

Society

BY DORRIS LEAH SIKES.

For the younger set this week, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Miss Amelia Babcock entertained Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. D. W. Eyre, Mrs. Charles Spaulding, Mrs. Lenta Westacott, Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Grace Eoff, Mrs. L. E. Bean, and Mrs. Tillinghast.

The color scheme of pink was carried out in the refreshments served at a later hour.

Those who were present were: Misses Mary Bayne, Alice McClellan, Edna Ackerman, Maud McCoy, Helen Rose, Catherine Slade, Miriam Swartz, Dorothy Patterson, Lisa Wilson, Grace Hunt, Nellie Boland, Margaret Griffith, Kate Chaffoyne, Louise Clausen, Annabelle Golden, Isabelle George, Margaret White, Edna Saterlee, Veva Golden, Jessie Gibson, Edna Magers, Merie Whitney, Mildred Gill, Grethea Brown, Lucile Laughery of Portland, Amelia Babcock, Hugh Latham, Amory Gill, Evan Jones, Elvin Lantis, Clare Gillette, Wallace Carson, John Griffith, Herbert Darby, Dolph Cecil, Frank Deckerbach, Bernard Nutting, Asel Eoff, Paul Staley, Ralph Barnes, Charles Johns, Jack Locke, Kenneth Wilson, Andrew Vincent, Frank Chapman, Earl McDonnagh, Clifford Townsend, Dewey Daniel, Reid Roland, Frank Harris, Eugene Gill, Lyle Bartholomew, Arma Berger, William Harris.

The Happy Hour Bridge club met with Mrs. R. B. Goodin on Wednesday afternoon for their semi-monthly afternoon of bridge. Mrs. A. H. Moore and Mrs. Ralph Glover were additional guests of the club and the members present were Mrs. Lawrence Harris, Mrs. R. E. Downing.

The Cecilia music club was hospitably entertained last Tuesday night by Miss Florence Elgin at the home of her parents on South Capital street. The program of the evening was entitled "Nevin's Night." Miss Margaret Hodge, one of the guests of the evening, gave several vocal selections by Nevin. After the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Junelle Jones and Miss Helen Corey. Following is the program: Reading, "The Life of Ethelbert Nevin".....Lucile Moore Piano selections, "Narcissus".....Lola Millard "Venetian Love Song" Frances Hod; "Venetian Love Song".....Frances Hodge Violin selections, "The Gontolies".....Marian Emmons

MRS. OSCAR GINGRICH whose clever Indian pantomime work this week at the Oregon theatre won for her much praise from the patrons of the show.

Vocal solos, "A Necklace of Love".....Margaret Hodge "The Dream Maker Man".....Margaret Hodge

Miss Marguerite Fishwood, of Creswell, is visiting with her sister, Miss Hazel Fishwood, an instructor at the high school, until the close of school.

Mrs. E. Hofer and Mrs. Allan Bynon were guests of Miss Alice Dabney in Portland for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer and two small sons, Robert and Ernest, have gone up the McKenzie for a couple of weeks.

A pretty wedding was solemnized last Sunday at 3 o'clock when Miss Mary Frances Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cameron, 398 North Twenty-first street, became the bride of Carl Walter Butte, son of Mrs. Magdalena Butte, 2620 Lee street. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, only the immediate relatives of the couple being present. Rev. George Koehler, of the Lutheran church, officiated.

The bride wore a beautiful taupe georgette crepe dress and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Butte is an accomplished musician and the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron. Mr. Butte has been in the employ of Mrs. J. F. Hughes. Mr. and Mrs. Butte were born in Salem and were school friends, when two years ago the friendship ripened into love. After the wedding they left for Seattle

H. LIEBES & CO.
extends

An Invitation to Rose Festival Visitors

Portland, Oregon

In order that your visit to the City of Roses be filled to the utmost with pleasure, a most cordial invitation is extended to you to inspect the especially charming Liebes specially priced displays of

Approved Summer Apparel for Milady

Gowns    Dresses    Frocks    Suits
Blouses    Lingerie

Sports Wear
For Mountain, Country, Town or Shore

Furs
For Summer and Winter Wear

We have arranged something very novel and interesting—to take you through our specially constructed Fur Vaults. When in the store ask for this privilege.
Furs Stored for the Summer in Our Specially Constructed Fur Vaults Which Are Maintained Constantly at 20 Degrees Below Freezing Point

A special parlor has been equipped for your ease, in which you will find telephone and writing materials. An attendant will gladly give you information regarding the city, and seek to make you feel the welcome without the thought of an obligation to purchase a single article of the beautiful merchandise, even though specially prepared events have been arranged for your benefit.

