leaders of society as society is now organized, was the only clue reported discovered at an early hour this morning. Coming on the heels of the nation-wide May Day plot secret service officials could only interpret explosion following explosion as an organized outburst without much doubt planned by the same group of radicals.

BODIES IN BASEMENT
NEW YORK, June 2.—An attempt early this morning to blow up Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., of the court of general sessions resulted in the death of at least one person, and possibly three.

A bomb which was planted beneath the entrance of Judge Nott's residence exploded at 12:53 a. m. Judge and Mrs. Nott are not in the city. One of the bodies found in the basement is thought to be that of the man who planted the bomb.

Agents of the fire department bureau of combustibles reported that they had found portions of one or more human bodies buried beneath the debris. The torso of one of the victims apparently was that of a woman. Bits of male clothing and a false mustache also were found in the debris.

Pedestrians who passed the Nott residence shortly before the explosion told the police they had observed two women sitting on the stoop. Judge Nott was absent at the time. Mrs. Nott, the caretaker, his wife and daughter were in the house, but were not injured.

The explosion completely wrecked the entrance of the house and shattered windows in houses for several hundred feet.

MAYOR'S HOME DAMAGED
CLEVELAND, O., June 2.—An attempt was made to blow up the home of Mayor Harry L. Davis here tonight. No one was injured, but a part of the house was wrecked. First reports were that it was a gas explosion but police later declared a bomb or infernal machine had been planted.

FAMILY ALL AWAY
BOSTON, June 2.—The home of Justice Albert F. Hayden of the Roxbury municipal court at No. 11 Wayne street, was severely damaged by an explosion of unknown origin shortly before midnight tonight. No one was in the house at the time, the judge and his family being at their summer home at the seashore. The explosion evidently was intentional, as there was little exterior damage. The interior was badly wrecked. All windows were broken. There was no fire. The police said that if a bomb had been planted it probably was done as a result of Judge Hayden's decisions in the recent Roxbury riot cases.

MOTORISTS THROW BOMBS
PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—Bombs were thrown late tonight by two men in an automobile at the rectory of the catholic church of Our Lady of Victory in West Philadelphia and at the home of Louis Jagielky, a jeweler, eight blocks away. The rectory was badly damaged and plate glass windows in the church shattered. A woman and young girl who were passing were slightly injured.

The front was torn out of Jagielky's house and one person was seriously injured.

Believing a systematic attempt was being made to wreck churches and school houses, the authorities ordered a strong guard thrown around every church and school house in the city.

MANY WINDOWS BROKEN
PATERSON, N. J., June 3.—An explosion, which the police believe to have been caused by a bomb, wrecked the house of Max Gold, silk manufacturer, 331 East Thirty-First street, at 12:30 o'clock this morning, partially wrecked an adjoining house and broke the front door and windows of a residence across the street. Most of the houses within a radius of 200 feet had windows broken. Captain Ryan of the police declared it is his belief that a bomb was planted in a driveway close to Gold's residence. No one was injured.

FAMILY NARROWLY ESCAPE
NEWTONVILLE, Mass., June 2.—The house of State Representative Leland W. Powers, a son of former Congressman Samuel L. Powers, was partly wrecked by a bomb explosion at midnight tonight. Mr. Powers with his family was on the second floor and no one was injured so far as known.

The bomb was placed against the outside of the house to the rear and tore through the walls, wrecking the first floor interior and smashing windows.

Mr. Powers said the only reason he could assign for the attempt against him was his activity in support of the anti-anarchy bill recently passed by the legislature.

SLEEPERS THROWN FROM BEDS
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 2.—A bomb explosion, which occurred two doors from the residence of United States District Judge W. H. Thompson late tonight, damaged the residence of the jurist and other houses in the vicinity. The homes of three prominent business men of the city were damaged by the force of the explosion which occurred on the porch of C. J. Cassidy's residence, in the fashionable Highland district.

Shortly before midnight and a few minutes after the Highland district explosion, another bomb explosion occurred in the west end district. Residences were badly damaged and W. W. Sibray, chief inspector of the bureau of immigration here, was thrown from his bed. The Sibray residence is located across the street from where the explosion occurred, and police authorities express the belief that the bomb was intended for the deportation of enemy aliens.

Mr. Cassidy is an official of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company. His wife and four children were thrown from their beds by the force of the explosion, which shattered the windows in Judge Thompson's residence. The homes of F. R. Lincoln, vice-president of the Pittsburgh Coal company and W. P. Withrow, vice-president of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railway and Coal company, were damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars.

Police found pieces of shrapnel in the vicinity. No arrests were made. Detectives reported they believed the bomb was intended for Judge Thompson's home.

The west end explosion occurred on the porch of the home of J. E. Joseph, a train dispatcher. Mrs. Joseph and her three children were thrown from their beds. The house was damaged to the extent of $5,000. Other residences in the vicinity were damaged, one home, next door to that of Joseph's was shot full of holes, indicating that a shrapnel bomb was used.

how you feel about it but I am going to help those people over on the coast and vote for the Roosevelt highway to get them out of the mud."

Throughout his address he was interrupted by applause and when he asked for the vote in favor of the bonds, the audience was on its feet in an instant. And there was not one who stood when he asked for those not in favor to rise.

Musical numbers were interspersed during the program. T. M. Stewart, brother of the speaker, accompanied by Miss Ada Miller at the piano, sang a number of songs. Miss Elizabeth Levy gave several violin numbers accompanied by Ruth Bedford. Miss Miller rendered vocal selections. All were greeted enthusiastically and were called upon for many encores.

Roth Gives Interview.
In discussing the market road bonds yesterday, Theodore Roth who has been an active member of the county committee said: "To the laborer a vote for the Marion county road bonds means the expansion of the industrial activity of our city and labor to thousands at better pay. To the business man and property owner a vote for the market roads instigators of the reign of terrorism, according to first conclusions reached by the police. In some instances innocent pedestrians were injured more or less seriously.

Whether the explosions of the bomb planted in the lower portion of Attorney General Palmer's residence was intended as the first of the series of explosions or whether it had been timed to occur approximately the same instant as the others, but exploded prematurely could not be decided early today by agents of the department of justice and police of various cities, who began at once a nation-wide search for the culprits.

What may turn out to be the first clue leading to identification of the anarchists was obtained in this city and Boston, where the police discovered circulars and handbills signed "The Anarchistic Fighters."

GOLFERS PLAY ELIMINATIONS

Cup Competition Narrows; Women's Handicap Is on This Week

Much interest was manifested in the first elimination match for the Golfers magazine trophy cup which was played at the Illahee country club Sunday. Most of the players were on the course early because of the weather which became too hot for pleasant playing in the afternoon, but the links was occupied all day.

Those who won out on the first elimination and will play again Sunday are Chester Cox and Ercel Kay, O. C. Locke and Dr. H. H. Olinger, Walter McDougal and Homer Smith, and William Hutcheon and D. W. Eyre.

During this week the women's handicap will be played, the players being permitted to be on the course any time any day in competition as their best score will count. Being a handicap the match is expected to attract many of the newer devotees as the beginners and the experienced players will be on equal footing.
