

Society

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

One of the smartest affairs of the week was the silver tea Friday afternoon on the state house grounds with the members of the Salem Woman's club as hostesses. The beautiful grounds were converted into a perfect fairyland with baskets of various colored blossoms hanging from the trees. The affair was as a benefit for the women's building at the University of Oregon and a good sum was realized. During the afternoon a quartet, Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, and Miss Margaret Hodze gave several numbers and Miss Marcell Hunter sang a solo. Mrs. Ben W. Ocott and Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. Richard Cartwright and Mrs. W. E. Kirk presided at the beautifully appointed tables. A bevy of the young girls, Miss Marjorie Kay, Harriet Griffith, Margaret Griffith, Helen Rose, Nellie Rowland, Edna Ackerman, and Dorothy Patterson wearing dainty garden frocks assisted in serving. A feature of the afternoon was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger. Mrs. Gerlinger is one of the regents at the university and was instrumental in starting the state drive for the new building. The committee in charge were Mrs. F. A. Elliott chairman, Mrs. Ben W. Ocott, Mrs. William Everett Aderholt, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. R. H. Downing, Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. Connell Dyer.

Salem friends of Miss Gladys Jane Carter, an Oregon newspaper woman and former society editor of The Statesman, will be interested to know that she has recently accepted the position as assistant director of shopping service at the White House, San Francisco, one of the largest and most exclusive department stores in the United States. Leaving the newspaper field, Miss Carter has been notably successful in general advertising, particularly in department store "copy." She recently resigned a position as advertising manager of a large San Francisco department store to accept her present desk.

Miss Carter recently returned to San Francisco after a two months sojourn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter in The Dalles.

The members of the Cherry City club will motor to Silver Creek Falls today enjoy a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Walker left Friday for Nye Beach where they have purchased a cottage and will make their home. They took with them Billy Dyer who will spend the summer months there.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Eyre and family motored to Portland Saturday for the week-end.

The women of the Eastern Star enjoyed an informal afternoon Tuesday when Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. Gertrude Page, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. W. W. Moore and Mrs. E. C. Miles were hostesses. A delightful program was given during the afternoon and at the close delicious refreshments were served.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. William P. Lord was a charming hostess when she honored Mrs. C. E. Murphy of Portland who is in Salem now, again choosing her beautiful lawn and gardens as the place to entertain her guests. At the table which was perfect in its appointments Dorothy Perkins roses and pale lavender and white Canterbury bells added their beauty to the already artistic surroundings. Mrs. George J. Pearce poured and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks cut the ices with Miss Ellen Thielson of Portland, Miss Dorothy Pearce, and Miss Elizabeth Lord serving the refreshments. Those bidden to this delightful affair numbered about 24 of Mrs. Murphy's intimate friends among whom were: Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. William Staiger, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. E. A. Miller, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Mrs. D. W. Mathews, Mrs. H. B. Thielson of Portland, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. A. Farrar, Miss Sophia Catlin, Miss Ellen Thielson, and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer motored to Newport Thursday and will be gone about a week.

Honoring Miss Ellen Thielson of Portland who when she lived here was always a favorite in Salem society, Mrs. Frank Spears was a when she entertained at dinner. Pastel shades of various flowers were artistically used in the rooms. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. H. B. Thielson and daughter, Miss Ellen of Portland are spending a few days at their farm.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Cooper and daughter, Miss Genevieve, and Miss Gladys Cartwright motored up the McKenzie to spend the week-end.

Miss Bertha Compton of a Walla is a guest at the H. V. Compton home on South Commercial street.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., and son Malcolm have gone up the McKenzie to spend the week-end.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Van Doren was the gracious hostess for the members of the Luncheon Bridge club at her attractive home. The table was placed on the terrace

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, laces, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything! Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washbowl, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.

and was beautiful with various summer blossoms artistically arranged on it. Guests of the club on this occasion were: Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Ben W. Ocott, Mrs. Percy A. Young of Albany, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Allan Bynon, Mrs. F. D. Thielson, Mrs. Amos Strong, Mrs. Robert McMurray of Albany, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, and Miss Isabelle Young of Albany.

