

Society

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

Mrs. Lloyd Mott left Thursday night for Fort Worden where she and Captain Mott will make their home, the latter being in the medical corps stationed there.

Mrs. H. George Meyers has returned to her home in San Francisco after being the guest of Mrs. Mark Skiff.

Miss Grace Bean of Portland is spending a few days at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Bean. Miss Bean came up Thursday night and will return tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Elva Meisner who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Brandt, have started to their home in East Cawson, Wis., going by way of San Francisco.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Stover had as their guest during the homecoming Lieutenant R. L. Rush from Camp Lewis, who was a former friend of theirs in Idaho. Before enlisting he was a law student at Harvard and a student in music in Boston, where he plans to return this autumn. Lieutenant Rush will sing in the quartette at the Central Congregational church this morning.

Miss Flora Case, city librarian, is spending her vacation at the Yachatz.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding have as their guests for a few weeks Mrs. Spaulding's mother and brother, Mrs. Nora Gard Miller and Milton M. Miller who has just returned from Germany where he was in the army of occupation. He returns with five bronze stars indicating he took part in as many large battles, enlisting with Co. K of Corvallis two years ago he went to France and was later transferred to the 2nd division which he was with when they turned the Germans back.

A group of prominent people motored to Tillamook Friday to spend the day. Among them were: Dr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Skelly, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Graber, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Anderson, and their daughter, Miss Dorette Anderson.

One of the pleasant picnic lunches on the Fourth was one for which Mrs. George J. Pearce and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Pearce were hostesses.

Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles, Miss Laura Grant and Miss Lela Davis motored to Portland where they spent the Fourth and the week end.

The many friends of Miss Jessie U. Cox are regretting that she will leave this week for Chicago where she will take a course in a governmental investigation work at the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy. After this course her work will perhaps take her along the Atlantic coast, but her many friends whom she has made during her residence in Salem while she was a teacher in the high school are hoping that she will be able to return to the Pacific coast in the near future. Miss Cox was one of the most popular teachers in the Salem high school and was highly thought of by all the students. She will visit in Montana and Iowa on her way there.

One of the pretty weddings of June took place last Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Highland Avenue Friends church when Miss Hazel Tucker and Perry Wells plighted their troth in the presence of 40 invited guests, with the Reverend Ida

J. Lee officiating at the ring ceremony.

The church was a bower of pink and white roses, lilies, and fern. The bride was lovely in a white silk net gown over satin and carried white birds roses. Miss Lucille Tucker who was her sister's bridesmaid, was attractive in a pretty pink frock and carried Cecil Brunne roses. Marvin Wells was his brother's best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Henry sang "O Promise Me" with Miss Gladys Scott presiding at the organ. She played the Mendelssohn wedding march. Miss Gertrude Tucker, another sister of the bride, acted as usher.

Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wells left for Portland where they will spend a few days after which they will make their home on their farm near Independence.

Mrs. Wells is the daughter of Mrs. S. E. Tucker and is one of the most popular girls in the younger set. She is a graduate of Salem high school where she took an active part in the student affairs being during her senior year, secretary of the associated student body. Both are very active in their church work and they take with them the best wishes of their host of friends.

Mrs. James Leitch and two children of Portland are guests at the W. A. Leitch home.

Mrs. Olive Hand, a teacher in the Salem high school, left Wednesday for Newport where she will spend the summer.

The F. E. Shafers have as their guest during this week Mrs. Bertie Shaffer of Newport.

Judge and Mrs. Charles A. Johns are spending this week end at Acadia motoring there Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smullen of Mt. Hood and their two children and Miss Bertha Fitzgerald of Kane, Pa., and her nephew, Lawrence Fitzgerald, arrived Wednesday and will spend the week at the B. E. Carrier home.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul Bennett of Portland are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son who made his advent Sunday. He is the first grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett of this city.

The many friends of Miss Kitty Moore will be glad to learn that she is now convalescing from her recent serious illness.

Miss Nellie Stowell is spending a few days with her parents at their home in Stayton. At present she is employed by the Botsford, Constantine and Tyler advertising agency in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krause of Portland motored to Salem last Thursday night and were guests at the Joseph Albert home for the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Simpson of Portland are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Mark Skiff coming up Thursday night. Mrs. Simpson will stay for a couple of weeks but her husband will return tonight.

Wednesday night the members of the Iliade club enjoyed one of their delightful little dancing parties. The affair was very informal and a large number of the members attended, many of them taking their supper at the club.

An informal dancing party was given the Spanish War veterans Wednesday night after the banquet. American flags were used profusely in decorating the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Litchfield and children left for their home yesterday after having spent several days visiting at the home of the former's father, George P. Litchfield.

Mrs. J. F. White left yesterday for Glendale called there by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Looney. She will be gone on indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley had as their guests for the Fourth Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beveridge and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fleming of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bodley of Portland were among others of the Spanish War veterans who were guests at the Hotel Marion during their encampment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Lundburg of Portland were in Salem during the Spanish War veterans encampment this week. While in Salem they were guests at the Hotel Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pratt of Portland were guests at the Marion during the Spanish War veterans encampment this week.

Among the prominent women from other cities who were at the Marion this week during the Spanish War veterans encampment here were Mrs. O. R. Thompson, Mrs. James McCarter, Mrs. Frank Emery, Mrs. T. A. Drews and Miss Minnie Wolf, all of Portland.

