OREGON MEN COMING HOME

Letter from Representative Hawley Has Right Effect on War Department

Representative Hawley has received a letter from Major General Henry Jersey, assistant chief of staff, war department, advising him in reply to his request that about 500 soldiers, 63rd Infantry, at East Potomac park, near Washington, be discharged that they may return to families and position in Oregon, that about 100 men, selected according to the urgency of their reasons for discharge, will be released within a very short time, and that still further reductions will be made from time to time as the nature of the duties of this special organization and other troops to take their place will admit.

Representative Hawley is advised in General Jersey's letter that the regiment to which the Oregon soldiers are attached is being used to guard valuable government property and other indispensable duties, and that there is a present necessity for keeping adequate forces there. It is hoped, however, that regular troops may soon displace the Oregon volunteers, permitting the latter to be honorably discharged and returned to civil life.

Mr. C. Hawley, accompanied by Mrs. Hawley, is viewing the public waterways in southwestern Oregon this week. He will be at Coquille, Bandon and Myrtle Point the first of the week, arriving on Coos Bay Thursday morning and will be at Marshfield and North Bend two days, leaving Coos Bay for Gardiner and Reedsport at the mouth of the Umpqua river Saturday. The following Monday he will be at Oshman and Florence to confer with the local interests relative to the Sluiceway improvement.

RID HER OF ALL PAIN
Mrs. L. Wavde, 2726 Third street, Ocean Park, Calif., writes: "I am thankful to say Foley's Kidney Pills rid me of all my pain. I advise anyone to try them after the good they did me." Backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains are indications of kidney trouble. Foley's Kidney pills are safe, reliable. J. C. Perry.

CHILD'S MOTHER HELD NEGLIGENT

Albert Banick Alleges Former Wife Unfit to Have Charge of 4-Year-Old Son

Alleging that his former wife, who is now Mrs. William Livock and who secured a divorce from him February 15, 1916, is no longer a fit person to have the custody of their 4-year-old son which was awarded her by the decree, Albert Banick filed petition in circuit court yesterday asking that the decree be modified. He asks that the child be given to its maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ridinger, of near Quinby, in whose care the child is now alleged to be.

Banick declares that Mrs. Livock has left the little boy with Mr. and Mrs. Ridinger and has failed to care for him and that recently she has been guilty of gross immoral acts, alleging that she was recently in the city jail on a charge involving improper conduct. He further charges that she threatens to remove the child from the state and asks that a temporary order be given restraining her from the custody of the child until such time as the court can act on the case. Banick declares he is willing that the great-grandparents have permanent custody of his son.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS SKIN WHITENER

How to Make a Creamy Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

IN A SOCIAL WAY

By DORRIS LEAH SIKES

CELEBRATING his 22nd graduation anniversary from the Iowa State Medical school, Dr. E. E. Fisher, on Saturday was host for a number of his friends for a sumptuous banquet in the Rose room at the Spa. Many things combined to make the dinner a real success, the excellent repast for which the Spa is noted, and the congeniality and informality which predominated. The men have voted it a real success and wish to make it an annual affair.

Dr. Fisher's guests were: Edward Hazard, M. G. Elliott, Charles Knowland, T. E. Graber, Elmo White, Cooke Patton, John R. Sites, David Eyre, Dr. H. C. Epley, Hal Patton, Dr. D. X. Beecher, August Huckseler, Walter Denton, and C. A. H. Fisher, the father of the host.

The birthday of W. P. Babcock was celebrated at the family home on South Commercial street Sunday when friends and relatives were bidden to dinner. The table was handsomely decorated, a bowl of carnations and feather-like greenery marking the center. At each corner were candles shaded by dainty bluebird shades to which were fastened streamers of blue mulline from the chandeliers. The blue effect predominated in the table service and in the tiny place cards which marked the places of the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woodruff, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Henry Haaf, Mrs. Carrie Lambirth, Miss Grace Babcock, Miss Miriam Swartz, Miss Beatrice Shelton, Roscoe Shelton, T. J. Smith, William Harrin, Mrs. M. J. Woodruff, Amelia Babcock, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Babcock.

Daintily suggestive of Japan was the home of Mrs. Byron F. Brunk when she entertained the Salem Women's Press club Sunday night. The supper table was centered with an art basket of Japanese quince and the note was further carried out in the unique hand painted place cards and the dainty china. Candlelight shed a bewitching glow over the scene.

Mrs. William H. Prunk, who was the guest of the club, delighted the guests with a number of vocal selections and Miss Lucile Elliot gave several of her charming readings. Circling the table were: Mrs. William H. Prunk, Mrs. Burton C. Myers, Miss Carol Dibble, Miss Lucile Elliot, Miss Lucile Watson, Miss Lucile Saunders, Miss Gertrude Robison and Miss Dorris Sikes.

Mrs. Merle Prunk will entertain the North Salem Women's club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Fourth and Market streets. Mrs. Oscar Gingrich, a talented solo dancer, will appear in Indian pantomime numbers.

Mrs. G. W. Laflar has as her house guest, Mrs. C. C. Jeffrey, of Lewiston, Mont., who is the mother of Mrs. A. E. Laflar of Portland. Mrs. A. E. Laflar and Miss Margaret Faber will arrive from Portland in a few days for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. August Huckseler, of independence, visited with relatives in Salem over the week-end. There will be a meeting of the Salem unit of the American-War Mothers tomorrow afternoon at the Congregational church.

Miss Mae Rowland, of Eugene, was a guest over the week-end of Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer.

On Saturday night a few of the girl friends of Miss Grace Wells gathered at her home for a farewell surprise party in her honor. The evening was spent enjoyably with games and music. Those present were Misses Grace Wells, Lelia Cookingham, Esther Canfield, Verna Franky, Mae Gouchon, Alma Canfield, Marion Stiever, Grace Welborne, Mabel Canfield, and Marlowe Miller.

Miss Viola Page, of Seattle, was a guest for a few days last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. George Aldon.

Mrs. George Alden and Mrs. E. E. Fisher addressed an assemblage at the Popcorn school house Sunday evening on the centenary movement.

Miss Mary Babcock, who is employed in the Union Abstract office in Portland, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, 749 North Commercial.

Corporal Earl Daue, of the headquarters battalion at Camp Lewis, returned to camp Sunday night, after a two days visit with relatives and friends in the city.

Corinne Riley Barker, screen actress and former Salem girl, will be the guest for several days this week at the home of Mrs. George Pearce, to whom she is related. She is now on her way from California to New York. Her father, C. F. Riley, of Portland, is at present visiting in Salem.
