AMENDMENT IS IMPETUS FOR LAND PROGRAM

Further Activity in Irrigation Expected to Result from Provision

STATE PAYS INTEREST Bond Issues to Extent of $25,000,000 Are Estimated in Next Few Years

It is apparent that the present great activity in irrigation development in Oregon will be stimulated further by the constitutional amendment adopted by the people at the special election of June 3, providing that any irrigation district, after holding an election, may apply to the irrigation securities commission to have the first five years' interest on its bonds paid by the state. The district election is for the purpose of deciding whether an agreement shall be entered into with the state for this purpose.

State Engineer Percy A. Cupper is hopeful that within the next four or five years irrigation district bonds to the extent of $25,000,000 will be sold, and that it may be estimated that this amount in bonds will be issued in the course of a few years. Should the state pay interest for the first five years on an issue of this magnitude the state would be required to issue bonds to an amount of approximately $8,000,000.

When any district applies for interest payment by the state the irrigation securities commission makes a critical examination. If the project is found to meet the requirements of the constitutional amendment an agreement is entered into between the irrigation securities commission and the district in which the state agrees to pay the interest. The districts are required to issue certificates of indebtedness to the state, payable after the last bonds have matured. The certificates bear interest at 5 per cent. Provision is made that the state issue bonds to secure funds to pay interest on the district bonds.

DANGERS ARE NOTED Performance Attracts Comment from Officials in National Capital

When Governor Olcott flew with Lieutenant Colonel Henry L. Watson from Portland to Sacramento in the flagship of a squadron of 10 airplanes of the United States army it was his fortune to participate in one of the best flying demonstrations that has ever been performed on the American continent. This is the opinion of Colonel Milton F. Davis of the air service and who is one of the high aides to General Menoher, who was in supreme command of the air branch of the service.

ELKS ASK FOR MORE SUPPORT

Tremendous Effort Is Urged to Raise Salvation Army Service Fund

By WALTER L. TOOZE. We must make a tremendous effort to raise Salem's quota of $15,000 for the Elks Salvation Army home service. Let every citizen do his full duty and do it now. Let every one qualify as a 100 per cent booster and victory is certain.

Take notice of the following opinions of the Salvation Army from the lips of our greatest leaders in this our beloved country: President Woodrow Wilson—I sincerely wish Godspeed to the Salvation Army, which has as its main object the betterment of humanity and the making of bad citizens into good ones. No one who has watched even superficially the work and progress of the Salvation Army can fail to feel the deepest and most sincere interest.

William Howard Taft—I am thoroughly in sympathy with your work. You reach people who are not reached in any other way. Your practical methods of charity are of the widest usefulness.

Theodore Roosevelt—The Salvation Army has won its way to recognition. There are few serious thinkers nowadays who do not recognize in the Salvation Army an invaluable social asset.

Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore has repeatedly given the Salvation Army a sweeping endorsement for its heroic and glorious service at home and overseas.

The churches everywhere add their unanimous endorsement. All of the great fraternal organizations in this mighty nation endorse this campaign for funds. Every soldier who has seen service in our great army is unqualifiedly supporting and contributing to this righteous cause. One million members of the Benevolent and Protective order of Elks of the United States are leaders in this great cause as depend upon the loyal and devoted support of every citizen. If you are not personally solicited come to our headquarters at 121 South Commercial street and put up every dollar that a generous heart can contribute.

wrong once is not enough. There must follow the warning to all other nations that would do like things that they in turn will be vanquished and shamed if they attempt a dishonorable purpose.

"You can see, therefore, sir, with what deep feelings those of us who must now for a little while be away from home, shall leave your shores; and though the ocean is broad it will seem very narrow in the future. It will be easier to understand each other than it ever was before and with the confident intercourse of co-operation, the understanding will be strengthened into action and action will itself educate alike our purpose and our thought.

Good-bye is Physical Only "So, sir, in saying good-bye to France, I am only saying a sort of physical good-bye; not a spiritual good-bye.

"I shall retain in my heart always the warm feeling which the generous treatment of this great people has generated in my heart. And I wish in my turn, sir, to propose, as you have proposed, the continued and increasing friendship of the two nations, the safety and prosperity of France, the closer and closer communion of free peoples, and the strengthening of every influence which instructs the mind and the purpose of humanity."

NEW MEMBER IS EXPECTED SOON

Governor Not Likely to Delay in Naming Successor to Thompson

Although a statement has been made by W. L. Thompson, who has been named vice-president of the First National bank of Portland, that he will retain his residence in Pendleton until the first of the coming year, it is not believed here Governor Olcott will wait until that time to appoint Mr. Thompson's successor on the state highway commission.

Mr. Thompson, in his communication to the governor, gives the executive the liberty to consider the letter one of resignation if he thinks an immediate change the practical move to make. Since Mr. Thompson's time will be taken up largely in Portland during the remainder of the year it is probable that the governor's judgment will lead him to delay in announcing the name of Thompson's successor. The governor is expected to make a statement shortly as to his intentions.

Already there is speculation about Salem relative to Mr. Thompson's probable successor. It is probable that under the law that the person chosen be a resident of the second congressional district. One name mentioned is that of William Pollman who is a wealthy business man who is interested in many lines of business. Mr. Pollman has made a considerable study of the road question and is said to be an enthusiastic supporter of the state's good roads program.

Fred Holmes, president of the La Grande National bank and who served as state fuel administrator during the war, is another who is mentioned as getting back to Mr. Thompson's own community where are those who think that State Senator Roy W. Rittner of Pendleton or ex-State Senator J. N. Burgess of Pilot Rock may stand a show for appointment.

Shop Lighting Standard Will be Fixed Saturday

The minimum standard of illumination that has been decided upon tentatively by the commission provided by the 1919 legislature for that purpose will be given final consideration at a hearing in the Portland office of the state labor commission Saturday of this week. Unless important objections are brought against the standard as proposed it doubtless will be adopted and put into effect by the board. The members of the commission are J. C. Knapp, president of the Peninsula Lumber company, chairman; F. H. Murphy, an electrical engineer, and Verne Haister, electrical worker, all of Portland.

Following is the standard as proposed: General lighting for workrooms, 5 candlepower; roadways and yard thoroughfares, .02 candlepower; stairways, passages and aisles, .25 candlepower; storage spaces, .25 candlepower; rough manufacturing, 2

SPARTACANS GET CONTROL OF HAMBURG USING BREAD RIOTING AS SUBTERFUGE

HAMBURG, June 26.—Hamburg threatens to become a second Munich with even greater bloodshed. The city is completely in the power of the communists and Spartacans, who are utilizing food riots as an excuse for their attempts to gain control.

In the rioting yesterday they stormed the city hall and overcame the government troops, capturing quantities of ammunition, rifles and machine guns. They then swept over the entire city, plundering, killing and destroying.

Many of Hamburg's fine buildings were badly damaged. The rioters held the railway station for a time, but it was recaptured by the civic guards. The police were utterly helpless and government troops are under way to restore order.

Jails have been stormed and criminals released. The Spartacans are conferring with the idea of establishing a soviet system.

Streets Full of Debris. In addition to the buildings damaged the streets are littered with all kinds of debris and clothing torn from citizens as they fled. Blood is noticeable in many places, indicating casualties. The number of dead is unknown, rumors varying between one dozen and 60. The Spartacans tried unsuccessfully to burn the public buildings but burned all the automobiles they captured.

The British labor party, with only one dissenting vote, in a resolution has called for a revision by the league of nations of "harsh provisions" of the peace treaty which are declared to be not consistent with statements made by the allied governments when the armistice was signed.