A pretty home wedding occurred Wednesday night, July 2 at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Carson on Fairview avenue when Miss Mary Ethel Davey and Claude Le Roy Carson were united in marriage. Dr. Edwin Sherwood of Kimball school of Theology officiated at the ceremony which was performed under a floral archway of fern and white roses. The same kind of sum-

BIG LAUGHING SHOW

TODAY MONDAY TUESDAY

DOUG FAIRBANKS

"THE KNICKERBOCKER BUCKAROO"
"JUST ONE LAUGH AFTER ANOTHER"

Vaudeville

THE SUPERLATIVE THREE MORE OF THE KIND WE LIKE TO GIVE OUR PATRONS

GENEVIEVE FISHER
MUSIC BY THE SCORE

SOME MORE LAUGHS
MACK SENNETT'S
"THE FOOLISH AGE"

THE OREGON

mer flowers were used in further decorating the house.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white organdie and carried white roses. Preceding the ceremony Miss Grace Sherwood sang "I Love You Truly."

Afterwards a delicious wedding lunch was served.

The young couple left for the future home near Liberty where the groom owns a ranch. Guests at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Sherwood, Miss Grace Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Carico, and their sons Hugh and James Carico.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton took their two charming little daughters, Marie and Jeanette to the country home near Newberg of the children's great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. West, and spent a few days last week, to help them celebrate their golden wedding.

Honoring the Spanish War veterans who were guests in Salem of this last week a banquet was given in the armory Wednesday night. On the tables around which about 167 were seated large baskets filled with red ramblers roses, ocean spray and blue canterbury bells were placed carrying out the patriotic colors. Dr.

L. W. Hyde was toastmaster of the evening while toasts were given by Mrs. Estella Weed, department president, Elmer Lundberg, Frank Tichenor of Portland and R. O. Kumrow, and A. L. Southwick of Salem. During the banquet Mrs. Sarah Boddy in behalf of the Portland auxiliary presented the Salem auxiliary with a huge basket of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whitney have as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans, Miss Mariah Wheeler, and Ben Lanning, and James Walker, all of Portland.

Miss Marie Evans, a former popular Salem girl but lately of Portland, is a guest over the week-end of Miss Grace Mollenkop.

Mr. and Mrs. E. West have as their guest for a few days their son, Harvey J. West, a musician of El Paso, Texas. He formerly made his home in this city but of late has been living in El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosequest have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Richardson of Portland.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding is in Portland this week called there last Monday by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. S. Reese. Her daughter, Miss Ila Spaulding motored down with her and returned Tuesday.

Miss Beth Briggs of Portland is a guest over the week-end of Miss Lena Cherrington. She attended Williamette university from which she graduated in June and was very popular in the college set.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knighton of Portland are spending the week-end with Mrs. Knighton's mother, Mrs. R. E. Warner at her home.

Good Prices Are Paid for Polk County Farms

DALLAS, Or., July 5.—(Special to The Statesman.)—During the past week two more county farms located near this city have changed hands. The land in both cases bringing good prices. The G. Messert 40 acre tract near the Guthrie school house about three miles west of Dallas was sold to H. M. Johnson for a cash consideration of $8000. Mr. Johnson also purchased the Weldon Black property consisting of 33 acres adjoining the above tract for $2100. Both pieces of property are ideal fruit land for being on the square is too precious to us to risk tarnishing it in the slightest degree. So if for any reason or no reason you are not satisfied with the Vulcanizing we do here you will do us the greatest favor to come back and let us make the wrong right.

Ajax Tire Supply Depot

OUR REPUTATION

NEW AND SECOND HAND TIRES
WE WELD FENDERS

Commercial Vulcanizing and Welding Shop

341 N. Commercial St.

STATESMAN CLASSIFIED ADS—ONE CENT A WORD

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 9th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

LADIES

When irregular or delayed use Triumpht Pills. Safe and always dependable. Not at all dangerous. Do not experiment with other save disappointment. Write for "Relief" and particulars, its free. Address: National Medical Institute, Milwaukee, Wis.

REAL BARGAINS IN MEN'S OXFORDS

They are just the thing to wear RIGHT NOW. Why not take advantage of These SPECIAL PRICES

	Today's Price	Our Regular Price	Closing Out Price
Stetson's Black Kid Oxford, Corndodger Last	$13.50	$11.50.....	$9.45
Stetson's Brown Kid Oxford, Straight Last	$14.50	$12.50.....	$9.95
(Only a few pairs left in this style)
Stetson's Brown Calf Oxford, English Last	$14.00	$12.00.....	$9.95
Brennan Brown Russia Calf, English Last	$10.50	$ 9.25.....	$8.65
Brennan Gun Metal Oxford, Combination Last	$ 8.50	$ 7.00.....	$6.45
Brown Side Calf Oxford, English Last	$ 8.50	$ 7.25.....	$6.45

All Stetson Shoes at Prices
Reduced Below Last Season's Prices

The Bootery
WHERE CASH IS KING

Work Shoes of All Kinds from
$2.65 to $8.00

FLY SWATTERS FREE—We have a few hundreds of swatters to give away to help banish the Flies.