DR. R. E. LEE STEINER.

It is understood that the appointment of Dr. R. E. L. Steiner as superintendent of the penitentiary is only a temporary one, to fill the important place made vacant by the resignation of R. L. Stevens.

Men interested in the line of work his position as superintendent of the Oregon State asylum for the insane has entailed have come long distances to investigate the methods employed at the Oregon institution.

Under Dr. Steiner, this Salem institution has become a model. During his temporary charge of the Oregon penitentiary, he will have a chance to exercise his splendid organizing ability there, for the benefit of that institution, so that it may be handed over to its next superintendent in excellent shape; and it goes without saying that Dr. Steiner will give the work the benefit of his very best efforts.

The vets of three wars were fine. And comparisons would be invidious.

A queer world this, in which a kaiser can saw wood and live in peace, while the world he set afire blazes merrily on.

Those lawless Mexicans would better look out. American machine guns can shoot through five men.

There are six candidates for the presidency of Mexico. There can be but one winner, and that means five possible revolutionists when the ballots are counted.

With prohibition just ahead some of the proposed schemes to defeat it are laughable and childish. They indicate the end of the resources of the liquor interests. John Barleycorn is dying none the less certainly.

The day of secret councils is past because the people are in the saddle, said President Wilson in his Memorial Day address at the cemetery of Suresnes, France, yesterday. If not past, it is passing.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner is no Pook Bah; but he is willing to do his best wherever duty calls. And it is fortunate for the public service that his best is as good as the best of the best.

Memorial Day was celebrated with tears and love for the blue and love and tears for the gray. And the graves of the American dead, "In Flanders field where poppies grow between the crosses row on row," were not forgotten. In our minds and memories they, too, will ever be decked with the flowers of our tender love and fond regard.

Chairman Fordney announces that there will be a complete revision of the tariff and that hearings will begin in Washington within a month. This is a distinct improvement over the programme carried out by the Democrats who would listen to no suggestions from manufacturers and others during the building of the present free-trade measure. It goes without saying that the proposed enactment will be a protection measure.

LEST WE FORGET! The tumult and the shouting dies—The captains and the kings depart—Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart, Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget—lest we forget!

DAY OBSERVED BY VETERANS

Dallas G. A. R. and W. R. C. Attend Gathering at Armory—D'Arcy Speaks.

Dallas turned out to witness a Memorial day parade at 10:30 yesterday morning, but showers interfered with plans for the occasion.

Judge P. H. D'Arcy of Salem was speaker of the day, addressing a gathering of veterans and members of the Women's Relief corps in the armory. He emphasized principally the importance of the Civil war in bringing about a union of the states that will stand together through time. To this country, he declared it meant much more than the recent struggle.

Following the program, which consisted of addresses and music, the Women's Relief corps served lunch to all in attendance. A number of men in khaki were their guests.

Veterans of the three wars marched in the parade, as well as all of the children of the city schools.

LIBERALISM IN G. O. P. FADING

Cummings Speaks in Defense of League of Nations at Public Meeting.

ST. LOUIS, May 30.—Speaking in support of the league of nations and discussing party issues here tonight before a public meeting attended by democratic party leaders of Missouri, Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee arraigned Republican leaders for attempting to make the ratification of the league a partisan question and urged support of President Wilson when he returns to the peace treaty before the senate. Chairman Cummings reviewed the work of the Democratic administration and severely criticized the selection of Republican leaders and committee appointees in the new congress.

"The dying spasms of Republican liberalism have ceased and the reactionaries are in full control of the senate and house," Chairman Cummings declared.

Replying to criticisms of the league of nations the chairman declared the high contracting parties have not surrendered their sovereignty with the exception of the right to make war upon other governments without notice.

ARBITRATION TO END WALK-OUT

Crowds of Idle Men Parade Through Streets of Winnipeg During Day.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 30.—Arbitration of the differences between the metal trades council of Winnipeg and the leading industrial employers was officially begun this afternoon at an hour when tension caused by the general strike deadlock which began May 15, seemed to be approaching the breaking point.

For the first time since the general walkout, crowds of idle men paraded through the business district, leaving persons who were doing work usually performed by union men. Some of these marchers joined a delegation of returned soldiers who paraded in front of the parliament building and insisted the government "do something at once."

SYMPATHIZERS OUT

TORONTO, Ont., May 29.—Orders for the sympathetic strike to begin this morning to aid the striking metal workers who are demanding a 44 hour week, higher wages and improved shop conditions, were obeyed by a large number of unionists in Toronto, although the actual extent of the walkout was not known up to a late hour tonight. The city employees have not yet quit, nor have the federal government's employees on the railroads, or street railway men.

British Noblemen Favor Hearing German Appeals

LONDON, May 30.—A letter signed by Earl Loreburn, Baron Buckmaster, Baron Southwick, Earl Beauchamp, Baron Parmoor and a number of other pacifists have been sent to Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson urging that German appeals for modification of the peace terms should be considered impartially and sympathetically with a desire to meet them whenever possible.

"We believe," the letter says, "that a peace willingly signed by the German government as representative of the German people is one of infinitely greater value than one forced on them by threats of famine, and a far better foundation for the new world order to which we look forward."
