NEWPORT HIT

Mayor Seeks Rescinding of Order for Station but Daniels Says No

WASHINGTON, June 27 .- In reonse to urgent requests from the mayor of Newport, R. I., asking the navy's "dry" zone order applying to all naval training stations be rescinded before July 1, Secretary Daniels today telegraphed that the order would not be rescinded and that no exceptions would be made in the

Mr. Daniels intimated that the or-der would not be rescinded until the president officially declared the state of war no longer exists and by that time, Mr. Daniels said he "hoped that the measure would no longer be ne cessary."

Fire Wardens Put to Work by State Forester Elliott

State Forester F. A. Elliott now has a full complement of fire wardens and assistants on duty in the forests of the state to direct the season's fire prevention work. Twentysix wardens and three assistants are on duty. They are assigned to the several counties as follows: Baker, W. E. Palmer, Baker; Benton, John Hyde, Corvallis; Clacka-mas and Marion, J. W. Ferguson, Jr., Molalla; Clatsop, E. W. McLean, Jewell; Columbia, Porter S. King, field; Crook, Jefferson and Deschutes, J. D. Bowman, Bend; Curry, E. L. White, Port Orford; Douglas, W. J. Lander, Roseburg; Grant, Wheeler, Morrow and Umatilla, C. C. Scott, Spray; Jackson, W. O. Gar-rett (replacing L. W. Stansell) Medford; Josephine, C. A. Hoxie, Grants Pass; Klamath and Lake, C. C. Chit- Norman Imposes Himself on wood, Klamath Falls; Lane (eastern) M. J. Skinner, Eugene; Lane (western) A. M. Kaw, Walton; Lincoln, Lee Wade, Toledo; Linn (northern) Hugh Mendenhall, Mill City; Linn (southern) S. S. Duncan, Sweet Home; Polk, W. V. Fuller, Dallas; Tillamook, S. M. Batterson of Nehalem, J. B. McCowell of Tillamook, Scott Obye of Yamhill and A. A. Segersten of Tillamook; Union, Joe Woods, La Grande; Wallowa, Joner Trump, Promise; Yambill and Washington, W. E. Mendenhall, Sheridan.

Assistant district wardens are: Columbia, John H. McDonald, Vernonia; Coos, Marold T. Lewis, Marshfield, and Washington, E. W. Howell, Gales Creek.

FIELD WILL BEAR NAME OF OLCOTT (Continued from page 1)

will probably deliver the address when the governor is presented with his appointment to command of the Plans are beig made to have the area marked for the occasion by the usa of lime tracing the words "Olcott field" in letters large enough to be seen several miles by aviators. The field will be the first in the state to be named.

"A man of letters, isn't he?" "Sure! Runs a thriving mail or-

MAN WITH GUN UNDER ARREST

Charity and is Later Taken by Officer

After he had represented himself to be worthy of charity, L. E. Norman, arrested yesterday by Officer Thompson, was found to be armed with a revolver and 200 rounds of ammunition. Norman's actions causrefused to accept a garage position offered him in Salem.

No:man, who represented himself to be an ex-Canadian soldier, applied yesterday to the home service department of the Red Cross for $5 with which to get to Albany to take a position to a garage. When questioned in regard to the name of the garage he became confused and aroused the suspicions of the secretary of the home service department who refused to give him any money. Afterward he applied to Mrs. John Carson for $10 and to the Commercial club for $15, but failed to get it at either place. A position was secured for him at the Valley Motor company's garage which he refused to take. Some time later Officer Thompson arrested him for vagrancy. and when he was searched the re volver and cartridges were found.

RECRUITERS TO COME TO SALEM

Three Parties Being Sent Out From Portland Headquarters

PORTLAND, June 27 .- To arouse interest in the army recruiting campaign being carried on by the war department, three teams have been sent out by the local recruiting offices to canvass the cities and towns in Oregon and Washington. The teams will remain in each place several days and speeches will be made at public gatherings and amusement

A team composed of Lieutenant Floyd G. Martin, Color Sergeant Arthur J. Finch, Sergeant Jerry L. Connelly and Wagoner Joseph A. Crumb left Portland Tuesday to tour the southwestern Washington district. They are at Kalama at present and will visit Kelso, Castle Rock, Win-lock, Cheballis, Centralia, Montesano, Aberdeen, Cosmopolis and Hoquiam, returning to Portland early in August. Another party coasisting of Captain Hall, corps of engineers; Sergeant Howard Stewart, Corporal William Keough; Sergeant Stephen T. Rosemarypowski and Private Van Curry will stop at Newberg, McMinnville, Independence, Corvallis, Eugene, Junction City, Harrisburg, Albany and Chemawa, Or., and a third team consisting of Captain Huntington, Sergeant Joseph H. Whitman, Supply Sergeant Thomas A. Lane and Corporal Gustave W. Swenson

Marshfield and Coquille. Federal Emloyment Bureau

will visit Oregon City, Canby, Woodburn, Salem, Gardine , North Bend,

to Close for Want of Funds

The United States employment bureau in Salem will close Monday, according to the announcement made yesterday by Manager J. R. Coleman. The office has continued without funds since March, as the agricultural bills providing for its maintenance failed to pass congress. Since its establishment the office has placed a large number of mea and wonten in positions, its record for ed suspicion, particularly when he this spring being an average of 12

Old Company M Men Home After 18 Months Overseas

A group of Salem men, originally members of Company M, 162nd infantry but later transferred to Guard Company No. 1, army service corps. and who were stationed at Nevers, France, have returned to Salem during the last two or three days. They went overseas in December, 1917.

