Flares and Flickers

Sessue Hayakawa, who is considerable of a linguist is teaching French to several of the members of his company. The class he is conducting which developed into quite a size started while he was producing "The Temple of Dusk," showing at Ye Liberty today. His first pupils were Jane Novak, Sylvia Bremer and Lewis Willoughby.

Hayakawa is the master of six languages. In the University of To-ko he studied Russian and English and when he came to this country to attend Chicago university, he took up French, Spanish and Italian. To prepare himself for the diplomatic service of his country. Although he was lured from his early ambitions by the stage he still retains a keen interest in the study of languages.

All who admire real comedy and strong dramatic action presented in a harmonious combination should see Billie Burke in "Good Gracious Annabelle" at the Oregon today, tomorrow and Tuesday. Miss Burke is splendidly supported, her leading man being Herbert Rawlinson.

Frankie Hall and Billie O'Ryan—a remarkably pretty woman of Junoesque appearance and a rollicking comedian comprise this clever pair of vaudevillians who present a musical comedy playlet entitled "Frozen Out" that makes a most delightfully enjoyable vehicle for a perfect display of their accomplishments as singers and talent as entertainers. On the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

Wallace Reid plays a big double role as slacker and hero in "Alias Mike Moran" showing at the Oregon next Friday and Saturday.

The only comedy that has ever been compared with "Shoulder Arms". That's Old Bill in "The Better Ole" coming to Ye Liberty.

Jess Mardo and Belle Hunter—A big good natured, happy dispositioned chap and a charmingly pretty young woman comprise the personnel of the act of Mardo and Hunter who present an exuberantly funny skit entitled "Flip It Up" consisting of comedy talk and singing that will assuredly win the heartiest approval of any audience. On the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

Francis Marian, who pictured "Captain Kidd, Jr.," is one of the best known scenarists identified with motion pictures. She wrote many of Mary Pickford's famous successes, two of which, "M'Liss" and "How Could You, Jeannie?" are worthy of special mention.

Margaret Ryan, little, petite bit of femininity only a few inches over four feet, but, a cruiser for joy, a dreadnaught for action and a submarine for grace and explosiveness, with the additional qualities of being original, chic, charming, and lastly, a genuine vaudeville entertainer, startingly good to look upon. On the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

Not since the night forty-five years ago when "The Two Orphans" was produced in the old Union Square theatre, has a story of such poignancy and depth of heart interest been given to the public. It will be shown beginning Easter week at the Oregon theatre.

Craving adventure and actuated by a desire to record the manners and customs of the last stronghold of cannibalism, Martin Johnson traveled 18,000 miles along the Solomon and New Hebrides Islands and in the fourteen months of his travels secured some of the most sensational pictures of savage life that have ever been filmed. They have been assembled into "Cannibals of the South Seas." Coming to Ye Liberty for four days starting next Wednesday.

"Beresford of the Baboons," is a comedy at the Oregon next Friday and Saturday. It's a burlesque version of the Apes.

Popular Lawn Mower Handled by Salem Firm

Mr. Ray L. Farmer of the Ray L. Farmer Hardware company, is authority for the statement that the Chief Lawn Mower is without doubt the most popular machine ever handled by anyone in Salem. He bases his assertion on the fact that he has sold more than 250 of these machines in the past five years, besides having large sales on his other lines. The popularity of this machine is due to several important features, chief among which is the ease and

Republic Tires

The name "REPUBLIC" on an automobile tire really stands for something, and that something is HONEST VALUE.

The Carpenter when he buys a saw, and it is stamped "Henry Diston & Sons," never questions the quality of that saw, for the name "Diston" stands for quality.

The man that buys a hat and it is stamped "John B. Stetson" never questions the quality, why? For he knows that this hat will keep its shape and will give him the very best of service—"Stetson" means quality.

We could go on down the line comparing in this way goods that the NAME stands for the highest type of quality and is never questioned.

The name "REPUBLIC" on a tire stands for quality just as much as "Diston"; "Stetson" or any other honest-made article stamped with the maker's name stands for quality.

"REPUBLIC" means quality and the Republic Rubber Co. have instructed us to maintain their good name and we are in a position to do so.

Associate 'PRODIUM PROCESS' with "REPUBLIC" for no other tire is made, or can be made under this process for it is patented.

Your car should be equipped with "REPUBLICS" for they do last longer. Our stock is complete. We carry all sizes.

Thieves Enter Store at St. Paul; Escape in Auto

The general merchandise store of D. L. Van De Welle, at St. Paul, was entered sometime Friday night and a quantity of shoes, cloth in bolts, and about 50 rings were taken. The matter was reported to Sheriff Needham yesterday morning. The thieves came to St. Paul in an automobile which they stole from Roy Matton of Portland. The machine was traced as far as Newberg yesterday, and there was found stuck in a mud hole. Trace of the thieves was lost from there. Deputy Sheriff

H. R. Smith went to Newberg yesterday on the case.

"What has put your wife into such a terrible state of nervous agitation?"

"Shell shock," replied Mr. Meek-ton.

"Shell shock?"

"Yes. I brought home some peanuts and inadvertently scattered the shells on the floor."—Washington Star.