A merry time was enjoyed Monday night when a picnic party sponsored by the Misses Freda and Esther Spitzbart motored to Spang's landing. After the delicious picnic supper the time was spent with music around the huge bonfire. Those invited to enjoy the hospitality of the hostesses were: Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Miss Teresa Fowle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Simmon, Leo Spitzbart, Fowle and Lyle Page.

Mrs. George Gerlinger of Dallas was a guest of Miss Mabel Withycombe Friday, and for her Miss Withycombe invited a few guests in for luncheon.

Tuesday night Mrs. O. T. Brandt had as their guests Dr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Skelly. Cards were the diversion of the evening at the close of which the hostess served a dainty lunch.

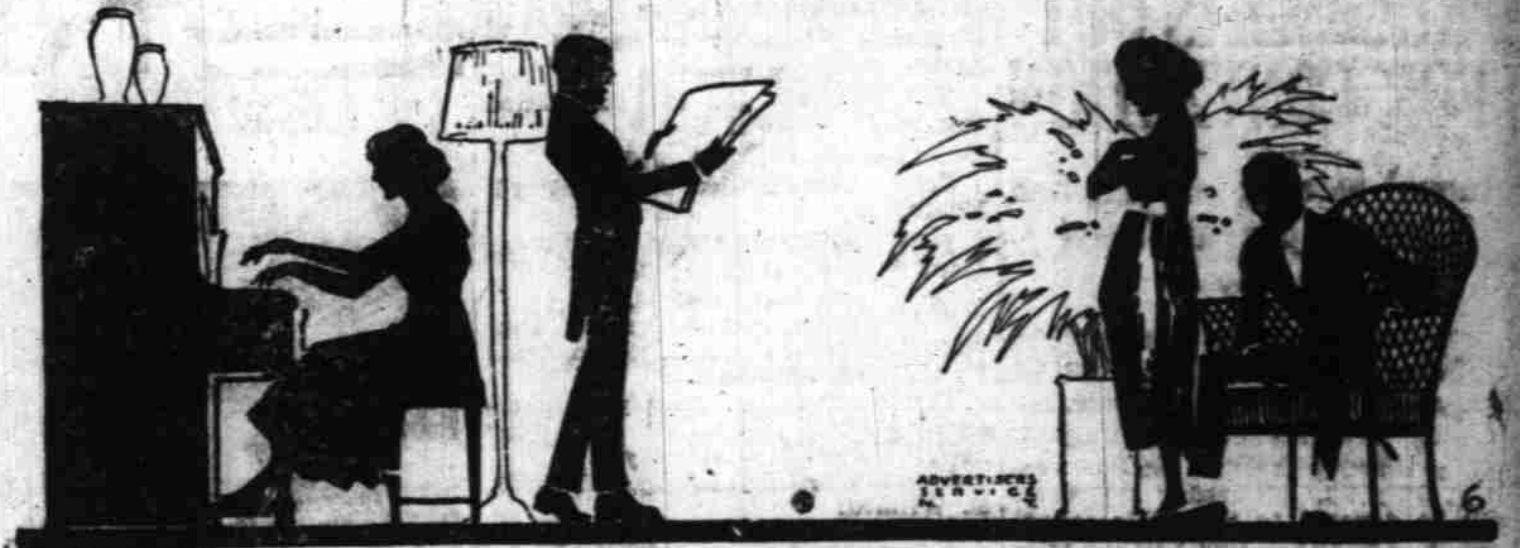

Miss Helen Pearce who is in the Young Women's Christian association in Portland is spending the week-end with her mother, Mrs. George Pearce and sister, Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Friends of Captain Lloyd Mott will be pleased to learn that he will arrive in Salem today for a short visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Mott before going with Mrs. Mott to Fort Worden where he will be stationed. He has been overseas for over a year serving in the medical corps in France and later with the army of occupation.

