

Returning Hero of Second Marne Who Refused to Pose Unless Doughboys, "Who Went Through Hell" With Him, Were in Photograph

This photograph is the result of the foregoing, spoken by Lieutenant-General Hunter Liggett, "Hero of the Second Marne." It was taken on his arrival in New York after as many as possible of the 2000 or more returning doughboys on board the Aquitania had crowded about the general.

MORE CRUELITIES LAID TO TURKS

Greek Population Decimated by Tortures in Name of Sanitation

NEW YORK, July 30.—Charges that the Turkish officials decimated the Greek population along the Black Sea coast, 250,000 men, women and children living between Sinope and Ordu, without shedding any blood but by "parboiling" the victims in Turkish baths and turning them half clad out to die of pneumonia or other ills in the snow of an Anatolian winter, are made in a letter from George E. White, representative of the American committee for relief in the Near East, made public here today.

Sinope was the birthplace of the philosopher Diogenes, Dr. White recalls, and Ordu is just beyond Cape Jason which is still preserved in the memory of the Argonauts and the Golden Fleece. The letter, written to Professor J. P. Xenides, secretary of the Greek relief committee here, described the new method of ridding the land of its inhabitants which, it said, was somewhat different from that employed by the Turks against the Armenians.

Tortures Described
The worst of the crimes, laid to the Turks according to Dr. White, were committed in the winters of 1916 and 1917 when orders were issued for the deportation of the Greeks along the Black Sea coast. The people, he wrote, were crowded into the steam rooms of the baths in Chorum under the pretense of "sanitary regulations" and after being tortured for hours were turned out of doors into snow almost knee-deep, without lodging or food. Their arms which had been taken from them for fumigation, were lost, ruined or stolen. Most of the victims, ill clad and shivering, contracted tuberculosis and other pulmonary diseases and "died in swarms" on the way to exile, the letter declared.

Dr. White said that in the province of Bafra, where there were more than 29,000 Greek village Greeks, now less than 13,000 survive and every Greek settlement has been burned. The number of orphans, including some Armenian and Turkish children in the entire district it was said, aggregated 60,000. Since the armistice, the doctor wrote, many of the deportees have been returning to their ruined homes.

How Nuxated Iron Helped Put Me In Such Superb Condition As To Enable Me To Whip Jess Willard And Win The World's Championship

JACK DEMPSEY "TIGER OF THE RING" Tells a Secret of His Training—Recommends Nuxated Iron To Every Man and Woman Who Wants To Build Greater Strength, Energy and Power

"Nuxated Iron put added power behind my punch and helped me to accomplish what I did at Toledo."
JACK DEMPSEY

William Harrison ("Jack") Dempsey—

Although like an untamed tiger in the ring, the intensely human side of the new World's Champion is clearly shown by a remark he is quoted as making just before the big fight in which he said: "I have telegraphed my Mother and I am not going to disappoint her. I'm going to win that title if for no other reason than because I've promised her I would." Dempsey describes here the part Nuxated Iron played in helping him to keep his promise to win the title.

Today recognized as the physical superior to any living man—the Superman of the Age—Jack Dempsey, Heavyweight Champion of the world, explains below the part Nuxated Iron played in helping to prepare him for the supreme test of his career. In his decisive, smashing victory over the mighty Willard who had never before been knocked from his feet, Dempsey displayed a dynamic overwhelming strength and power never before known in the history of the ring. That he took Nuxated Iron as a part of his training is convincing evidence of the importance Dempsey attached to keeping his blood rich in strength-giving iron, and the high regard in which he holds Nuxated Iron as a master strength and blood builder.

In a statement made at his training quarters in Toledo, the scene of the big battle, Jack Dempsey said: "After commencing the use of Nuxated Iron during my training for the big fight with Jess Willard, I soon noticed that I could stand harder strains with less fatigue than before, and I realized that I had found a tonic and blood builder which played an important part in getting me into condition. For several months I had relied solely upon strength-building foods and outdoor exercise to keep my blood rich in red corpuscles, but with the World's Championship at stake, I felt that I should leave nothing undone that might help me to win. I was advised of the great value of Nuxated Iron for building up the blood, strengthening the nerves and aiding in keeping the body fit, and I am firmly convinced that its use has helped to wonderfully increase my stamina and endurance. Nuxated Iron put added power behind my punch and helped me to accomplish what I did at Toledo. From the results in my own case where the possession of super endurance is necessary, I feel that I am in a position to strongly recommend Nuxated Iron to every man and woman who wants to build greater strength, energy and power."

According to reports Dempsey placed himself unreservedly in the hands of expert trainers and competent physicians and heeded their advice. In my opinion whoever made the suggestion that Nuxated Iron should play a part in getting Dempsey into condition is to be commended for his foresight. No man without plenty of rich, red blood filled with health-giving and strength building iron could withstand the terrific onslaughts of a giant like Willard. It should occur to every thinking person that if a man as physically fit as Dempsey should consider it advisable to take Nuxated Iron, how much more important it is for the average man or woman to see that there is no lack of iron in the blood. There is today a surprising number of persons who suffer from iron deficiency. Many a capable man or woman falls just short of winning because they don't back up their mentality with the physical strength and energy which comes from having plenty of iron in the blood. Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and energy which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. To help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Dr. John J. Van Horne, formerly Medical Inspector and Clinical Physician on the Board of Health of the City of New York, says: "Strength and vitality of body and mind are derived from the blood and the blood in turn derives its strength from the food we eat and the oxygen contained in the air we breathe. But unless the blood is rich in iron to increase its oxygen power, it cannot develop living tissue muscle and brain or keep active the vital forces. Strong, healthy men and women with plenty of iron in their blood are the ones who go through life with a smile, self-reliant and fearless and their dynamic power and energy make them virtually masters of their own destinies. It is surprising how many people who do not get along in life are in reality suffering from iron deficiency and do not know it. To supply this lack of iron and help build stronger, healthier men and women, better able physically to meet the problems of everyday life, I believe that physicians should, at every opportunity, prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron which has been used by Jack Dempsey and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, and does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.
