THE WORLD MUST BE MADE HONEST

Quotations of Russian bonds are little changed on the curb in New York, notwithstanding that the payments falling due are not met. There is little serious expectation that any great country, or any small country, for the matter of that, will be allowed to repudiate its international obligations.

The world must be made honest. It will be kept honest. No nation can live to itself alone, any more than an individual. And, with the League of Nations, all peoples will be more nearly one family than ever before. They will be one family, in the protection of international honesty.

The "friends of freedom for India" is the name of a new organization just announced at New York. Frank P. Walsh and Dudley Field Malone are among its vice presidents and the officials also include a number of well known pacifists and radicals. The opportunities are not exhausted. Groups of friends of freedom for many other countries may reasonably be looked for. And this thing is likely to be run into the ground; till Uncle Sam will have to abate the nuisances, for the good of the world.

Turkey suggests that Palestine and Arabia be left under Turkish governors. This is pure nerve. It ought not to be thought of for a moment. The Turks do not quite have the nerve to suggest the same thing as to Armenia and Syria.

Friday is the day for signing the peace treaty; the day of the arrival of the German and Italian delegates with authority to sign.

A lot of good matter crowded out; will appear later in The Statesman.

Have you voted for the Goddess of Liberty?

Now to the hot place with the profiteers. And pile on more pitch.

The world little cares about the formality of the matter. Just so the treaty is signed.

The politicians of both parties now claim that they have all the time been in favor of woman suffrage. Wonder what delayed it all these years?

The daylight saving change will not take effect until in October when we turn the clocks back an hour. Brace up; we have the long summer days yet before us.

A prominent man arriving in New York from Brazil was surprised to find coffee selling at 75 cents a pound—the same coffee that is selling in Brazil at two pounds for a quarter; and at all the ports of Brazil mountain high piles of the coffee awaiting for American ships to come and get it. The visitor says the coffee that is selling in New York at 40 cents a pound is selling in Brazil at 10 cents. This is but one sample of the profiteering that is being done in this country—and the list of articles would fill a book. Now that peace days are at hand, and all restrictions will be off, the profiteers are due for a lot of hard bumps—and not one of them will get a lick amiss; or deserve a single tear from the people of this country they have been robbing.

"A defeated nation is being violated body and soul to the horror of the world," says Premier Bauer of Germany. Let it all go at that, excepting the last four words. Substitute satisfaction for horror there.

"One war at a time; one war at a time," as Lincoln said. But now Uncle Sam is about ready to attend to Mexico. She will have to brace up and behave, for her own good and the good of the world.

"With the present high prices of pork, pig clubs ought to be all the rage," says the Los Angeles Times. They are, up here among the Marion and Polk county farmer boys and girls.

"FETE OF POVERTY."

Writing from Vienna, an American newspaper correspondent narrates the epic of the hundred days of the Bolshevik occupation of the ancient Lithuanian city of Vilna. At the beginning of the war this city had a population of 200,000 and its cathedrals and museums were the repositories of the choicest religious relics and art treasures in Western Russia. By the end of the Bolshevik dominion the population had dwindled to less than 50,000, the cathedrals had been desecrated and the relics carried away; even the windows and doors of the museums had been stolen and every movable thing of value had disappeared.

The correspondent brought with him from Vilna attested photographs of horrors too gruesome for publication. The fiendish ingenuity of the American Indians for torture appears humane compared to the Bolshevik outrages. If a group of the intellectual Bolsheviks in this country could have passed that period of 100 days in Vilna it is possible that their social ideas might have undergone a salutary metamorphosis.

One of the first acts of the Bolsheviks when they took possession of the city was to declare a "Fete of Poverty." On a given day every member of the proletariat was authorized to rally forth and take what he desired from the person or household of another wealthier than himself. It was during this mad day of plunder that the churches were first rifled; doors of private residences were smashed and the contents of the houses was fought over by the vicious elements of the population with all the fury of wolves.

