

SOCIETY

SALEM is unusually fortunate, musically in its nearness to Portland and whatever really good comes to that city is generally passed on to Salem audiences. Among the best musicians in the metropolis are William Robinson Boone, organist, and Kathryn Chrysler Street, contralto. Both of these artists appeared Tuesday night in Salem sponsored by the Tuesday musical club.

The organ numbers by Mr. Boone were truly renditions of an accomplished and brilliant organist. His technique was flawless and the feeling with which he played was easily transmitted to his appreciative audience.

Mrs. Street was already known in Salem and her many friends gladly welcomed the chance to again hear her. Her voice is deep but unusually rich in tone. Throughout her singing there was an ease about her which few singers obtain.

The ticket sale and admission brought in $132, nearly half of which will be netted for the Armenian-Syrian relief fund. Miss Beatrice Shelton and her corps of workers hold first place in the sale of tickets, disposing of over $40 worth. Especially is the arrangement committee composed of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby and Miss Beatrice Shelton, to be commended.

The next meeting of the club will be the first Tuesday in May, a MacDowell program having been arranged for this date.

fashion, dancing the Virginia reel to the music of a fiddle, and drinking cider out of tin cups enjoyed a dancing party at Masonic hall Friday night as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz.

The rooms were gayly decked with brocoli and kale caught with loops of brilliant crepe papers. As the guests entered they were met at the door and instructed to escort their lady companion to the dressing room in a wheelbarrow especially prepared for the occasion.

Music by a real fiddler furnished the accompaniment for dancing of square dances and the Virginia reel for the first hour. A supper of doughnuts and cider was enjoyed by the guests at a late hour.

Though the dinner dance at Hotel Marion Friday night did not attract so large a following as expected, it has been disclosed by those who were there to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season in Salem. Each of the tables were centered with baskets of dainty primroses.

Among the attendants were a number of parties sponsored by prominent people. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, and Mrs. F. S. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Doren were hosts for a party consisting of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle, and Mrs. F. M. Thielson, Mr. and Mrs. William Piltmpton, Miss Hazel Downing, Miss Aime Thompson, Governor W. Ben W. Olcott, and Ralph Moores.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Linn had places laid for Miss Margerie Marvin and Fritz Slade. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Madge Lovelace, and L. R. LeFurky.

The Tillieum club members will be guests Friday night for a dancing party at the Tillieum club house. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peery, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delahoy, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carlton.

In honor of William Robinson Boone and Kathryn Chrysler Street, musicians at the organ concert recital Tuesday night, Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts entertained the members of the Tuesday Musical club following the concert. Professor Roberts played a piano solo and with Frank Sanders rendered a duet. Miss Lena Belle Tartar sang one selection. After an hour of interesting talk upon subjects of musical interest the hostess served the guests with light refreshments.

Guests beside the club were William Robinson Boone, Kathryn Chrysler Street, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. Harding and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, and the members present were Miss Beatrice Shelton, Bertha Junk Darby, Miss Lua Smith, Miss Allie Chandler, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Elizabeth Levy, Miss Jessie Cox, Miss Elma Weller, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Frank Churchill, Frank Sanders, and Professor Roberts.

The home of Mrs. T. A. Livesley was gayly decked with narcissus, lamb tongues, and other spring flowers, Friday afternoon for the meeting of the Luncheon Bridge club.

At 1 o'clock a delicious three-course luncheon was served to the members and their guests, who were as follows: Mrs. Joseph Albert, Miss Callista Moore, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Mrs. William Boot, Mr. Charles McNary, Mrs. William Piltmpton, Mrs. Henry Myers, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Clifford Brown, and Mrs. J. L. Van Dorn. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Clifford Brown.

Mrs. George H. Burnett will be hostess for the Thursday Afternoon club at her home on Center street this week.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley has gone to Vancouver, B. C., to meet her brother, Ward DeBeck, who arrived last night. Mr. DeBeck has been overseas with the Canadian forces for four years. He will visit in Salem in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Eddy of Langlis, Coos county, are the guests of the latter's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gibbard. Mr. and Mrs. Eddy are on their way to San Francisco, where they expect to locate. They will visit in Portland and Seattle before continuing on the trip.

The Home Missionary society of the Congregational church was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. Cooke Patton Friday afternoon. "The Gospel for a Working World" was the name of a book reviewed by Mrs. Laadere, Mrs. W. C. Kautner spoke on "Work Among the Lumberjacks of Washington," and Mrs. E. S. Eddy, of Coos county, spoke on similar work among the men in her home county.

