their respective counties. Judge Bushey declares that the damage to Marion county roads last winter because of overloads and careless driving cannot be estimated and that he anticipates an even greater injury during the coming season unless preventive measures are taken. He warns against violations of the which gives much power to the state highway commission and the county courts, allowing them to close roads, regulate speed, fix maximum loads and otherwise govera traffic. The act provides stringent regulations for the preservation of roads from all undue damage and fines of $200 for the first offense and $400 for second offenses are prescribed.

RULES ARE SENT REALTY DEALERS

Drastic Law Affecting Dealers-Will Go Into Effect on May 29

Harvey Wells, state insurance commissioner, who also will have the administration of the real estate law passed by the 1919 legislature, is mailing to the real estate dealers of the state a list of the requirements that will be demanded of them when the law becomes operative on May A copy of the act is enclosed with the letter. Upon receipt of all the necessary requirements at the commissioner's office a license good until December 31, this year, will be sent the dealer.
