TAking the lead on this week's social calendar is the high tea this evening for which Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Catharine Carson will be hostesses. The beautiful Japanese gardens at the Lord home will furnish a picturesque setting for the smart assemblage that will gather there, some of whom will be from Portland and the valley towns.

Miss Sally Bush was a lovely hostess last Wednesday afternoon, honoring several future belles and beaux of Salem, Miss Nancy Thielson, Henry Thielson, Robert Bishop, and Charles Kay Bishop. A picnic party it was and such a merry, jolly time they had playing numerous outdoor games and then later the daintiest lunch was served them in the gardens at the Bush home. Miss Bush was assisted by Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. H. B. Thielson, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. William Burghardt Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Lord. About thirty small guests enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Miss Bush.

Honoring Mrs. E. C. Mathenay, a former popular Salem matron who now lives in Los Angeles, Mrs. C. P. Bishop graciously entertained Tuesday afternoon. The guests spent the afternoon hours in the attractive gardens at the Bishop home on North Liberty street and after an enjoyable time the hostess served dainty refreshments. The guests bidden at this time all of whom were former acquaintances of the honoree, were Mrs. Charles A. Park, Mrs. D. P. Junk, Mrs. A. O. Condit, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Thomas S. Anderson, Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. L. G. Altman, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. John Maurer, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Mrs. J. Harlan, Mrs. Sarah E. Small, Miss Pearl Applegate and Miss Alzira Chandler.

One of the gayest social affairs of the season was on Tuesday night when a group of maids in the young set entertained the boys of the city. It was charmingly informal and was the nature of a dancing party at the O'Connell hall, with about 45 couples dancing until the midnight hour. In one corner which was artistically arranged punch was served. The guests were delighted with the courtship shown them and to the girls comes the honor of being the first throughout the 12 states that the band as toured, to entertain them between some of the dances.

Small sang two songs. Mrs. Ralph White and Mrs. William Babcock were patronesses.

The boys were in Salem in behalf of getting recruits and gave an excellent concert at the Oregon theater. Their numbers, led by Chief Bandmaster Thomas Kennedy who has been in the service 26 years, were excellent, the Hungarian Comedy, the Sextette from Lucia and the last, a jazz number were enjoyed immensely. Another feature of the program was the trombone quintet. Each member was chosen from the different stations on the coast and represent the best musical talent in the navy.

Delightful indeed was the party last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Entrees when their attractive daughter, Evelyn, entertained in honor of her eighth birthday. Lawn games were enjoyed by the little girls where a dainty lunch awaited them. The table was exceptionally artistic, centered with a huge bowl of Dorothy Perkins roses and with a shower of the same flower caught with pink crepe streamers falling from the chandelier, causing much pleasure to the guests was the circus parade of cookie animals which was formed around the centerpiece. Miss Louise Findley assisted Mrs. Entrees in the dining room. Sixteen girl friends of the hostess were honored.

Mrs. George H. Burnett dispensed hospitality to a few friends Thursday afternoon when she honored her house guest, Mrs. Edward Hirsch. A very delightful afternoon was passed and at the close the guests were served a dainty lunch. Those who shared Mrs. Burnett's invitation were Mrs. William Booth, Mrs. B. J. Miles and Miss Hamilton of Portland.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clark Nelson of Portland who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle, a group of Salem folk motored to the Illabea club Wednesday night and had a picnic supper. The evening hours were spent in the popular diversion of dancing.

The North Salem Women's club held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Schunke. A pleasant program was given, Miss Mabel Marcus delighting the members with a vocal solo, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," Cadman, and Miss Elizabeth Dyer beautifully gave the "Kamennou Ostrav" by Rubenstein. Election of officers and appointment of committees took place with the following new officers: President, Mrs. E. H. Tooth-acre, re-elected; vice president, Mrs. J. F. Hutchason; secretary, Mrs. Charles Gray; assistant secretary, Mrs. Merle Prunk; treasurer, Mrs. A. A. Graber; new committees for the coming year are: Civic, Mrs. Myra Shank, Mrs. Emil Roth, Mrs. Roy Shields; program, Mrs. F. L. Purvine, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. M. J. Hunt; magazine, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Merle Prunk; Mrs. Edward Schunke; membership, Mrs. Roy Shields, Mrs. M. J. Hunt, Mrs. Bull Roth; press reporter, Mrs. F. L. Purvine. The next meeting will be on August 13 at the home of Mrs. Roy Shields.