Wednesday afternoon the parents and friends of the first year pupils of Bertha Junk Darby gathered at her studio to listen to the following program:

Duet—The Busy Brook Marjorie Hewett; Mrs. Darby
May Pole Dance Bugbee
Evening Song Kohler
Ernestine Moisan
Story of the Mouse Lyons
Military March McIntyre
Lillian Lynam
Song of the Bugle Neidlinger
Gordon Bennett
Duet—At Sunset Kenneth Hewett; Mrs. Darby
Dreams Kearns
Surprise Virgil
Blanch Hackett
Curios Story Heller
Kenneth Hewett
Hunting Song Neidlinger
Gordon Bennett
Raindrops Kerns
Lillian Lynam

For the instruction of the class and their friends Mrs. Darby told of the childhood of Gottschald, the first American composer to gain recognition abroad, and of the struggle he

A Piano in Every Home

A piano means much for the family. There is a wonderfully unanimous testimony to the desirability of having a piano. We do not know any person who regrets having purchased a piano, we know that everybody's opinion that is worth having is favorable to the instrument. A home is brightened and improved by music, and is made a better place in which to live. From the oldest to the youngest, all are cheered and elevated by this ever-popular influence. Why should you be without a piano?

THE DIGNITY OF THE HOME CALLS FOR A PIANO. IF THE PIANO CORNER IN YOUR HOME IS STILL UNFILLED LET US SHOW YOU HOW WELL, HOW CHEAPLY AND UPON WHAT FAVORABLE TERMS WE CAN FILL IT.

OUR PHONOGRAPHS GAIN BY COMPARISON

We only ask you to compare the beauty of tone, elegance of cabinet finish, artistic lines and reproducing qualities of all the old reliable makes with other phonographs now on the market, we know that your verdict will be unanimous in favor of these instruments.

GEO. C. WILL

Salem's Music Dealer

had in breaking down the prejudice of the critics against home talent, also giving the poetic idea of one of his first compositions, "A March in the Night," which was played by one of her advanced pupils, Miss Irene Keefer, who also gave a Chopin number. Master Gordon Bennett, a pupil of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, gave much pleasure with his songs with characteristic movement. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Lucille Ross.

Miss Nellie Bruner and Miss Isabelle Miller were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Miss Miller, 335 North Summer street in honor of Mrs. William Mills was Lucy Horton. Pink Canterbury bells and Caroline Testout roses were used to carry out the pink effect and at the table pink place cards were used where the hostesses served a dainty lunch. Invited guests included Ruth Moorwood, Lillian Hunter, Ellen Anderson, Clara Zeller, Anna Alene, Marie Breitfuststein, Martha Swartz, Elzabore Pappoon, Nora Lynton, Grace Mollenbeck and Mrs. Winifred Denison.

Mrs. S. S. East entertained informally Tuesday afternoon at cards having guests for three tables and a few brought their fancy work. Card honors fell to Mrs. Walter Buchner. Purple Canterbury bells artistically arranged made the rooms very attractive. In the late afternoon Mrs. East served a dainty collation.

Mrs. S. S. East returned home Thursday from Portland where she went to meet her nephew, W. H. East, who arrived in Portland with the 148th artillery from France. He has gone to Camp Lewis and expects to arrive in Salem about the first of July.

A group of prominent maids formed a line party last Monday night to see the minstrel show. Those making up the party were: Misses Clara Breitenstein, Ila Spaulding, Olga Gray, Ethel Frazier, Vivien Hargrove and Marybelle Rinehart.

Miss Grace Breckenridge is spending the week-end in Portland.

Mrs. R. G. Eichelberger and her daughters, Edna and Ruth, left for Portland yesterday after visiting at the home of their sister and aunt, Mrs. G. W. Laflar.

Little Misses Helen and Mildred Roberts have gone to Mehama, for the rest of the summer months.

Miss Anna Mullen who has been in Stayton the past week has returned.

Thursday evening the congregation of the First Presbyterian church dispensed with prayer meeting and all went out to Brush college and participated with the members of that congregation in a picnic. Two long tables were placed in the yard and a big picnic supper was enjoyed. After the supper a short outdoor prayer meeting was held during which Miss Ada Miller sang. After the meeting all played games and had a jolly good time the remainder of the evening.

