DAY IS SET
bargains offered a year ago and who appreciated wonderful money savings they secured by buying on that occasion.

In speaking of last year's Annual Bargain day, the following quotations from some of Salem's leading merchants given to The Statesman on the evening of last year's event, will demonstrate what they thought of Bargain day:

"A big rush all day, couldn't handle the crowds!" O. E. Price—Price Shoe company.

"Wonderful" said E. T. Barnes of Barnes Cash store. "It certainly is a success—a benefit to both customer and community."

"Needed a half dozen more clerks. J. B. Little—The Hootery.

"We've just been over run all day. Absolutely." Mr. Jarman, manager, J. C. Peasey company.

"One-third bigger business day than even last year's Bargain day. It's an event every citizen should support and encourage." Kaffoury Bros.

The local manager of F. W. Woolworth company surely won't think Bargain day smile when interviewed. He said: "This is the kind of an event that will make Salem a real live town. It'll let people know Salem is on the map. I never saw so many out of town people in my store. It's been jammed all day long."

"My only regret is that we could not handle the crowds with the department of service we always try to render," said U. G. Shipley.

"Better than last year," was the comment of Mr. Farmer of the Ray L. Farmer Hardware company.

"Biggest day we ever had," Salem Hardware company.

Every merchant on last year's Bargain day list was equally emphatic in his praise of the event. There were forty-eight Bargain day stores last year but this number will be largely increased this year and Saturday, June 21, Salem's Third Annual Bargain day, will, without a doubt, eclipse any merchandising event heretofore held in the city.

On Saturday, June 15th, every imaginable article of merchandise may be purchased at a price less than ordinary. This will undoubtedly result in thousands of people coming from various points in Marion and Polk counties to participate in this money saving opportunity.

Every day from now until June 21st the Statesman and the Capital Journal will give further details of the plans that are being formulated for Bargain day—what stores have constituted themselves "Bargain Day stores," what they will offer as bargains, what novel selling schemes they will inaugurate, and, in fact, everything that could interest you in this day of all days for economical buying.

Read the articles about "Bargain Day" in each issue. Make a list of the Bargain day stores. Make a list of the things you want to buy economically. Then come to Salem on Bargain day, June 21. In tomorrow's issue of the Statesman we will give you a list of the Bargain day stores. Watch for it.

Industrial Accident Fund Is in Healthy Condition
A total of 18 fatal accidents was reported to the industrial accident commission during the month of May, according to the monthly report made public today. Final settlements in all accident cases totaled $90 for the month, while 26 cases were rejected for cause. The commission now has 731 cases before it which are in the process of adjustment.

The financial statement shows that $16,384 was paid in pensions during the month, leaving a balance of $1,780,403 in the segregated accident fund. The administrative expenses for May amounted to $10,644.

The Result of Adjustments
The Chiropractor proves the value of his work by the good results his patients find at his hands. It is quite natural for people to doubt that much good can be accomplished by merely adjusting the bones of the spine with the bare hands, but that this good does result in most every kind of human ailment can easily be demonstrated.

Facts are what one wants to dispel existing doubts. It is a fact that spinal adjustments will recover one from sickness and restore the ailing parts to healthy condition. Neither is this improvement temporary nor accompanied by harm while effecting it. The best way to definitely determine the truth of the Chiropractic claims is a trial of the adjustments. If the results are not good, the patient will then have grounds for his doubts. The Science of Chiropractic has grown phenomenally in practice largely by converting doubters through practical benefits derived from spinal adjustments.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sternea who are traveling in the east are now at the Hotel Marcellus, New York City.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Vincent, on the Garden road, was the scene of a pretty home wedding when their daughter, Rutha Ann became the bride of Roy Ray Mitchell of Dallas, Sunday at 5 o'clock.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed in a corner of the large parlor amid a bower of maple boughs by the Rev. R. L. Putman, minister of the Court Street Christian church.

After the ceremony ice cream and cake were served the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home in Dallas where the groom is now engaged in business. The following were the invited guests:

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe of Chemawa, Mrs. Martha L. Coochingham, 94 years old, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Roberts, Miss Ethel Roberts, Miss Bernice Roberts, Mr. Alden Roberts, Mrs. R. L. Putman and daughter, Winona, Mr. E. F. Long, Frank Caspell, Mr. and Mrs. John Lefors of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Mitchell of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright and son, Leonard, of Dallas, Mr. J. W. Mitchell and wife, Mr. J. E. Mitchell and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Nichols, Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Dallas, Mr. Neville Eldridge of Independence, Miss Velma Mitchell of Dallas, Mr. J. C. Shreve of Dallas, Glen Mitchell of Baker.

At a pretty home wedding Tuesday afternoon, Miss Estella R. Watson became the bride of Fred J. Smith, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. L. Wilson, of 571 Union street. Rev. Thomas S. Anderson officiating in the presence of only immediate relatives.

The bride's younger sister, Miss Letha Wilson, was bridesmaid and Archie Smith of Camp Lewis, a brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe meteor over satin. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a dainty frock of pink crepe de chine and carried white and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Dickey, a sister of the groom, played Lohengrin's wedding march and Archie Smith sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

After a dainty lunch Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Portland, Seattle and other northern points on their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home on South Church street.

The rooms of the Wilson home were beautifully decorated with garlands of pink and white roses, carrying out the pink and white color scheme.

The bride is a popular young woman of Salem, and is the daughter of Mrs. E. L. Wilson.

The groom, the son of Mrs. O. G. Smith, of North Winter street, is also very popular.

The families of William May and A. Welch were out for an auto picnic on the Santiam Sunday.

Saturday the local department of the Woman's Relief corps gave a reception at the home of Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, 770 Chemeketa street in honor of Mrs. Bertha Drew Gillman of Heppner and Mrs. Minnie Horseman of Portland, the national vice-president, who are the guests of Mrs. Terwilliger. The rooms were attractively decorated with red and yellow roses and flags, red being the national colors. At the door the guests were met by little Miss Myrtle Shipp, daintily dressed. In the receiving line were Mrs. Alice E. Caldwell, president; Mrs. Hattie Cameron, east department treasurer; Mrs. Florence Spencer, department executive board; Mrs. W. S. Smith and Mrs. Dinmore. Mrs. Elizabeth Adair introduced the guests and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Mary Crooks, Mrs. Rose Hagerdorn and Mrs. Florence Shipp.

During the evening the guests were honored with some whistling solos by Mrs. Lamoine Clark and with some piano solos by Miss Florence Shipp. The Misses Selma Krumow, Florence Pope, Thelma Crooks, and Florence Shipp assisted in serving.