Among those who have come back are Paul C. Maurer, Martin F. Van Laanen, Elmer Ross, Floyd White and Warren Welborn.

Robbers Get $43,000 in Hold-up of St. Louis Bank

BENTON, Ills., June 27.JFive robbers held up the offices of the Middle Fork mine, two miles east of here this afternoon and seriously wounded three employes of the company, escaping with $43,000. One of the bandits was shot and killed as he ran from the office. His companions carried the body to a waiting automobile and made their escape.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Freezone is magic! Coms lift off with fingers without pain

Hurt? No, not one bit! Just drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching, then you lift that bothersonme corn right off.

Yes, magic! Costs only a few cents. Try Freezone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Freezone is the mysterious ether discovery of a Cincinnati genius.

PRACTICAL CURTAINS FOR Sarah E. Ruggles in the Pictorial

Review:

In the rush of war work of the past two years many houses have been left to take care of themselves as far as any attempt at decoration has been concerned. But now with the resumption of more normal conditions, the woman's first thoughts turn to her home and to the reconstruction that is badly needed therein, renewing the shabby hangings and wall-coverings, as well as in the readjustment of the household work.

"What shall I do with my windows?" is the question many women are asking themselves as summer approaches. At this season we turn from the heavy winter hangings to be done most effectively by the use the object of having windows in our in our own country must rise. The those of sheer weave which will keep out the glare yet let in an abundance frequently summer has found windows stripped of every semblance of drapery, nothing being left but the roller shades and very often those of light tone have been changed for others of a dark green color, long the lower portion well exposed. used on account of their opaqueness. To add to the bare aspect which such windows give an interior, the furniture has been covered with ghostlike shrouds giving one more strike of unattractive coldness to an interfor which at other seasons was harmoniously and restfully furnished Happily this condition has changed and we go about the furnishing of an interior with the ne seasonable interest with which e select our

What a difference there is be tween the appearance of such a theerless room and one where the windows are seasonably curtained to cover the roller but does not in with filmy acts, dimities, or lawns, and the slip-covers made from chints or cretonne, which comes in a wide tains more charming in sheer daintirange of designed color. Cretonnes aesa than those of the ruffled nets. have their special niche in decorative schemes. They add that touch suited for bedrooms. Several rooms of color which in other seasons is may be hung with this type of cursupplied by the window draperies, tain and as many different effects the permanent upholstery fabrics, obtained by varying the style of the and various other accessories. The nets and open mesh materials A little patience and ingenuity exare perhaps the best from which to pended here would be found well make selections for summer curtains. Such sheer window hangings have a d:aperies may be made from simple definite decorative value and do not inexpensive materials. interfere with the ventilation. They soften the bare outline of the window frame and supply a most effective The selection of color should be one screen through which the sun may that will harmonize with the general filter, thus taking away the glare scheme of decoration and form a which comes when the sun's rays pleasing background for the net. If fall directly on the window-glass. The conventional over-draperies may the outside, two-color shades may be be cast aside and the decoration of found which show the same color windows left entirely to the adapta- from the exterior, while the reverse tion of simple hangings.

When it is advantageous to leave the individual rooms, of that type of hangings familiarly rooms is to allow the light to look scarcity of breeding stock in Engance hanging between the curtains includes some of the view. Curtains ca. Hence the market of our counposed rod and shade roller, giving a with this in mind.

HIGH-PRICED SHIRES.

wrought that the curtains form disspectively.

tinct panels for the wiadows. These are woven 21/2 yards in length and $955 to $1100 a head. add an interesting feature when ex-

The Shire situation in England of-American breeders of Shires. The registered Shires in America." Shire has grown in popularity in his native country and will grow in popprices are being paid for Shires in England. Likewise prices for Shires Transcript.

known as the Dutch style-two side in and the family to look out. A land means that few, if any, Shires of fresh air and sunshine. All too curtains and a valance. The val- room is bound to seem larger if it will be available for export to Ameriserves to cover the otherwise ex- should always be selected and hung try will find it necessary to depend upon our home breeders to keep up the supply of registered stock. Here is another factor which will cause prices on registered Shires to rise Not very long ago a 3-year-old As soon as it is possible for exporta-Shire stallion was sold in Eagland tion of horses to Europe to begin for $7500, and young colts for there will be an unprecedeated de-$7000, $4560, $4000, and $2000 re- mand for animals having a degree of Shire blood. England will need a Many mares have been sold for great many horses, and, of course her landowners and teamsters will In an article referring to the horse want Shires and grade Shires in so situation the secretary of the Ameri- far as it is possible to secure them can Shire Horse Association says: Thus an analysis of the situation gives hope and encouragement to the fers great encouragement to our enterprising breeders of grade and