Thursday afternoon Miss Mabel Robertson was a delightful hostess when she entertained a group of prominent matrons and maids at a line party at the Oregon theater to see the "Red Lantern" that is showing there this week. This play was of particular interest because Miss Edith Wherry, who wrote it was a college friend and sorority sister of Miss Robertson. After the show the guests went to the Robertson home where the hostess served dainty refreshments. Those included at this time were: Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. William Burghart Jr., Mrs. Connell Dyer, Miss Ellen Thielson and Miss Elizabeth Lord.

Mrs. T. B. Kay returned home Friday night from Portland where she had been during the reunion of the Yamhill in people in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Boise motored up from their home in Portland Saturday and today will join the R. P. Boises and go to the Boise farm "Ellendale."

The beautiful gardens of the Dan J. Fry home on South High street made a delightful place for the members of the Priscilla club to entertain their families at their annual picnic which was given last Thursday night. A jolly evening was enjoyed and at the close a delicious picnic lunch was served.

As a final compliment to her brother, Dean, who left Tuesday to take up his work in New York city, Miss Teresa Fowle entertained informally with a supper party Sunday night. The latter part of the evening was devoted to music. Covers were laid for: Miss Freda Spitzbart, Esther Spitzbart, Ruby Wilson, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Miss Teresa Fowle, Lyle Page, Herman Vieska, Leo Spitzbart and Dean Fowle.

Mrs. Louise Covell and Miss Sara Ferguson of Pittsburgh were guests last Tuesday at the O. P. Hoff home.

Miss Margaret Laughton of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson coming up to assist Miss Mages in her recital Friday night. Miss Laughton is a popular flutist in Portland.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and their daughter, Muriel, will be pleased to learn that they have started from Somers, Prince Edward Island, Canada, to Oregon, planning to arrive home in about six weeks.

Mrs. Joseph Stewart of Lebanon is the house guest this week at the J. B. Broyles home.

The Reverend and Mrs. Charles Powell entertained the members of the choir of the St. Paul's Episcopal church at a delightful party on Monday night. The evening was spent with games and dancing and at the close light refreshments were served.

A Salem Product—"Theima" Individual Chocolates, 5c everywhere.

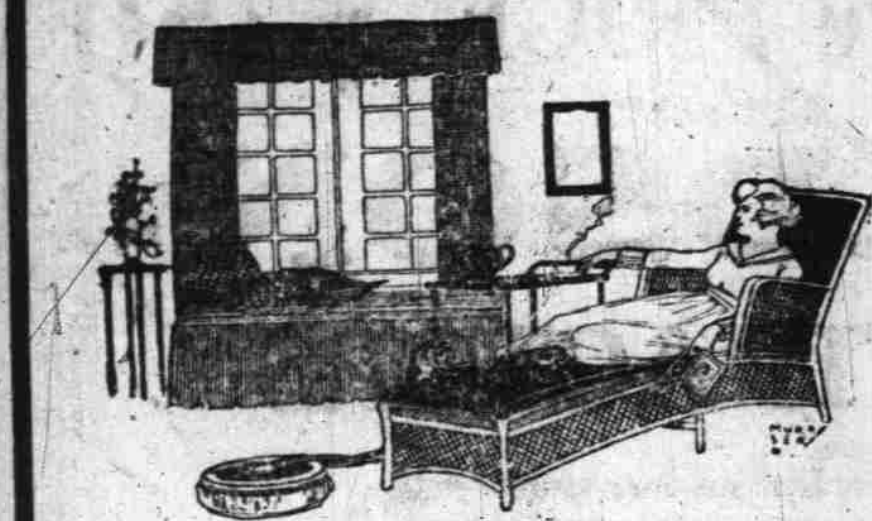

Read the Classified Ads.

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N.Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and do dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PERMILLA HULSTZER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N.Y.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WICKER PORCH Furniture

We have it in the most serviceable artistic designs. Comfortable, roomy and damp proof. It comes in either upholstered or plain wicker.

The complete outfit consisting of chairs, tables, rockers and swing can be bought very reasonable.

Spend Your Leisure Moments With a Victrola.

You Will Certainly Enjoy Its Entertainment

W. W. MOORE

YOU GET MORE FOR YOUR MONEY AT MOORE'S

EASY RIDING BUILT FOR SERVICE Best in the Long Run

Dayton Bicycle

Lloyd E.

387 Court St.