Mr. and Mrs. Fry Return—

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry returned to Salem last night from Sacramento where they have been visiting a daughter, Mrs. Raymond Walsh. Mr. Fry was called east on a business trip and after leaving New York returned west by way of California where he met Mrs. Fry. Mr. Fry in his travels observed a brisk business in all lines, though he found buyers generally are careful not to overstock in view of anticipated declines with the return to normal conditions. ## Hamlet to Minnesota—

Guy Hamlet, who for some time has been one of the force of barbers at Lee Canfield's shop, has left for Anoka, Minn., where he has been called to the bedside of his mother, who is seriously ill. He was accompanied by his wife and young daughter. If Mr. Hamlet returns to Oregon it will not be until fall.

Wounded in Battle—

E. H. Patchin, son of E. J. Patchin of Salem, returned yesterday from France, where he served in some of the hardest fighting of the war with Company B, 127th Infantry, 32nd division. He was in the engagements of Chateau Thierry and the Argonne forest. He was twice wounded, at one time receiving a bullet through the neck and another time was wounded in the leg. He underwent two sieges in hospital as a result.

Will Confer Degree—

The Golden Rule degree will be conferred on a class of 17 by Willamette encampment No. 2 I. O. O. F., at a meeting tonight preparatory to taking the Royal Purple degree on the night of Tuesday, May 20, when that degree will be conferred by a team from Golden Rule encampment of Portland. This will be part of the program of the state grand lodge session. At the same time the Royal Purple degree will be conferred upon a class of about 16 members from Silverton.

Sergeant Lindsey Returns—

Sergeant Ralph W. Lindsey who went through the Aisne-Marne, the St. Mihiel, and the Meuse-Argonne offensives, has returned to Salem having been discharged at Camp Lewis May 6. He was a member of the 411th Telegraph battalion.

Mr. Finley—

Whose remarkable motion pictures of bird life are the wonder of all who see them will be at the First Congregational church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock to present his pictures. Many of them are entirely new and have never been seen in Salem before. Mr. Finley is state biologist.

Institute Is Today—

At Woodburn today the last teachers institute of the year will be held. Frank Shepherd, head of the industrial department at O. A. C., Frank K. Welles, former assistant state superintendent of public instruction, and Professor J. F. Brumbaugh of the department of education at O. A. C., will be the principal speakers. In the afternoon the public will put on a minstrel show and Mr. Oscar B. Gingrich of Salem will appear in several Indian dances and songs.

Teachers To Be Elected—

At next Tuesday night's regular meeting of the school board teachers for the coming year will be elected. Two new salary schedules have been prepared and will be submitted at this time.

See the Finley—

Pictures at the First Congregational church Sunday at 8 p. m.

Baseball Again Looms—

Baseball is again the talk about the state house. And some of the boys who are most interested talk of calling a meeting Monday night to attempt the organization of a team. If the state house boys organize the team apparently will be the only one in Salem this year as there are no indications that a city team will get together.

Successor Not Named—

The Postal Telegraph-Cable company has not yet announced who will be manager of the Salem office to succeed Arthur R. Wilson when he leaves with Mrs. Wilson for a round-the-world tour in the employ of a large advertising concern. Mr. Wilson will quit the telegraph office next month, but does not expect to leave for the trip until in July.

Captain Rauch Home Again—

Captain Cloyd E. Rauch, former court reporter for the circuit court, arrived in Salem yesterday at 5 a. m. from the Presidio, Calif., where he was sent for discharge. noon as the meeting is to take the form of a growers convention. Hal D. Patton is on the committee and states that every speaker will be compelled to complain of something.

Anyone who boasts will be duly penalized. Mr. Patton wants everyone with a grouse to attend and to tell it and everybody else in attendance to hear the complaints.

Moves Family Here—

Benjamin R. Perkins, formerly representative in this territory for the International Correspondence schools has moved his family to Salem from Portland. Mr. Perkins was recently removed as the representative of the schools here, and as a measure of retaliation the students in Salem and vicinity organized and declared Mr.

Perkins manager of the state organization of the student body.

Suicide Attempted—

A patient at the state hospital for the insane, who was committed from Portland a few days ago, attempted to commit suicide Thursday by rushing across a room and striking his head against a radiator. His attempt to end his life failed, but his scalp was torn from the forehead to the back of his head.

Asked to Decorate—

Pressure will be brought upon the merchants of Salem to decorate their places of business appropriately during the grand lodge session of Odd Fellows in Salem during the week of July 19, which convenes simultaneously with the state assembly of the Rebeccas. The Rebecca colors are pink and green and the colors of the subordinate Odd Fellows' lodges red and blue. These colors, together with the three links of the Odd Fellows should prevail in the schemes of decoration.

Planning Concessions—
Several members of the Fourth of July committee went to Portland yesterday as a sub-committee on concessions to make arrangements for concessions at the three-day celebration in Salem on July 3, 4 and 5. Those who made the trip to Portland were C. B. Clancy, P. E. Fullerton and William McGilchrist, Jr. Better than the usual order of concessions are being planned.
