JURY HEARS ADDRESSES OF TOWNLEY

Speeches Reported in Newspapers Read Into Record in Trail of Non-Partisan League President

DEFENSE USES ALLEGED DISLOYAL STATEMENTS

Defendant Seeks Drafting of Wealth as Well as of Manhood

JACKSON, Minn., June 26.—Long extracts from addresses by A. C. Townley at meetings at New Ulm, Minn., in 1917 and 1918, were read into the record of the district court here this afternoon at the trial of President Townley of the National Non-Partisan League and his former lieutenant, Joseph Gilbert, who are charged with conspiracy to commit disloyalty.

The Townley addresses were made at New Ulm, June 22, 1917, and February 20, 1918. The report of the first address as printed in the New Ulm Journal was read by Philip Lelsch, publisher of the Journal and the second address was read by Alexander Seifert, a court reporter from Springfield, Minn., who testified that he copied the speech in shorthand. The reports of the speeches were admitted as evidence.

Defense Accepts Speeches
The defendant's attorneys did not question the accuracy of either of them read in court. In fact they read into the record long sections of the speeches after the prosecuting attorney introduced sections which he claimed were part of the evidence upon which the disloyalty charges are based.

In both addresses as read in court, Townley discussed the war and devoted most of his time to consideration of economic issues and assailing "war profiteers." Townley charged in both speeches that in 1915 "the profits of war corporations were four billion dollars" and he demanded that the wealth of the nation should be conscripted as the men.

The portion of Townley's second speech at New Ulm was that which received the most attention from the authorities and follows:
"Alleged Suppression Barred
"You hear them say all over the country that this is not a time for politics; that this is not a time for the people to be agitated; this is not a time for you to think. This is a time when you ought to be perfectly quiet. Don't wake up and look around, you are sure to see something. That is what they mean.
"If your boy refuses or neglects to register for war service do these gentlemen keep quiet; do they say this is a time when we ought to have no trouble. Oh, no. They will raise

Negro Assailant of White Girl Burned As Victim Watches

ELLISVILLE, Miss., June 26.—Trailing for 10 days through southern Mississippi by poses which included several hundred members of his own race, John Hartfield, negro, confessed assailant of an Ellisville young woman, was captured asperately wounded in a cane brake this morning, rushed by automobile to the scene of his crime, hanged to a gum tree and burned to ashes. His victim identified him and witnessed his execution.

Governor Bilbo, petitioned during the days to intervene, in a statement issued at Jackson shortly before the lynching, declared himself "utterly powerless" and said that interference would only lead to the deaths of hundreds of persons and that "nobody can keep the inevitable from happening."

GUARDSMEN TO BE HERE FOURTH

Two Battalions of State Troops to Participate in Celebration

Two battalions of Oregon National guard, the first and third, will be in Salem for the parade July Fourth, according to arrangements which have been made by the Salem Commercial club with Colonel W. C. North, commanding officer of the regiment. The number of officers and men will be approximately 750.

There are no definite plans as yet as to the movements of the guardsmen after their arrival here but it is hoped to stage a regimental review, a formal guardmount and possibly other ceremonies.

The first battalion, of which all four companies are in Portland, will come to Salem by motor trucks leaving the metropolis early in the morning in order to arrive here in time for the parade. No state funds are available for their transportation making the motor journey necessary.

The third battalion composed of the companies at McMinnville, Independence, Silvertown, besides Company M of Salem, will be brought here early in the day and will later return to their respective cities in order to participate in their own celebrations.

All the guardsmen will be guests of the Commercial club during their stay and will be given a dinner by the club.

Mexicans Fire on Cavalry Patrol but Injure None

NOGALES, Ariz., June 26.—A party of about 6 Mexicans fired upon a cavalry patrol about four miles west of here late today. The Americans returned the fire. No Americans were injured.

The cavalrymen were without orders to cross the border line and sought cover when fired upon. About a dozen rounds were fired at the Mexicans, who were concealed in brush. Whether the Mexicans were identified with any revolutionary band could not be determined.

DELEGATES OF GERMANY NOT CHOSEN

Plenipotentiaries Expected to be Headed by Mueller with Bauer and Bell as Other Members of Group

PRINCE'S RETURN TO GERMANY NOT CERTAIN

Allies Will Require Reparation for Sinking of Enemy Warships

While no official information is yet at hand with regard to the appointment by the German government of plenipotentiaries to proceed to Versailles to sign the peace treaty the latest unofficial advices arriving in Paris from Germany are that Dr. Hermann Mueller, foreign minister in the cabinet of Herr Bauer, and Dr. Bell, the minister of colonies, have been chosen for the duty.

The time for the signing of the treaty also is still in doubt. The German delegation, says the report, will reach Versailles Saturday morning, having been due to depart from Berlin Thursday night. There has been some talk of the possibility of setting Sunday as the date for the function and Monday also has been spoken of.

