Kings. The Second Birth of Liberty. The Freeing of the Nations. Right Against Might. Compliments of Uncle to Will-yu-am. Mother's Darling. The Victory of the Yanks. As Sammy Sees It. Our Boys. Victory Won. Battle Hymn of Democracy.

THE BATTLE HYMN OF VICTORY.

The world, in hate and anger was engulfed, across the sea; Democracy was over matched by bold autocracy. With France and England striving hard to save their liberty, But the hour was wrapped in gloom.

Glory, glory hallelujah! Glory, glory hallelujah! Glory, glory hallelujah! The victory is won.

The ugly Hun was striking hard against all righteous laws, And claiming that the God of Love was backing up his cause; So Britain pled with Uncle Sam to call his staunchest boys To help them win the war.

Our bravest gallant laddies were all scoffing at defeat, But our dearest loyal mothers were just trembling on their feet, While our sturdy honored daddies, who are always so discreet, Were insisting on the call.

So Uncle Sam called out for those who'd sacrifice their all, And for those who were so anxious and all ready for the call, And also for the staunchest ones which nothing could forestall, When they meet that great "I AM."

And so our boys came rushing like a swiftly flowing tide; They donned the khaki suits in haste with burnished swords beside; They braved the ocean's perils and the submarine defied, As they crossed the deep blue sea.

They landed on the Hun prepared to knock him off his crest, And the heavy blows they landed were their very, very best; They never loosened up their nerves nor 'low'd themselves to rest, Till the vic-to-ry was won.

Then turned their faces homeward tow'rd the land that gave them birth, Where every true American appreciates their worth; Oh! nothing is too good for them while staying here on earth, For they smashed autocracy.

So now, we'll give them glory; 'tis the least that we can do, And we'll tell the truthful story of their awful fighting, too, And now, we'll hip hurrah the boys who've proved themselves so true, For they brought us vic-to-ry.

We hope the God of Peace will always rule our guiding star, That we'll never have to call them for another cruel war, And we hope the God of Mercy, soon, will heal up every scar, On the face of lib-er-ty.

FLAG ETIQUETTE

(Prepared by the National Committee of Patriotic Societies, Washington, D. C.)

When the colors are passing, the spectator, if a man, should halt if walking, arise if sitting and uncover, holding the headress opposite the left shoulder with the right hand; if bare-headed, he should salute with the right hand. A woman should stand at attention as the Flag passes by.

When the Flag is waving from a stationary flagstaff or pole it is not saluted with the hand. In decorating, the flag should never be festooned or draped. Always hung flat. If hung with stripes horizontal, Union should be in upper left corner. If hung perpendicularly, Union should be at the right.

When the Flag is carried in parade, or when crossed with other flags, the Stars and Stripes should always be at the right. The law specifically forbids the use of and representation of the Flag in any manner or in any connection with merchandise for sale.

The Flag should be raised at sunrise and lowered at sunset. It should not be displayed on stormy days or except when under fire of the enemy, left out overnight. Although there is no authoritative ruling which compels civilians to lower the Flag at sundown, good taste should impel them to follow the traditions of the Army and Navy in this sundown ceremonial.

Primarily the Flag is raised to be SEEN, and secondly, the Flag is something to be guarded, treasured, and so tradition holds it shall not be menaced by the darkness. To leave the Flag out at night, unattended, is proof of shiftlessness, or at least carelessness.

On Memorial Day the Flag should be displayed at halfmast from sunrise until noon, and at the peak from noon until sunset. It should, on being retired, never be allowed to touch the ground.

When the "Star Spangled Banner" is played or sung, uncover, stand and remain standing, IN SILENCE, until it is finished. Applause at the conclusion of the "Star Spangled Banner" is out of place.

Worn-out and useless flags should be destroyed by burning. A flag torn or frayed by the wind and weather should never again be hoisted until it has been repaired. This is a regulation of both the Army and Navy and should also be followed by all civilians.

ons, and we declare it cheaper to raise children in such an atmosphere, as it will make of them men and women of refinement, than to raise them uncouth and uncultured and vicious, that the community may later pay taxes to keep them in a penitentiary, to say nothing of the disgrace and heart-aches usually accompanying such an outcome.

No parent should fail to see to it that his child is brought face to face with the best in art—in music and literature. This is a duty. The awakening of a love of the beautiful in the child at an early age is

For They Brought Us Victory. Brave Victory Boys. The Glory Song. The Glory War Song. Our Soldier Boys. Victory Through Right and Might. America's Boys. Old Glory More Glorious. Our Conquering Lads. America Victorious. Our Guiding Stars. Sons of Victory. The Victorious Battle Song of Peace.

The Victory Song of Peace. The Song of Victory. From Gloom to Peace. America's Armistice. The Triumphant Song (or Hymn) of Victory.

