

Not an ordinary axle grease

No other grease like Mica Axle Grease. The powdered mica fills up all roughness in spindles and bearings, makes the grease work better and last twice as long. Easier pulling—no hot boxes. Ask your dealer. Buy by the pail.

Washington "Watchet" Is Again to Be Published

Preparations are once more being made to issue the "Washington Watchet," a publication turned out by the Washington school in former years. Last year war conditions prevented the students from putting out the paper, but as schedules are once more back to normal, the staff is planning to edit three numbers. Those who will have charge of the paper are Lelith Kuhn, editor-in-chief; Eugenia Zieber, associate editor; Frank Reinhart, business manager; Leata Baumgartner, society reporter; Harold Moon, sports editor; Mona Schaun and Everett Givens, joke department; and Genevieve Vandevort, school notes. The Watchet is to be printed on four pages of three columns each.

"Anzac" is a word coined in the trenches. It is made up of the initials of Australian, New Zealand, Africa and Canadian army corps.

JUNIORS WIN IN DEBATE CONTEST

Class Will Meet Seniors in Two Weeks—Mary Gilbert Is Best Reader

Two more inter-class rivalry contests were held during the week at the high school, the juniors winning the last Saturday afternoon, when Wayne Allen, Catherine Gibbard, and Willard Marshall were awarded the decision in a debate. The question was, "Resolved, that a modern foreign language (German excluded) should be taught in Salem high school." The defeated team was that of the juniors made up of Ralph Bailey, Ralph Emons and Ralph Hamilton.

A week from Friday the next debate will be held, the seniors meeting the juniors. The question is to be, "Resolved, that private control of railroads gives the public better service than government control." Mary Gilbert, a junior, won first place in the reading contest earlier in the week. Harold Hull, representing the seniors was given second and Emma Hewlett, a sophomore, third.

MANY TEACHERS GO TO INSTITUTE

Supt. J. W. Todd Principal Speaker at Meeting Held at Silverton

More than 150 teachers, of whom twenty were from Salem, attended the local teachers institute held at Silverton yesterday. County School Superintendent W. M. Smith presided.

City School Superintendent John W. Todd of Salem was the principal speaker, his subject being "The Modern Trend in Education." He urged a greater alertness to the vocational and business sides of educational development in everyday life. Features of the meeting were the plays, one of a patriotic nature given by a group of children of the Scotts Mills public schools and another, which was a lesson in health, given by the children of the Silverton schools.

Among those attending from Salem were County School Supervisors John W. L. Smith and Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson.

GRANT SCHOOL NOTES

The manual training department has just completed a solid oak piano stool for school use, also an index cabinet for the library. The shop where these are turned out is one of the most complete in the city and the boys are manufacturing everything from toy airplanes to simple home furnishings.

A feature of the work in music and literature in the seventh and eighth grades is a class program each Friday. More than usual interest is being shown by the children.

Superintendent R. L. Kirk of The Dalles was a visitor at the school last Thursday, while passing through the city.

A game of playground ball between Grant and Englewood fifth and sixth grade boys on Friday resulted in a score of 27 to 24 in favor of Grant. The baseball players are anxiously awaiting a stretch of good weather and some new stars are expected to develop as soon as the teams can practise on the new diamond.

Janitor A. J. Conner has been required to divide his time largely between home and school during the past week on account of the illness of his wife. Mrs. Conner has improved in the last few days.

Just to show how cheaply a lunch can be put out in the cafeteria at a junior high school and how much plenty the children get for their money here is a sample menu, the one for last Friday: Oyster soup, five cents; fruit salad, five cents; macaroni and cheese, four cents; caramel ice cream, five cents; egg sandwich, one cent; milk, three cents; lemonade, three cents.

WASHINGTON NOTES

Washington junior high is another of the schools that is feeling the need of a new gymnasium and the community will probably give strong backing to any attempt to secure one which may be made.

Several Palmer method diplomas have been awarded at the school in the last few days.

English, civics and history profited by the visit of the trophy train to Salem and have been turning out themes and reference papers on observations made while the exhibit was here.

Children Give Much to Armenian Refugee Fund

Pupils of the Salem schools contributed $492.76 toward the Armenian fund, according to figures just compiled by Miss Margaret Cosper. Lincoln raised the greatest amount, exceeding by over $10 the sum turned in by the senior high school. Following are the totals from the various buildings: Englewood, $39.65; Grant $78.47; Garfield, $67.32; Highland, $43; Lincoln, $101.26; Park, $23.82; Richmond, $21.28; Washington, $37.06; Salem high, $89.90.

It is now recommended that all city dwellers ought to keep goats for their milk supply. There's none better.

Famous Irish Sportsman Who Came Over to America to See His "Girl," the Shamrock IV

"Back to see my girl" is the way Sir Thomas Lipton, whose ambition for years has been to "lift" the America's Cup, explained it when he arrived recently in this country. His "girl" is his racing yacht, the Shamrock IV, which is housed over in a South Brooklyn shipyard. Sir Thomas said he believed the New York Yacht club did a wise thing when it insisted upon a year's postponement following receipt of his challenge for a series of races this year.