A very enjoyable affair given as a courtesy to Mrs. Edward Hirsch, was the musical evening Friday spent at the home of Judge and Mrs. George Burnett when the invited quartet of the Apollo club, Dan Lansenberg, Frank DeWitt, Claude H. Stevenson, and Lyman McDonald sang for them. After a delightful time the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben V. West was the scene of a party affair this week when some of the relatives and a few friends of their daughter, Mrs. Lloyd McIntyre, and Mabel West gave her a miscellaneous shower. Black-eyed Susans and wild blue bell were artistically combined in baskets daintily arranged in the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre were guests of their parents a few days this week, the first since their wedding in Vancouver last month.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Miss Kantner, and Miss Constance Kantner will leave the latter part of this week to spend the summer at Lake Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Webb of Portland accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. A. W. Nelson, and her son, Jack, are guests over the week end at the C. B. Webb home.

Miss Janet Plimpton and Sherman Plimpton have gone to Siltecos lake where they will spend the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Campbell. Mrs. Plimpton will join them later in the season.

On Wednesday evening at the Highland Friends church the piano pupils of Miss Isola M. Smith gave their first public recital. For the short time the pupils have been studying they each played their selection well and did credit to their teacher. At the close of each number little Isola Carlene Scott handed the player a bouquet of basket of flowers brought by some friend present.

Miss Grace Sherwood, a late graduate of Willamette, pleased the audience with three beautiful solos, rendering them in her sweet charming manner.

The church was beautifully decorated with large baskets of Dorothy Perkins roses and harmonizing draperies.

Miss Smith has been teaching for three years and received her training from Miss Elma Weller.

The announcement by the Elks of another one of their popular dances at the armory for Wednesday evening is causing much delight to the Salem people who dance. Whenever the Elks are hosts at any affair it is always looked forward to with keen pleasure for they always stand for the best there is in entertainment and are most generous and hospitable hosts.

Fred W. Wiggins and C. J. Atwood of Toppish, Wash., were in Salem visiting old friends for a few days this week, coming up from Portland where they attended the annual Nurserymen's association convention.

The members of the Epworth League at the Methodist church enjoyed a delightful get-together lawn party Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley. Games, music and general singing filled the time until at a late hour Mrs. Findley, assisted by her daughter, Miss Mary Findley, served light refreshments. About fifty young people of the church were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Riggs who are touring California are expected to arrive home some time during the week.

Karl Beck left yesterday for Yellowstone National park for his vacation. He will be joined in Baker by some college friends who live in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Buselle who have recently returned from California are comfortably domiciled in their new home at 757 Center street and are now at home to their many friends. Friday afternoon Mrs. Buselle invited a very few friends in to tea.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Liening and two daughters will start Monday in their car for North Dakota where they will visit the former's aged mother living there. They will go by Spokane and visit two days with Mrs. Liening's sister. Before returning they will spend some time in South Dakota with relatives also.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Miss Ava Miller motored to Canby and are spending the week end with Mrs. Spaulding's and Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Nora G. Miller.

Spongs Landing was the place chosen by a group of Salem people for a picnic Thursday evening. A huge bonfire was built and a delicious picnic supper was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lamport, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keyes, Miss Ava Miller, Miss Beatrice Miller, and Edgar Hazard.

Mrs. E. L. McCoy and Mrs. A. Kleine returned from British Columbia and Seattle where they had been visiting friends. They were gone a month.

Mrs. Charles Beck and Mrs. Geo. Krause of Aurora are the week end guests of Salem friends.

