The Jitney Still Jits

Recent articles on the war tax just levied on soft drinks, confections, etc., have given rise to some misunderstanding, and the Wm. Wrigley, Jr., Company issues a statement to the effect that the 3 per cent tax on chewing gum does not affect the retail dealer or the consumer. Mr. Wrigley explains that the manufacturers stand this tax, and there should be NO CHANGE in the price charged you for your package of Wrigley's Spearmint, Doublemint or Juicy Fruit. In other words, the jitney still jits. Thanks, Mr. Wrigley.

Ross System Liked

Ed. Ross, assistant secretary and chief accountant for the Phez company, met with the students of Oregon Agricultural college engineering and commerce departments Tuesday afternoon, giving an outline of some of the more important requirements in connection with practical cost accounting. The advisability of including in the commercial course of the college lessons on costkeeping is being seriously considered, using as a basis the system installed on the Tumalo irrigation project was pronounced by the chief construction engineer of the federal department of roads and rural engineering to be the most perfect which he had found in operation in any of the state highway departments in the United States. Both systems were installed and operated for a number of years by Mr. Ross, and he has been asked to assist in the preparation of lessons for the college.

Fines Total $618

During the period of January 1 to May 20, the city of Salem netted $618 from fines which is $4034 more than for the same time in 1918, according to the report made by Chief of Police Varney to the city council Monday night. The number of arrears for the period in 1919 was 19 while for the same length of time last year there were 51 arrests. The amount derived from arrests for violation of the traffic and speed ordinance was $95 for the month of May. This amount, it is pointed out, pays the salary of the traffic officer.
