

SIXTY-NINTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 10, 1919.

Society

By RUTH LENORE FISHER.

THE luncheon this evening for the National Editorial association, Salem's guests for a short time tonight will be quite the largest affair of the week. There will be about 350 in the party and the beautiful state grounds will afford the setting for the assembly. The Commercial club will act as host and will be assisted by Mrs. Zade Riggs and a group of Women's club members and a bevy of maids will serve. Governor Olcott will give a short address and after the lunch the guests will be taken for a ride over the city. Late in the evening they will leave with Governor and

Mrs. Olcott for Medford and then to Crater Lake. Social diversions this week were mostly informal compliments to visitors in Salem who have been quite numerous this week. The theater party Wednesday night for Miss Helen Jordan, house guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers, by Miss Luella Patton and Miss Ethel Rupert was quite delightful. The informal reception Friday night at the Commercial club for the 12 aviators was quite smart. Farewell parties have been showered upon Mrs. J. S. Austin and her daughters, Miss Florence and Harriett, this week.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Prince and Clifton Smith was also an event for Wednesday. Though only relatives and a very few intimate friends were bidden it was a very pretty affair.

Miss Ruth Johns arrived Friday night from a most enjoyable sojourn in California where she visited with her brother, Claude Johns, in Berkeley. She also visited in Oakland and San Francisco and was extensively entertained by her friends. Miss Johns though she had a very nice time is glad to be in Salem again which she says looks like a "green paradise" after the dryness of all California's fields and gardens.

Mrs. John William Drager and her talented daughter, Miss Frances Drager, of Seattle are guests in Salem for a short sojourn this week. Both are very prominent in the northern city both socially and musically as Miss Frances is quite an exceptional violinist for her years.

As a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Smith, nee Hazel Prince, who left Thursday night for their future

Miss Mattie Beatty.

MRS. CHARLES GRAY

The presence of Mrs. Charles Gray in the city again is causing much delight to her host of friends here. Mrs. Gray has just finished her work at Camp Lewis with the Red Cross Home Service, where she was for over a year. The work in that department is particularly over, so Mrs. Gray could leave. At present she is a house guest of Miss B. Stoughton at the Moody home. During her sojourn she will be showered with many courtesies by her many friends.

home in Miami, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, parents of the groom, invited a number of the relatives of the young couple to dinner that night. Pink and white sweet peas centered the table laden with delicious delicacies and around it were seated: Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Prince, Frank Prince, Kenneth Prince, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Scott, Arline Scott, Miss Isola Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Ross, Milo Ross, Doris Ross and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, the hosts.

Mrs. J. B. Littler graciously opened her home Wednesday afternoon the Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church. A most enjoyable meeting was held this time and a large number of the members were present. Mrs. A. A. Underhill had charge of the meeting and Mrs. C. A. Clark gave a very nice devotional service. During the meeting an invitation was extended to Mrs. H. C. Jennings, wife of the president of the Methodist Publishing company in Chicago, who with her husband is now touring California to be present at the meeting next Wednesday at the home of Mrs.

M. C. Findley. Board managers for the Old People's home were nominated at this time also. They are: Mrs. M. B. Paroungian, Mrs. Henry J. Talbot, Mrs. M. Seeley, Mrs. W. T. Rhodon and Mrs. G. Settlemeir of Woodburn. The lesson was a study of the Deaconesses' hospitals in the United States and twelve women spoke on them.

Delegates for the Women's Home Missionary conference which will be held in Oregon City September 2 and 3 were appointed as follows: Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. M. B. Paroungian, Mrs. M. Seeley, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. C. C. Kuyve, Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. J. B. Littler, Mrs. O. J. Purdy, Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Mrs. B. Carrier, Mrs. U. G. Boyer and Mrs. W. T. Rigdon.

A merry group of popular maids canoed up the river last night to a delightful spot along the bank and camped for the night, canoeing back early this morning. In the party were Miss Marybelle Ringhart, Miss Nana Putman, Miss Ruth Schultz, and Miss Ethel Frazier.

Miss Marjorie Kay will leave next week for Denver, Colo., where she goes as the delegate to the national Gamma Phi Beta convention from the Nu chapter at the University of Oregon. She will leave August 18 for Portland where she will be with Miss Beatrice Locke of Portland, the alumnae delegate, Miss Eva Miller of Tillamook who goes from the chapter at Oregon Agricultural college, guests of honor at a large tea given by the Gamma Phi Betas. The two girls from the University of Oregon chapter will meet them in Portland and together they will go to Denver where the convention will be held beginning August 22 in Estee park.