The members of the missionary society of the First Congregational church were most delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at the beautiful country home of Mrs. R. B. Duncan. Mrs. W. C. Kantner and her daughter, Miss Constance Kantner, gave a very enjoyable program and at the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abrams, served a delicious repast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett were in Portland this week where they attended the Nurserymen's convention.

Blue delphinium, wine snapdragons and marigold combined added their charm to the attractiveness of the tea at the William A. Marshall home yesterday afternoon when Miss Marie Marshall and Vivian Hargrove were hostesses to a group of their friends. At the tea table which was perfect in its appointments Miss Grace Holt and Miss Ethel Frazier poured. Invited guests were Mrs. Roy Wesley Burton, Mrs. William Walton, Miss H. Spaulding, Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Vivian Hopson, Miss Clare Breitenstein, Miss Ethel Frazier, Miss Olga Gray, Miss Ruth Schultz, Miss Edna Howd, Miss Veda Howd, Miss Irene Curtis, Miss Hester Graham, Miss Berle Holt, Miss Reatha Hughes, Miss Dorothy Donaldson, Miss Grace Holt and Miss Nanna Putnam.

Mrs. George Fox of Portland is the guest for a few days of her sister Mrs. M. B. Sherley on Fourteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Meyers have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dick of Portland and their daughter Pauline. The host of friends who knew the Dicks during their former residence here are welcoming them here again.

Former residents of Michigan met last night at the fair grounds and organized the Michigan society. About 50 persons were there and enjoyed a picnic supper. Another picnic was arranged for July 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hathaway, nee Dorris Clarke, who have recently come to Salem to make their home are charming acquisitions to Salem society. Both were prominent Oregon Agricultural students and were married in June at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hathaway in Washington.

Mrs. Anna Reed left this week for Portland, after being a guest at the O. P. Hoff home. From there she will go by the Canadian route to Detroit, Mich., where she will visit for the remainder of the summer with relatives.

Miss Jessie Taylor, a former popular Salem high school girl is a guest of friends in Salem this week-end. Miss Taylor was in school in Minneapolis last winter and is spending the summer in Portland. This autumn she will enter Berkeley.

The women of the South Circle of the First Christian church were entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Otto Hedrick at her lovely home, 1705 South Commercial street. The afternoon was spent in sewing and chatting after the interesting business meeting. The next meeting will be on August 13, with Mrs. Charles Davis of 210 Owens street. Those who spent the afternoon in this way were: Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mrs. Clifford Elgin, Mrs. G. T. Robinson, Mrs. Wilma Pratt, Mrs. F. T. Smith, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Ruth Hatch, Mrs. Martin Vlesko, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. William Busick, Mrs. John Humphreys, Miss Robert Morton, Miss A. Aline and Mrs. Otto Hedrick.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd have just returned from an eastern trip, where they visited in Michigan with relatives of Mrs. Byrd, going from there to New York where they were the guests of Miss Winifred Byrd. While there they attended one of the concerts given at the Lewisohn stadium on July 2, when Miss Winifred Byrd gave a piano solo with the stadium symphony orchestra accompanying her. Her number, "Hungarian Fantasia," Liszt, captivated her audience and she was given eight encores. Concerts are given in this stadium every evening in June and it is considered quite an honor to be asked to appear in them.

Miss Byrd's winter tour will be much larger this winter and there is a possibility of her coming as far west as Seattle. She will appear four times in the Aeolian hall. At present she is visiting friends in New Jersey and is enjoying excellent health though she has been working very hard. Dr. and Mrs. Byrd came home over the southern route.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Littler and their son Robert will leave today for Toledo and Newport where they will spend their vacation, planning to be gone two weeks.

Mrs. Roy Burton, her son Alvon and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Ackerman, will leave today for Hood River where they will visit relatives for a week.

Miss Hallie Hines is spending the week end in Portland as the guest of Miss Can, a nurse in the Good Samaritan hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis and their daughter, Catherine and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vibbert will motor today to Newport where they will spend their vacation. They plan to be gone two weeks.

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, lazes, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything!

Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washbowl, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.