H. Liebes & Co.

Established 1864 FURS
149-151 BROADWAY
Portland

The season's smartest Oxfords—
yet the most comfortable

You don't mind having people gaze at your shoes when you're wearing anything as trig as this swanky Oxford! And your foot feels so comfortable in it—no matter how busy you are all day—you're pppp comfortable in it—no matter how busy you are all day—you forget you have feet!

The Red Cross Shoe has all the essentials of the shoe for this season's wear—it's smart, it's comfortable, it's price is amazingly moderate. Come in and try on this new Oxford. You'll be delighted with it. Its price is:
Fine Brown Kid .....$9.50
Fine Black Kid .....$8.00
Fine White Reinskin .....$5.75

The Bootery

where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sherlock, of Portland, and Miss Meryle Whitney, of Salem, were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koon on Friday.

Miss Jessie Miller has returned from a few days spent in Portland.

The return of Miss Florence Cleveland for a few days visit in Salem is causing much pleasure in local circles. Miss Cleveland won many friends in Salem while here as Y. W. C. A. secretary and during her absence has been missed very much by them.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William Hollenbeck Burghardt, Sr., for a reception to be given June 15, their golden wedding anniversary. Several hundred guests have been invited to help them celebrate the event.

Miss Minetta Magers, of Salem, has been chosen as contraalto soloist for the reception on the opening night of the Eastern Star which convenes in Portland this week. Miss Magers will sing "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint-Saens. Soprano soloist will be Mrs. Eloise Hall Cook, one of the most popular Portland sopranos. The women will also sing one duet.

On Thursday afternoon following the graduation exercises at the Chemawa Indian school, Mrs. Harwood Hall entertained at her home Governor Ben Olcott, who was the speaker of the day, and his party from Salem, the faculty of the school, and friends. A feature of the visit was the wonderful room of curios which the Halls have. In this room are Indian blankets, beads, rugs, baskets, and everything of Indian life.

Interesting to many Salem friends is the wedding of Miss Pauline Lisika, formerly of Salem, to Edward Ayeres at Seattle last Monday. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Carson at the parsonage of the First Congregational church and the young people will make their home in Seattle where Mr. Ayeres is connected with the ship building industry.

During her stay in Salem Mrs. Ayeres was employed at the Spa and was also well known in musical circles. For the last two seasons she was soloist for the band concerts and since last September has been soloist at the Centenary Methodist church in Portland.

Mrs. Hallie Parrish Durdahl has been engaged as soloist for the Elks Flag Day exercises which will be held on Saturday night in Wilson park. These Flag Day exercises are annual events and never fail to draw a large crowd. Mrs. Durdahl will also sing a week from tomorrow night at Woodburn for the Salvation Army drive. Walter L. Tooze is to be the speaker for that night.

The high school friends Mary Talmadge, who left Salem somewhat less than a year ago to study music in Portland, will be especially interested in the announcement that she has engaged with the Ellison-White Chautauqua company for a summer tour, which opens at Tonopah, Nevada, Sunday, June 8. This talented young woman will not only be featured as a violinist but will also appear as a marimbaphone artist. Her tour includes engagements in Nevada, California, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hoff are entertaining over the week-end their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norlyn Hoff (Dorothy Jean Alexander) who came down from Portland yesterday. This is their first visit which Mr. and Mrs. Hoff have made to Salem since their recent marriage.

Mrs. H. C. Hart, of Cottage Grove, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner at 1775 First street. Mrs. Hart is a niece of Mrs. Copner.

E. M. Brown of Tillamook and Lorenta Allen of Marion county were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Congregational church, 440 Center street, Friday, at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Kantner, officiating.

Mrs. Lee L. Gilbert and little daughters, Eariel Lee and Mildred, are spending the week-end in Portland.

(Continued on page 4)

FOR THE JUNE BRIDE
NO GIFT MORE APPROPRIATE THAN A

PIANO

OUR LINE OF BEAUTIFUL INSTRUMENTS WILL APPEAL TO THE MOST EXACTING TASTES. We firmly believe that we are better able to sell you a Piano for your home than any other dealer. Our belief is based on the fact that we carry only pianos of known worth. The kind that have been tried right here at home, and elsewhere, and not found wanting in tone, construction or finish. Our pianos are sweet toned and constructed to retain their tones. We want every prospective buyer to see our instruments before deciding what piano to buy. Our line consists of the most celebrated makes in the world. Our terms are easy.

The Wiley B. Allen Co.
519 Court St. Derby Building

GIVE "HER" A
THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY

Sonora

CLEAR AS A BELL

And make your June Bride doubly happy.
"The Instrument Beautiful"

The new home will not be complete without a phonograph and the beautiful cabinet designs and incomparable tone of the Sonora will prove to you that it is the right instrument to buy.

The Sonora received the highest award for tone quality at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, 1915.

Come In Today and Hear It.

Myrtle Knowland

415 Court Street
Sonora Dealer in Salem.