Miss Catherine Carson will leave today for Seattle where she will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugh McCammon of that city. Miss Carson plans to be in the northern city three weeks.

Mrs. E. A. Miller, assisted by Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, hospitably entertained Wednesday afternoon for Miss Margaret King, of Prosser, Wash., who is visiting in Salem. Miss King is a former Salem young woman.

The afternoon was spent on the spacious lawn at the Miller home and games and music were the diversions of the hours. The guests were Miss King, Miss Elizabeth Frazier, Miss Alma Johnson, Miss Hazel Arnold, Miss Marie Arnold, Miss Eloise Wright, Miss Elinor Wright, Miss Anna McIntyre, Miss Margaret Wildridge, Miss Fern Mitchell, Miss Henrietta Bishop and Miss Amy McIntyre.

Miss Elizabeth Lord arrived home yesterday after a lengthy sojourn in Seaside where she was the house guest of Mrs. J. A. Murphy of Portland who is summing there in her cottage, and at Gearhart, where she was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Eldridge for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores arrived home yesterday from Astoria where they were visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Miss Ava Miller are spending the week-end in Canby with Mrs. Spaulding's and Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Nora Guard Miller.

Sergeant Frank McGee of the air patrol service left Friday night for a sojourn in Medford.

Mrs. A. E. Stockton and Miss Zoo Stockton are spending a few days at Seaside.

Miss Frances Gellatly of the state board of control is enjoying a visit with her cousin, Miss Myrtle Neal, who has arrived from Madison, Wis. Miss Neal is a teacher in the Madison school. She will spend the summer visiting relatives in Oregon.

Captain John Elliott arrived Friday night from Camp Lewis where he received his discharge from the service and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Street who live on the Jefferson road are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son born Saturday morning.

Miss Vern De Witte and Fred Gerber motored up from Portland yesterday and are spending the week-end at the home of Miss De Witte's mother, Mrs. E. D. De Witte.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Darby arrived last night from their home in Glendale and will be guests of their mother, Mrs. W. H. Darby, and their brother, Dr. Wilson Darby for a fortnight.

One of the prettiest weddings recently was that of Miss Hazel Mae Prince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Prince, and Clifton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, which occurred at the C. L. Prince home Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. The home was transformed into a bower of summer blossoms, with pink sweet peas, snapdragons and baby breath predominating. In the dining room a beautiful altar of sweet peas, snapdragons and clouds of maline was improvised and before this the Rev. I. G. Lee of the Friends church read the services. Preceding the ceremony Miss Grace Sherwood sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Isola Smith who also presided at the piano and played softly thru the services the Mendelssohn wedding march. After the ceremony Miss Sherwood sang "O Promise Me" The bride was lovely in a gown of white georgette over white satin and was elaborated with pearls. Her flowers were a shower of white bride's roses and sweet peas. Little Doris Rosa daintily gowned in a white frock carried the ring in a huge rosebud.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding lunch was served and in this the pink was most artistically used also. Mrs. Smith chose for her going away a smart navy blue tailcoat and a large black hat. Just before leaving she gave her bridal bouquet to her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left Thursday night for Miami, Ariz., where they will reside. The bride is a popular member of the younger set and is a charming young woman. She attended the Salem high school and for several years has been employed in the Salem Woolworth company store where she was assistant manager. The groom is a mining engineer graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and resumes his former position as analytical chemist in the copper smelter at Miami, Ariz. He has recently returned from the service.

Among the many beautiful gifts was a very nice one from the groom's father, which he himself made, a bracelet of red, white and blue ribbon made into ten tiny pockets each enclosing a five-dollar piece. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left late Thursday night for their new home. About 50 relatives and intimate friends were bidden to the wedding.

Miss Ila Spaulding, Mrs. Paul Houser, Miss Rose Heine, and Roy Mills motored in the Mills car to Newport Thursday. Mrs. Hauser will be a guest for a week of Mrs. Mills, who is spending the summer in the Mills cottage, and Miss Spaulding and Miss Heine will spend a week with Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, who is summing there in the Spaulding summer home. Roy Mills will spend the week end with his family and return early in the week.

A merry picnic party motored to Lyons up the Nehalem. Thursday night and spent the evening. Those who made up the party were Mrs. F. E. Wiggins and her daughter Miss Mildred, Wiggins of Toppenish, Mr. and Mrs. John Alberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. ark and Paul Wallace.
