

M'MINNVILLE HI TO PLAY SALEM

Game Scheduled for Today at 4 p. m.—Visitors' Strength Unknown

When Salem high school and McMinville high meet on Willamette field at 4 p. m. today the local nine will be going up against adversaries who are practically unknown. The Mac men have played few times this season and it has been impossible to get much "dope" on them except that they have been defeated only once.

Salem holds the valley championship 23 far but has yet to play the McMinville men two games and to meet the Portland champions.

In Portland Lincoln and Jefferson high average percentages of 1000 and are to decide the championship of the city sometime this week. A challenge has been sent both of them stating that Salem high will meet the winner of the city flag in two games for the Willamette valley pennant.

McKittick of Willamette university will umpire. Salem's lineup will be as usual.

Oregon Club Is Praised by Returning Salem Man

"You said it," remarked John V. Holman, when he was asked if he was glad to be back in the old home town of Salem where he was born and raised; as far as he has gone—yet.

John V. used to work for the Southern Pacific. He was car clerk in the freight office. But, for 16 months, he has been stationed at Camp Holabird, six miles out of Baltimore, Md., where he has been in the motor transport service, doing the same line of work—trafing cars, and trying to see that they got in and out with their important cargoes for Uncle Sam's men who were putting a kibosh on the ambitions of one Bill Holzencollers.

John visited New York and Chicago on his way home. He is loud in his praises of the wonderful work the Oregon club is doing in New York. More especially the work of the Oregon young women who are there. They are smelly live wires, looking out for every legitimate want of the boys. For instance, one Oregon boy had all his clothes stolen, and he put in an S. O. S. call, and in an hour he had a new outfit in which he could appear in public.

Mr. Holman says Marion county should have some kind of representation at the Oregon club—to let the world know she is on the map. John expects to locate again in Salem.

TURNER STRONG FOR GOOD ROADS

No Dissent When "Jim" Stewart Calls for Straw Vote at Rally

When "Jim" Stewart took his regular straw vote following a good roads rally at Turner last night not a dissenting vote was cast against the $850,000 road bond issue on which the people of Marion county will vote June 3. The meeting was held in the Turner schoolhouse and there was a large turnout of the citizens of Turner and community. C. A. Bea, member of the Marion county market roads committee for the Turner district, presided. A musical program was furnished by the people of Turner.

Among those who were favorable to the road program in the straw vote last night were some grange leaders. Mr. Stewart says there is no doubt that the Turner section of the county will return a heavy majority for the measure.

Mr. Stewart goes to Portland to attend a meeting of the state highway commission, and if he returns in time will address a rally at St. Paul tonight.

He promised that no jitney dancing would take place in front of the Methodist church, that lawns and parkings would not be disturbed and that all of the concessions would be enclosed in a canvas fence. The city granted the petition and presented and the councilmen declared they were ready to sanction anything that would help the jubilee.

stable government is established there. As the day for the Germans to give answer to the peace demands of the allied and associated government approaches—and the German plenipotentiaries have announced they will ask no further extension of time beyond Thursday, the limit set by the allies—there apparently has been no change in the sentiment of German government circles that the treaty should not be signed.

Death Sentence Says Count "Should I, under pressure of our own misled countrymen, sign this sentence of death?" an utterance attributed to Count von Brockdorff in reply to a question as to whether the demands of the independent socialists that the compact should be duly signed up, sums up generally the state of mind supposed to exist in the higher walks of German political life.

Meanwhile the allied commissions are preparing to hand to Austria and Bulgaria the treaties that are drawn up for them. The Austrians, who have been for some time at St. Germain, are chaffing under the delay in being called before the peace congress. The delay is declared to be mainly due to the settlement of conditions regarding reparations.

Dr. Renner, head of the Austrian delegation, has appealed to Premier Clemenceau arguing the hastening of the presentation of the peace treaty, declaring that the delay is creating a "regrettable strain" on Austria financially. The belief is expressed in Paris that the allied and associated powers will exempt the new states formed from parts of the former dual monarchy from any payments on account of reparation of republic properly taken over by