No News of Crown Prince.

No further news from any source has been received regarding the return to Germany of the former German crown prince who has been interned in Holland since hostilities ceased.

Another vote of confidence has been given the new German government by the Prussian national assembly following a discussion of the peace situation.

The disorders both in Berlin and Hamburg, where there has been considerable street fighting and looting, apparently are on the wane. A news agency dispatch from Copenhagen says 185 persons were killed in the rioting at Hamburg. The casualties in Berlin have not been made public.

Fleet Reparation Demanded.

The allied and associated powers have informed the German government that reparation will be required for the sinking of the German fleet in Scapa Flow and also that the individuals guilty of this violation of the armistice will be tried by a military court. Likewise reparation is to be required for the burning by the Germans of several French battleflags.

Another warning has been sent to the Germans. It is to the effect that the German government will be held to account for failure to withdraw troops from the new Polish territory and for any aid rendered the

HERE IS THE VOTE

What's a poor newspaperman going to do anyway?

Only six candidates for Goddess of Liberty are in the race so far and three of them want to withdraw. They called up this office and asked that their names be kept out of print. The newspaperman stalled and sidestepped and then about half promised that he would keep 'em out.

"It's my name, isn't it," challenged one young woman. "I have a right to withdraw it if I want to, haven't I?"

"Spect so," evaded the squirming reporter. "Now y'don't, either," averred "Baldy" Smith, one of the Goddess committee members. "As long as people are turning in votes for them, who is going to keep 'em out? Why, this committee itself can't keep 'em out of the paper."

The three young women who insist they are not candidates and want their names withdrawn are Marie Breitenstein, who led the list yesterday, Lylah Baker and Rhea Wilson. The Statesman will say this much for the young women, but print all the names and run a chance of getting by with the compromise.

In yesterday's voting Margaret White jumped to first place, Miss Breitenstein dropping to third, and Alta Johnson remaining second. Here is the vote:

Margaret White	1775
Alta Johnson	1650
Marie Breitenstein	1527
Lylah Baker	1260

Rhea Wilson	1052

Silvertown Is Going Strong in Salvation Army Drive

Mrs. George W. Steelhammer of Silvertown called at Elks Salvation Army headquarters yesterday and reported that her town is making rapid progress in collecting funds for the Elks Salvation Army home service campaign and that George W. Steelhammer, her husband—ably assisted by Mrs. Gust Weist, wife of the foreman of the Silver Falls Timber company, located 30 miles from Silvertown in the mountains, had collected more than $300 in one camp alone. He left his business at Silvertown and has been in the mountains for two days engaged in the work.

Mrs. Steelhammer has been devoting her entire time during the week, assisted by the women of Silvertown in securing funds in that city and vicinity.

Salem must step some to keep pace with the little city of Silvertown.

MR. WILSON FELICITATES M. POINCARE

Address at Dinner in Honor Full of Expressions of Appreciation and Sympathy for French Republic

WAR BEARS FRUIT IN TRUE UNDERSTANDING

Mrs. Wilson With Husband at Function Attended by All Peace Delegates

PARIS, June 26.—(By The Associated Press)—President Poincare tonight gave a dinner to President Wilson and all the delegates to the peace conference. Mrs. Wilson accompanied the president.

In responding to an address made by M. Poincare, President Wilson said: "I thank you most sincerely for the words that you have uttered. I cannot pretend, sir, that the prospect of going home is not very delightful to me, but I can say with the greatest sincerity that the prospect of leaving France is very painful to me."

"I have received here, and it has been a pleasure for me to feel that that welcome was intended not so much for myself as for the people who I represent. And the people of France know how to give a welcome that makes a man's heart glad. They have a spontaneity about them, a simplicity of friendship which is altogether delightful.

Stay Enlightening

"I feel that my stay here, sir, has enlightened both my heart and my mind. It has enabled me personally to see the evidences of the suffering and the sacrifices of France. It has enabled me to come into personal touch with the leaders of the French people and through the medium of intercourse with them, to understand better, I hope, than I understood before, the motives, the ambitions and the principles which actuate this great nation. It has therefore, been to me a lesson in the roots of friendship in those things which make the intercourse of nations profitable and serviceable for all the rest of mankind."

"Sometimes the work of the conference has seemed to go very slowly indeed. Sometimes it has seemed as if there were unnecessary obstacles to agreement, but as the weeks have lengthened I have seemed to see the profit that came out of that. Quick conclusions would not have had produced that intimate knowledge of each other's mind which I think has come out of these daily conferences.

Comradeship is Asset

"We have been constantly in the presence of each other's minds and motives and characters and the comradeships which are based upon that sort of knowledge are sure to be very much more intelligent not only, but to breed more intimate sympathy and comprehension than could otherwise be created.

"These six months have been six months which have woven new fibres of connection between the minds and motives of people. And something more than friendship and intimate sympathy has come out of this intercourse.