Marching to Victory. America's Response. America to the Rescue. The Path to Victory. Response to Democracy by U. S. A. Song of Victory. Kulture Downed. 'Tis Done—Won Peace. Consecration. The Yankees Did It. Our Khaki Heroes. Victory. Uncle Sam's Fight for Democracy. Battle Song of Liberty. Hu-rah, the Victory Is Won. Rigdon's Victory Song. Rigdon's Song of Freedom. America's Victory Hymn. America's Compliments. Glory to the Boys for the Victory They Won. The Gallant Yankee Lads. (In this connection, Mr. Rigdon wishes to take this method to thank all the competitors, and the judges and others who assisted and took an interest in the competition.)

love, interest and pride in their community and its possibilities. Will our business people not try our plan for themselves?

Of course there may be those among us who will decry the efforts of those starting the Salem Symphony Orchestra, and who may attempt to belittle our efforts and indulge in odious comparisons, perhaps, between our orchestra and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. We must remind such would-be critics or carpers, if any there be, that the famous New York organization was once in swaddling clothes itself and that its eminence today is proof of the loyal support it received when it needed it most.

Again we say to those who may scoff that there is quite a difference in the support we are asking and what the New York Philharmonic Orchestra receives—some $250,000 per annum difference. Let all assume some of the responsibility of making the Orchestra a success, then it will be an easy matter. The performers are not in it for material gain. To many of them it is a direct loss both in time and money, but love of art, of all those finer elements of which art is composed, a feeling of community needs, and various matters and views impels them to engage in the work. Will you do something for your children, for your community, for yourself? The answer will be given next Thursday evening at the Grand Opera House. —RUTHYN TURNEY.

WIRELESS WONDERS

Secretary Daniels sat at his desk in the navy department and had telephone conversation with a birdman in a flying boat who was soaring through the skies some two hundred miles away. It was a good deal easier than if the secretary had stuck his head out of the window to call to someone passing in the street. Although the aviator was hurtling through space at the rate of a hundred miles an hour in a craft weighing more than a ton, he could converse with his superior almost as easily as if they were in the same room. Elijah and Jules Verne could not hold a candle to this if they were to get together and pool their experience and imagination.

LEST WE FORGET! The tumult and the shouting dies—The captains and the kings depart—Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart. Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget—lest we forget!

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Yes; 'ain enough. Buy Symphony Orchestra tickets.

There are many fifty-seven gold stars on the Marion and Polk county honor roll, as published by The Statesman. And no doubt some have failed as yet to report.

The question what is beer is likely to become more famous than the one of a few years ago as to what is whisky. The eastern brewers are bringing it to the front.

They may have a near bone dry period through near beer; but finally the will of the majority of the people of the United States will prevail. A republic is a government by majorities.

The law and order forces in Germany seem to have the upper hand for the present. But they will have to stay on the job all the time to keep it.

Perhaps, while the correspondents are writing about the final peace pact being put off, the thing will be done. Anyway, let us hope we may be surprised by such a surprise.

HONOR ROLL IS GROWING LONG

Many Parents Respond to Request to Send in Names of Men Lost in Service

In response to The Statesman's published appeal to parents of soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in the service to notify the paper of such casualties the honor roll is gradually growing. An accurate list of these names and information concerning them will be invaluable and information concerning gold service stars in both Marion and Polk counties should be sent in as soon as possible.

The following are the names of those from Polk and Marion counties who have made the supreme sacrifice. It includes killed in action, as well as those died of wounds, accident or disease while in the service. Army—Ivan E. Bellinger, William M. Catton, Edward Glittens, Wayne C. Jackson, Benjamin McClelland, Alfred Desrubleau, Ray Mark, Paul Rich, Leslie Tooze, Chester M. Wilcox, Curtis W. Willson, Chester A. Simmon, Aubrey Jones, Smith Ballard, Wilhelm E. Ahlgren, Milton A. Kooreman, Thomas D. Cooper, Milton Foreman, Benjamin F. Hill, John C. Braden, Stanley F. Thompson, Monte Christoperson, Orley P. Chase, James Gardner, Charles M. Woeike, Elton C. Blake, Otis Hayes, Newman D. Dennis, Roy Johnson, C.

WRIGLEY'S

Advertisement for Wrigley's chewing gum. Features a hand holding a pack of Doublemint gum, with text: '5 long-lasting bars in each package. The biggest value in refreshment you can possibly buy. A BENEFIT to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion. The price is 5 cents. The Flavor Lasts. WIRELESS WONDERS'.

Fair board to succeed J. E. Reynolds of LaGrande and W. H. Savage of Corvallis, both of whose terms expired Friday. It is not improbable that both will be sequestered. Reynolds recently was elected president of the board.

STRENGTH comes from well digested and thoroughly assimilated food. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the digestive organs, and thus builds up the strength. If you are getting "run down," begin taking Hood's at once. It gives nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Lumber Dealer Is Tried for Alleged Slaying

PORTLAND, Ore., March 17.—N. P. Sorenson, a lumber dealer, was placed on trial in the circuit court here today, charged with manslaughter for the alleged killing of Mrs. Mina Smith who was run down by an automobile last December. Sorenson has denied that he was the driver of the car which killed Mrs. Smith.

Fair Board Appointments Are Held in Abeyance

Governor Olcott said yesterday he would hold in abeyance the appointment of members of the state

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience Against Experiment. What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher. In Use For Over 30 Years. The Kind You Have Always Bought. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.