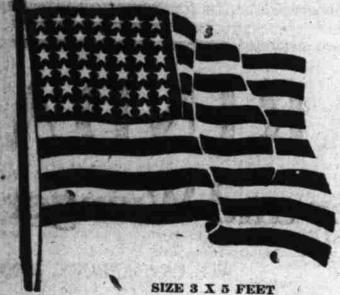

> "Ever notice how old Mrs. Blunularity in the United States. High derby murders the king's English?" "Yes, isn't it killingk"-Boston

> > ************

Veronia; Coos, Frank Heath, Marsh- der business."-Buffalo Express. WATCH HISTORY MADE BEFORE YOUR VERY EYES In the First American Showing of ITALY'S FLAMING FRONT Made by Cinematographic Section of the Royal Italian Army ALL THE BIG THRILLS OF REAL Without Its Horrors BUNDAY-MONDAY

YE LIBERTY THEATRE

THIS FLAG FREE

FOR

Fourth of July

Fly Old Glory, The Victory Flag

EVERY RED-BLOODED AMERICAN will want a new flag this Spring-Bright, fresh, unsoiled Stars and Stripes to voice the glories of the boys who helped bring the Kaiser to

We are giving away this beautiful 5x3 foot American Emblem ABSOLUTELY FREE with one year's new subscription to the DAILY STATESMAN. Also given with a six months new subscription and 50 cents additional. Retail price $1.50. We do not expect our stock to be equal to the demand-GET YOURS WHILE THEY LAST; GET IT/TODAY

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

> By Carrier: (Salem) 00 a year six months

New Subscriber's Coupon

The Daily Statesman, Salem, Oregon.

Gentlemen: Enclosed find $ for which please send

The Daily Statesman for and to me the Victory Flag which is offered in this advertisement.

My name is sides tone in with the decorations of the window without covering and. We must always remember that simply to soften its outline, this can aside from the need for ventilation, soft, finished appearance to the upper part of the window and leaving

There are, however, some pleasing innovations in net and lace roller shades. Many of the designs are so tended to cover either one or both sashes. A less formal treatment is secured by using a straight curtain of heavy filet net showing the blockpattern designs. The charm of this treatment is enhanced by using a valance of cretonne or a plain soft

It would be difficult to find cur-

These are, of course, particularly valance and width of the net ruffles.

worth the effort, as most delightful

Much of the value of sash curtains is lost by the use of improper shades.

a uniformity of color is desired from fabric across the top. This serves any way exclude light and air,

 CLIP THE COUPON

Clip the accompanying Coupon and mail to The Statesman Office

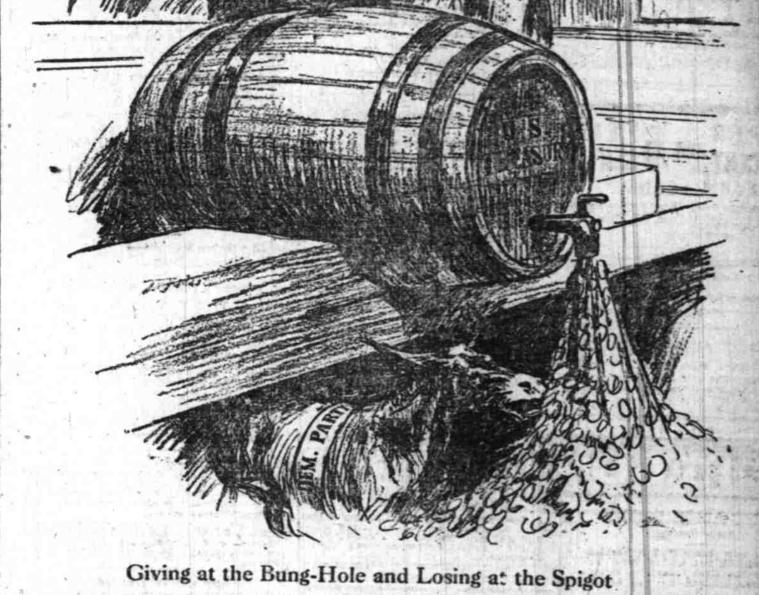

POLK AND MARION COUNTY PEACE EDITION OF THE OREGON STATESMAN

The Oregon Statesman,

Salem, Oregon.

Enclosed find $ for which please mail me . . . copies of the Peace Edition.

(Your name here) Post Office Address

GIVE

UNTIL

HURTS

DENY

YOURSELF

PAY

General Pershing Presenting Medal to Winner at Big A. E. F. Meet

Here is a rare photograph. It shows the Pershing smile-a rarity, according to the pictures received in this country. The commander of the doughboys who helped to put the German army out of business is seen here congratulating one of the winners and presenting him with a medal after the big A. E. F. track and field meet held recently at Colombes Field, Paris. Some of America's famous college athletes competed.