"Friendship is a very good thing. Intimacy is a very enlightening thing. But friendship may end with sentiment. A new thing that has happened is that we have translated our common principles and our common purposes into a common plan. When we part, we are not going to part with a finished work, but with a work one portion of which is finished and the other portion of which only begun.

Cooperation is Begun

"We have finished the formulation of the peace, but we have begun a plan of cooperation which I believe will broaden and strengthen as the years go by, so that this grip of the war that we have taken will need to be relaxed. We have been and shall continue to be comrades in tasks, which, because they are common, will weave out of sentiments a common conception of duty and a common ception of the rights of men of every race and of every clime. If it be true that that has been accomplished, it is a very great thing."

"As I go away from these scenes, I think I shall realize that I have been present at one of the most vital things that has happened in the history of nations. Nations have formed contracts with each other but they have never formed partnerships. They have associated themselves temporarily, but they never before have associated themselves permanently."

War Wakens World

"The wrong that was done in the waging of this war was a great wrong, but it wakened the world to a great moral necessity of seeing that it was necessary that men should band themselves together in order that such a wrong should never be perpetrated again."

"Merely to beat a nation that was

GOVERNMENT IS AFTER BOMBERS

Provision Made in Bill to Fight Anarchists Who Plot Overthrow

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Provision for vigorous steps by the federal government against bomb throwers and other anarchists and radicals—declared by government officials to be plotting overthrow of the government and spending $2,000,000 monthly to that end—were made in the sundry civil appropriation bill as reported today to the senate.

Among the measures recommended were large additional appropriations for the department of justice, and legislation continuing permanently the war-time regulations as to purchase, storage, manufacture and distribution of explosives. Reporting the bill, the senate appropriations committee increased from $1,400,000 to $2,000,000 the fund of the department of justice for general suppression of crime. In addition it added $300,000 for a special fund to enforce the law against alien anarchists through deportations.

The amendment added to continue the explosives regulation law after declaration of peace provides for strict licensing and supervision of all sales of explosives under the bureau of mines.

Intention of government officials to deal vigorously with anarchists and other lawbreakers was disclosed in statements made at hearings on the appropriation bill made public late today. Francis P. Garvan, of the department of justice bureau of investigation, told the committee that, with increased funds proposed, the department plans an active campaign.

Burglars Make Haul in Two Stores at Silvertown

Burglars Wednesday night entered the Julius Alm store at Silvertown and stole six pairs of shoes, several shirts and a suit case. From this store they broke through a partition and entered the store of Syring & Banks where they found the combination of a safe not closed and secured two $50 liberty bonds and $150 in cash. It is thought that the burglars swam Silvertown creek, climbed a tall maple tree and dropped down to the roof, thence securing entrance to the store by breaking a skylight. Their old clothes which they had exchanged for new ones were found, but no trace of the thieves has been discovered.

SIGHTLY BUILDING IS SALVATION ARMY PLAN IF QUOTA IS REACHED

The home that is being planned in Salem by the Salvation Army, in the event Marion county and Salem do not fall down in their $20,000 quota assigned for the present home service campaign being conducted by the Elks, will be adequate to care for the army's work at this center and will, as well, be a sightly structure on some convenient corner in the central part of the city.

The building will be of brick construction. It will embrace the senior hall for adult work and the junior hall for children where meetings will be held for the benefit of the youngsters as well as the vocational training work conducted. This work is known as the work of prevention, designed to guide children who begin life in poor circumstances into lives of usefulness.

Other features of the building will be the store where clothing and furniture for the poorer classes will be kept for sale. On the upper floor of the building will be located rooms for emergency cases and for stranded and homeless people. An employ-

Mather Field Airplane to Fly Here on Fourth

PORTLAND, June 26.—An airplane will be sent from Mather Field, Calif., to fly at Salem, Albany and Eugene on the Fourth of July, according to a letter received by Milton R. Klepper, president of the Aero club of Oregon, from Lieutenant Colonel Watson, commander of Mather Field. Colonel Watson said that Lieutenant Krull will be assigned to make the flights, visiting all three cities in one day. It was not stated whether the airplane will fly to Oregon from Mather Field or come north by train.

ment office also will be maintained. These are facilities which the Salvation Army has lacked in Salem and for this reason it has not been able to cover the field in an adequate manner.

The money that is not used for the building will go for relief and expenses, so the captain in charge will not find it necessary to solicit funds. He will be able to give full time to actual work instead of 50 per cent of it canvassing for funds as he does now. Captain Kraus, who is in Salem supervising the Elks campaign as a representative of the Salvation Army, said that by the end of the year 50 per cent of the nearly 5000 stations in the United States have buildings of their own.

Walter Toose, general manager of the Elks-Salvation Army home service campaign in Marion county reported last night that Ansel Davis, Turner, Jefferson, and Annsville have all reached their quotas and are still going
