

Camel Cigarettes

CAMEL cigarettes win smokers from the start because the expertly blended choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos make possible Camel's delightful mellow-mildness with that all-there "body."

Camels meet your fondest cigarette fancies in so many ways. Their flavor is unusual and refreshing; and, they permit you to smoke as long as you will without any unpleasant cigarettey aftertaste or unpleasant cigarettey odor. They're simply a cigarette delight! That's the way you'll put it!

You'll find Camels good all the way through. It is a fact, you'll prefer Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos to either kind of tobacco smoked straight! And, Camels may be smoked liberally without tiring your taste.

To know Camels best compare them in every possible test with any cigarette in the world at any price!

Camels are sold everywhere in practically sealed packages, or ten packs (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

EXPECT BAKER TO GIVE AID TO MILITARY DRILL

Universal Training in Schools Understood to Be Favored by Secretary

PLAN ALMOST READY Approval of President Assumed—Favorable Results in A. E. F. University

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Secretary Baker is expected soon to make a public announcement of a definite stand in favor of universal educational-military training, with a statement of his reasons. It is assumed here that President Wilson has approved his plan.

The plan understood to be favored by Secretary Baker contemplates the use of the military establishment as a medium for training the youth of the nation: first, along general and vocational lines and, as an entirely separate and subordinated feature, in rudimentary military science. The secretary's suggested program is said to be based initially on the benefits which will accrue to the country from the higher average of intelligence and the improved standard of physical well being of the young men who would be taken annually into the training machine.

Imposters Claim to Be With Service Commission

Imposters going about the state representing themselves to be connected with the Oregon public service commission, thereby gaining access to places of business and residences, have caused the commission through Commissioner Fred A. Williams, to issue a warning to the public against such persons. It is said these persons may have altered motives. Some of them represent themselves not only to be connected with the commission but to be in the pay of some particular utility. Persons to whom they apply are asked to ask for their credentials, and, if they are unable to produce them, to report to the commission's office.

COLONEL BELL DIES OVERSEAS

Army Officer from Spokane Succumbs to Severe Illness While in France

SPOKANE, Wash., May 16.—Colonel James E. Bell, regular army, until last January chief of operations on the staff of the second army in France, near Toul, died in France yesterday, according to word received by his widow, who resides in this city. Colonel Bell had been ill for several weeks.

Colonel Bell entered the army from civil life as a lieutenant 22 years ago. He was stationed at Fort Douglas, Wright, this city, where, in 1903, he was married. Seven years ago he was promoted to captain. Of the last sixteen years, 12 had been spent in foreign service, the last five years prior to the war having been spent at Honolulu. Last January Colonel Bell, who was promoted three times in France, was assigned to the command of the 806th pioneer regiment and assigned for him, the return for some reason being delayed.

Besides his widow, Colonel Bell is survived by a young son, James E. Bell, Jr., and a sister, Mrs. Lillian Hope of Chicago, his native city. Mrs. Hope is better known as Lillian Bell, a writer.
