MRS. GILSON PASSES AWAY

Funeral of Woman Active in Uplift Work Held at Episcopal Church

Last rites were said yesterday afternoon over Mrs. Agnes Gilson, wife of W. B. Gilson, who passed away Saturday morning at 9 o'clock after a three-days illness caused by hemorrhage of the brain. Rev. C. H. Powell of St. Paul's Episcopal church conducted the services from the church at 1:30 o'clock and interment was in City View cemetery. The passing of Mrs. Gilson takes from the city one of the most active of church and Red Cross workers. She had been an ardent member of the Episcopal church for many years, and was president of the Fraternal Aid, and a member of the Pythian Sisters. For the amount of Red Cross work done (Mrs. Gilson has been excelled by none in Salem. She was chairman of St. Paul's auxiliary which during the war met every week at her home. She had done more refugee knitting than any other woman in the city and gave practically all her time to some form of war work.
Mrs. Gilson, who was Agnes Madona Barnarda before her marriage, was born in Saginaw, Michigan, 55 years ago. She was a graduate of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor and a teacher in the schools at Bay City for several years. In 1887 she was married to Mr. Gilson in Portland, their home for several before going to Dawson, Alaska. Six years were spent in Dawson, where Mr. Gilson was engaged in the steamboat business.

Fifteen years ago last June the family came to Salem and have made this their home ever since. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Hene, who is living at home, and two sisters, Nellie Schmelzer, of Detroit, Mich., and Viola Mayes, of New York City. Two children, Nellie and Bessie, died several years ago, the latter in this city about 12 years ago.

Ministers Want Thursday Set Aside for Prayer

A resolution urging that Thursday of each week be set aside as prayer meeting night and that there be an avoidance of fixing dates conflicting with religious services on that night, was passed at the weekly meeting of the Ministers' association yesterday. It is pointed out in the resolution that Sunday is a recognized day of worship and that consequently there is seldom interference with the services on that day. It is held that for the same reasons Thursday night should be respected as a time for prayer; and that those in charge of public meetings are urged to observe this in arranging their gatherings.
The discussion taken up at the meeting yesterday was on labor and industrial problems during the period of reconstruction. Rev. H. C. Stover was the principal speaker.

Olinger and Cline Are Again on Dental Board

Announcement was made yesterday by Governor Olcott of the appointment of Dr. Jean Olinger of Portland, and Dr. H. H. Olinger of Salem as members of the state board of dental examiners. They will succeed Dr. Walter J. Larsen of Portland and Dr. Alex MacDougall of Baker, whose terms expired today.
Dr. Olinger was a member of the dental board for practically 12 years, from April 1, 1906 to February 8, 1919. He was secretary of the board during that time for 10 years. Governor Olcott is the fifth executive to appoint Dr. Olinger a member of the dental board.
Dr. Cline served as a member from 1910 to 1916 and was for four years president.
Both of the appointees are widely known in their profession throughout the state.

Chester A. Moores With Financial Institution

Chester A. Moores has accepted a position on the staff of the Lumbermen's Trust company. He was private secretary to the late Governor Withycombe, and although Governor Olcott desired him to remain, he preferred to take up a business career. Moores is a son of Charles B. Moores, chairman of the municipal pal dock commission, of Portland. After graduation from the University of Oregon, in 1912, he followed newspaper work and attended law school at night until his admission to the bar. Because of his capabilities and wide acquaintance throughout the Pacific Northwest Moores recently received several attractive offers from financial institutions, but chose to associate himself with the Portland investment bank.

Officers Are Chosen by Salem Floral Society

Officers for the coming year were elected by the Salem Floral society at its meeting last night, J. W. Marney being chosen president. The other officers elected are: Mrs. Lela Jerman, vice-president; Mrs. Martha, secretary; Mrs. R. E. Moores treasurer. The following were chosen for the board of directors: Mrs. F. A. English, Mrs. F. L. Purvine, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Mrs. E. W. Wallace, and Mrs. E. Tallman.
Thursday was designated as exchange day for the trading of plants among the members of the society.

Mulkey Quits Commission and Gray Is Appointed

F. W. Mulkey, of Portland yesterday notified Governor Olcott of his resignation as a member of the soldiers and sailors commission and the governor today appointed K. M. Gray of Portland in his place. Mr. Mulkey was chairman of the commission. In reply to an inquiry Mr. Mulkey held that members of the commission are personally liable for any part of the $100,000 appropriated by the legislature in the measure creating the commission when placed on deposit and this may be the reason for Mr. Mulkey's resignation as well as for the resignations of several other members. In his letter of resignation Mr. Mulkey stated that he was unable to devote further time to the duties of the commission. Mr. Gray, who is appointed in his place, is a prominent business man and merchant of Portland.

Three Arrested After Complaints of Neighbors

Walter Eddy and Rosie Farlow were arrested on charges of improper conduct and Josie Stotler was arrested on a charge of being disorderly by Chief of Police Varney yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Stotler is accused of calling her husband vile names.
According to chief Varney the arrests were made as the climax to a series of complaints from the residents in the neighborhood of Trade street south of Winter street. They are out on bail.
The hearing will be held at 10 o'clock this morning.

Cook and Smith Elected at Presbyterian Meeting

Fred Cook was elected elder and Fred Smith was chosen deacon at the annual meeting of the First Presbyterian church last night. All members of the board were re-elected. Reports submitted by secretaries of the various branches of the church work showed the church to be in excellent condition.
The business of the meeting was followed by a supper. Rev. T. S. Anderson presided at the church meeting and W. H. Steusloff was in the chair for the congregational meeting.

Operation Causes Death of Former Salem Woman

Mrs. Lena Stouffer Quick passed away in Portland Friday night as the result of an operation for goitre. She had been a resident of Salem for the past eight months during which time she was under the care of a physician. Mrs. Quick was the widow of the late Warren Quick, of Dallas, who was killed in an automobile accident about five years ago. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Dan Stouffer, and one son, Dan Quick, of Dallas. Funeral services will be held from the First Methodist church in Dallas sometime this week.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.
Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.
When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "innies" clean and sweet. Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.