Many of the raiders returned to their homes to find that their property had been pillaged during their absence, for those who possessed little became the prey of those who possessed nothing. The Red Guards encouraged every movement towards violence. Fires raged throughout the night and those who had fled from their homes were caught in a blinding snowstorm. The day after the fete dawned on hundreds of frozen corpses and a scene of desolation with few parallels in history.

This "Fete of Poverty" is but one of the beneficent institutions of soviet government in Russia.

A MIGHTY GOOD ARMY.

We shall not say that because our troops took eleven times as many of the enemy as the enemy took of them we hold the American Expeditionary Forces to have constituted a military engine eleven times as good as the Kaiser's armies. However, we accept the figures as justifying the reflection that the United States had a mighty good army in France when the armistice was signed.—New York Sun.

A LOAD.

It will take a million cars to handle the season's wheat crop of the country. Some one suggests the dropping of a postal card to Henry Ford. Maybe he has them.

HAM AND.

It is said that a ham will buy a nice brunette wife in Uganda, but who wants to let go of a perfectly good ham in exchange for the precarious joys of matrimony?

LEST WE FORGET!

The tumult and the shouting dies—The captains and the kings depart—Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice. An humble and a contrite heart, Lord God of hosts, be with us yet. Lest we forget—lest we forget!

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Friday is the day.
The day for signing.

And Germany's greatness as a military power will end where it began, at Versailles.

Just bonhead; that is the only explanation for the opportunity offered for the sinking of the German ships.

Fair weather promised, and needed, for the hay makers.

Belgium will have the first crack at the German indemnity money. That is proper.

A line of ships is to be established between Portland and the Dutch East Indies. That is constructive. A great trade will be developed with that rich region, down south of the Philippines.

Buster days are being prepared for, as the Salem paper mill assumes proportions, down at the foot of Trade street.

There will be no occasion for any idle men, women or children during the busy picking and harvest season.

FUTURE DATES.

June 20 to July 13—Methodist Centenary celebration at Columbus, Ohio.

July 2 and 3—State encampment of United Spanish war veterans in Salem.

July 5 to 12—ANNUAL CONVENTION of Christian church at Turner.

August 14, 15, and 16—Elks state convention at Klamath Falls.

September 22-27—Fifty-eighth Oregon state fair.

IN A SOCIAL WAY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

FRIDAY afternoon all Salem will attend a silver tea at the state house grounds from 3 till 6 o'clock. It is planned as a benefit for the women's building at the University of Oregon. Of course all the women will be there and all the men who can leave their business sometime during those hours are asked to come.

One of the pretty weddings of June was the marriage of Miss Beulah Hill to Samuel Tyler, which occurred Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hill on State and Twenty-fourth streets. The dates was chosen because of the coincidence of both their birthday anniversaries being on this day.

The bride and groom, unattended, marched to a bower of blossoms and greenery while Miss Lois Tyler, a sister of the groom, played the Mendelssohn wedding march. There the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. James H. Irvine of St. Johns who is a particular friend of the groom's family. The ring was taken from a pure white rose bud nearby.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white georgette over satin and a wreath of white and pink tiny flowers on her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of pink canterberry bells. Only members of both families were bidden. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler left in their new car for eastern Oregon for their wedding trip. The bride chose for her going away a blue jersey suit with a georgette hat to match. Upon their return they will make their home in Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tyler are well known in Salem; she having moved here with her parents from Texas some years ago. Mr. Tyler was on the mechanical force of The Statesman for several years.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith and son, Wallace, Mrs. Joseph Albert and daughters, Mary Jane and Josephine left Wednesday for a ten day camping trip at Silver Creek falls.

The smartest affair scheduled for today in the society world is the meeting this afternoon of the Luncheon Bridge club at the home of Mrs. J. F. Van Doren.

Mrs. Robert Macindier will leave today for Eugene where she will be the guest of Mrs. A. J. McDougal and Mrs. Douglas Campbell for a few weeks.