Misses LaVerne and Constance Kantner left early yesterday morning for Seattle where they will visit with their sister, Mrs. Blanche Thomas, and their brothers, Clifford and Tenryhn. Miss La Verne Kantner will return in a week but her sister will remain for a month.

A congenial group of musical and literary people were entertained last night by Mrs. N. E. Gunnell and her daughter, Miss Katherine, at the Jenks studio. Such studio parties are very popular in the larger cities but so far have not entered into the social life of Salem.

The reception room was a bower of yellow, with its beautiful arrangement of daffodils, Oregon grape, and pussy willows, and its yellow shaded lights. Tables were arranged in here for cards.

In the dancing room masses of wild currant and fern with the use of rose colored lights carried out a color scheme of pink. A program, consisting of an Indian pantomime by Mrs. Oscar Gingrich in Indian costume, instrumental and vocal numbers by Professor Grant Gleason, of Portland, and character dances by Miss Genevieve Barbour, preceded the dancing. Among Miss Barbour's dances were two new ones, "Wood Nymphs" and a Grecian dance.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Venator and Miss Myrtle Johnson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sykes, Mrs. Charles Johns, Mrs. Emma Culbertson, Mrs. Zoe Stockton, Miss Wilda Solomon, Miss Marjorie Mellinger, Miss Reed, Professor Grant Gleason and Norman Allison, both of Portland, Leon Culbertson, Charles John, B. B. Robb, Clarence

Mrs. Earl Flegel (Barbara Steiner), popular young society woman, who has gone to New York to be with her husband, Lieutenant Flegel.

Newberg, Elliott and Floyd McIntyre.

Miss Laura Pugh, of Portland and Mrs. Robert Lamkin (Mignoa Oliver), of Seattle visited on Friday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver, of South Winter street. Saturday they went to Corvallis to visit with Alfred Oliver, a brother of Mrs. Lamkin and a member of the O. A. C. faculty. Mrs. Lamkin will visit for a few days before returning to Seattle, from where she will sail the 18th of this month for South America to join her husband.

Miss Eula McCulley, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. E. Cook Patton, returned to her home at Hood River this week.

Spring flowers, among which daffodils predominated, adorned the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roma C. Hunter for the meeting of the Tano club this week. Four tables were arranged for Five Hundred, Linn Gleason carrying off high score for the evening's high playing. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. F. Patton.

Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Linn Gleason. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Brevier, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, and the hosts.

Mrs. F. W. Swanton, of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Humane society, has been the guest of Mrs. E. Hofer during her short stay in the city. Mrs. Swanton was in the Nome gold rush and saw Ben W. Olcott, present governor of Oregon, leave Nome with his dog team and another "mucker" for the wilds of interior Alaska. He was then a poor unknown mining prospector, fresh from New England.

Commenting upon the organ recital given by Professor T. S. Roberts last Sunday in McMinnville, a publication from that town says:

"Mr. Roberts' organ playing was a pleasurable surprise and delighted his hearers. The Grand March from 'The Queen of Sheba' was a particularly beautiful number of the program, as was also the exquisite 'Spring Song' by Hollins. Another number which gave Mr. Roberts an opportunity to demonstrate his musicianship was the well-known 'Misereere' from 'Il Trovatore.' As a sympathetic accompanist he was a revelation.

Of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, of Salem, and Carl Grissen, of Corvallis, it says:

"Miss Tartar has a voice of great richness and flexibility and has a host of admirers among the music lovers of McMinnville. She adds the subtle quality of earnestness that makes her rendition go home to her listeners. Her singing of 'Allah'—Chadwick—was especially effective.

"As always Mr. Grissen's numbers were highly enjoyable. He is a master of his instrument both in technique and beauty of tone, and his artistic rendering of 'Legende'—Wieniawski was indeed pleasing. Mr. Grissen is a very generous as well as accomplished musician.

"The church was filled to its capacity, this being the largest audience ever seen in the building.

Miss Grace Sherwood was hostess Friday night for the Senior class of Willamette university at her home on Cross street. The party was in the nature of a reunion, three former members of the class having recently returned from military service. These are Ray Atterbury, Allan Jones, and Merrill Ohlne. Those

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the "actinic ray," which is unusually active during the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this influence, if one will procure an ounce of common mercurized wax at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream. The wax is washed off next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle removed in this way in a week or two, with all its defects. No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.
