AMONG the many weddings which will be events of the early summer is that of Miss Livia Ferrin, of New York city, to Frank O'Brien, of New Britain, Conn. The announcement of the engagement was made recently in the east and is of especial interest to the Salem friends of the bride-to-be.

Miss Ferrin formerly was a member of the faculty of the Salem high school and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Ferrin, who lived in Forest Grove many years, but who now reside in Monclair, N. J.

Sometime ago Miss Ferrin came east receiving her masters degree at Columbia university. For almost two years she has been first assistant to Dr. Thorndike, the eminent psychologist in charge of the classification of personnel in the army.

Mr. O'Brien received his Ph. D. at Columbia last year and is now director of organization in New Britain. His successful work there has already attracted much attention to his method of handling this national problem.

Mrs. Theodore Madison entertained Tuesday her mother, Mrs. W. J. Cuddeback, and her sisters, Mrs. Arthur J. Abegg and Mrs. Rosita Cuddy, of Portland, and Mrs. Carl Paul Gottlieb, of Priest River, Id. The latter is visiting the family home and the trip Tuesday was in the nature of a surprise to the eldest daughter.

One of the prettiest dinners of the week was the one which Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain gave Friday night for the members of the Cherry City club. A spring effect was obtained in the decoration of daffodils, asparagus fern, Oregon grape, and spring flowers. Following the dinner the guests enjoyed several games of

Hot Curling Iron Goes —No More Broken Hair

(Beauty's Mirror)

Every woman knows that continual use of the hot curling iron means brittle, blistered, parched, dead-looking hair with burnt, uneven ends. There's no need of anyone using that instrument of torture, now that we know what can be accomplished by the occasional application of ordinary liquid silmerine. This is not only more effective, giving the hair a fluffier and prettier curl, but tends to promote its health, lustre and beauty. Any druggist can supply silmerine in liquid form and a few ounces will last many weeks, so it is quite economical to use.

The approved way is to part the hair in several strands and with a clean tooth brush apply the liquid the full length of each strand. The over-night transformation is agreeably surprising to one who has never tried this simple and harmless method.

cards, Mrs. Robert Downing and Fred Steusloff carrying off the high scores.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poisel, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rice, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Minto, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. John Craig, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, and Kehne Wain.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Bennett had as their guests over last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond and family of Portland. Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Bennett are sisters.

"An air of nearing completion for the band concerts which are a feature every summer in Salem. This year's personnel numbers about 20 men and includes the majority of the members who played last year. There are also in the number two of the old band men who have recently received their discharge from service and these are enthusiastically welcomed back by everyone in connection with the band.

Oscar Steelhammer, last year's successful director, will again lead the band this year and it will be managed by John Graber, who for about ten years has been manager. The band is practicing twice a week.

Among the soloists who will be featured this year are Charles Pabst and Mr. Mills, cornetists; Richard Riley, alto; Robert Savage and Earl Anderson, clarinetists; Miller Bevier, flute and piccolo; and Ivan Martin, baritone.

Captain and Mrs. Allan Byron, who are now in Chicago, will go this week to Washington, D. C., the former having received orders to report there before coming home. Before coming on to Salem they will visit for a short time in San Francisco.

Miss Mary den Blyker, of Tacoma, is a guest over the week-end of Mrs. Robertson Brooks. Miss Blyker was at one time an instructor in mathematics at the Salem high school.

Many people are welcoming back to the city as residents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Pruitt, who have been making their home in Astoria, since leaving Salem a few years ago.

Miss Harriet Griffith, who is a student at Miss Catlin's school in Portland, is in Salem at the home of her parents over the week-end.

A gay dancing party for which Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer were hosts at their home on Marion street Thursday evening was enjoyed by a few of the friends of the hosts. Spring flowers in profusion gave the rooms a pleasing appearance.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr.

and Mrs. H. C. Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk.

Miss Dorothy Donaldson is the week-end guest of friends and relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Miss Margery Marvin and Fritz Slade motored to Portland last night. They will return today.

Mrs. Floyd E. Edgerton (Claudine Rose) left Friday for her home in Los Angeles after a visit of nearly three months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rose.

Friends and relatives are rejoicing over the news that Captain Cloyd Rauch will be among the American troops who will land on this side this week. The boat is dated to dock Thursday and brings with it the 363rd infantry of the 91st division. They will be sent directly to the Presidio for release.

Mrs. Ted Lansing, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Will H. Bennett for a few days this week.

One of the pleasant events of the past week was the dinner given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nichols, of Brookside Meadows Farm, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Cass A. Nichols, (Mary Dorothea Tucker) upon their return from a short wedding trip in Southern Oregon.

The house was tastefully decorated with greenery and the large table was centered with a beautiful wedding cake surrounded with lacy ferns and white carnations. Much excitement was caused when the bride cut the cake. Miss Bessie Schunk found the button, Mrs. C. F. Johnston the dime, Emil Sundberg the thimble, and Madison Nichols the ring.

The guests for the evening numbered about 70 and included the immediate relatives and most intimate friends. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received. Mrs. Nichols was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. F. Johnston and Mrs. R. R. Crothers.

Mrs. E. B. Perkins and little daughter, Helen, who have been visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Edward Deneer, at Liberty for the past three months, will leave today for their home in Walla Walla.

It is with much regret that Salem has said good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Harrington and family, who left yesterday for Santa Fe, New Mexico, to take up their home. Mr. Harrington is widely known in this

For Freckled, Rough or Spotty Complexions

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which delicate skins are subject after exposure to wind or sun, often appearing in early spring, may readily be gotten rid of. Mercolized wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any druggist's. There's no more effective way of banishing freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple solution of powdered nasoline, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.