Mrs. George F. Rodgers and her daughter, Miss Margaret left Monday for Astoria after being in Salem a week.

Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., has returned from Portland where she went to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Thelma Draper to Oscar Carlin which occurred last week at the St. Stephen's church.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Paul and Hugh, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Darden, and Prof. and Mrs. Gustav Ebsen have returned from Seabeck, Wash., where they were attending the students conference.

Miss Mary Hathaway of Gladstone is a guest at the Lawrence T. Harris home.

Miss Anna Mullen will go to Dayton today for a few days visit.

Mrs. Florence Shipp will entertain the members of the Women's Relief corps at her home, 110 Lafelle street Thursday afternoon, June 26. Mrs. Shipp will be assisted by: Mrs. Alice Caldwell, Mrs. Blanche Davis, Mrs. Mary Davis, Mrs. Sarah Drager, Mrs. Effie Dunlap, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. Alice Davies, and Mrs. Julia Davis.

On Sunday, June 22, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Veatch entertained with a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Veatch. The table was beautiful with blue canterberry bells forming the centerpiece. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris, and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Rennie and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Johnson, Mrs. Catherine Blanton, A. P. Harris and Ray O. Rennie, who has recently returned from overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson left Salem yesterday for Tacoma for a short visit before leaving the states for their extended tour of the Eastern continents.

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, laces, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything! Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washbowl, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Sore corns lift right off with fingers.

Magic!

Costs a few cents! Drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out with your fingers.

Why wait? Your druggist sells a bottle of Freezone for a few cents sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the much talked of discovery of the Cincinnati genius.

SHRINE NOBLES HEAR GINGRICH

Salem Man Sings in Medina Temple and La Salle Hotel in Chicago

To sing at Medina temple, the home of Chicago Shriners, and again at the La Salle hotel, at both places by special invitation, was an honor conferred upon Oscar B. Gingrich of Salem on his recent visit to the east. Mr. Gingrich was the only Salem Shriner attending the imperial convention, and his presence was incident to a visit to the Maxwell automobile factory at Detroit.

Oregon Shriners were guests of the Chicago Shriners en route. The city was thronged with other visiting Shriners who were on their way to Indianapolis and Mr. Gingrich was booked to sing at Medina temple, one of the most gorgeous auditoriums in America. The seating capacity is 8000 and the stage the second largest on this continent. The pipe organ is one of the biggest in the world. In this building Mr. Gingrich sang to the nobility of Shrinedom and to the elite of Chicago. This program was at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. In the evening Mr. Gingrich sang at the La Salle hotel with orchestral accompaniment.

An Instantaneous Wrinkle Remover

The average woman is always surprised to learn, after experimenting with all sorts of patent so-called "wrinkle removers," that the most effective remedy in the world is a simple face wash which she can make herself at home in a jiffy. She has only to get an ounce of pure powdered saxolite from her nearest druggist and dissolve it in half a pint of witch hazel. Apply this refreshing solution to the face every day for a while. The result is charming—marvelous. Even after the very first treatment the wrinkles show less plainly and the face has a nice, firm, comfortable feeling that is thoroughly delightful and lends self-confidence in one's appearance. This harmless home remedy is used by thousands of women to obliterate the unwelcome traces of time.

WHY NOT HAVE NORMAL HEALTH?

Disease is caused by nerve pressure, by interference with those channels which transmit mental impulses from the brain to every tissue cell in the body. If 100 per cent of mental impulse is fully expressed in function, then we have NORMAL HEALTH, A BOON TO WHICH EVERY HUMAN BEING IS ENTITLED. If there is interference and the Chiropractor is summoned, he goes at once to the seat of the trouble, adjusting the subluxated vertebrae to their natural positions by the use of his bare hands only. He then makes it possible for the full amount of life force to reach the diseased organs and in a short time HEALTH IS THE RESULT.
