Christie Files Answer— An answer has been filed in the case of L. D. Roberts vs. John Christie, in which Christie alleges that he was the foreman for J. B. Christie who had a contract to deliver at a landing near Champeog 200 plums logs. He entered into a contract with Roberts, the answer alleges, to deliver the logs at a place where they could be loaded upon motor trucks and for the work was to pay $1 an hour. In accord with his contract J. B. Christie had employed a crew of men and a motor truck to dispose of the logs as fast as fast as Roberts brought them from the woods. After working 34 hours he left his work, it is alleged, and did not return until the night of July 12 when he appeared at midnight and fraudulently asserted that he was suffering from poison oak and could not finish his work. By his failure to complete the work Christie asserts that he had been damaged to the amount of $45. He also sets forth that he had paid a bill of $6.25 for Roberts for blacksmithing work he had done as he asks damages in the sum of $45 and dismissal of the case.

THE IDEAL WOMAN The great Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful, featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation—that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backaches, sleeplessness and "the blues." The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years has been restoring women to health and strength.

ANDERSON WILL APPEAR IN RECITAL J. A. Anderson, Ph. B., very much fired lawn-man of the State Institution for the Feeble-Minded, will appear in a recital at the Grand Opera house, Thursday evening, August 14, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Anderson will read selections from his own poetic works and render a prose narrative entitled "The Mysteries of the Feeble-Minded. All men and women who believe in fair play and the proper protection of the wards of the state are invited to be present. Admission free.

Sale of Motor Fuel in State is on Increase The statement of the Standard Oil company of California of sales of motor vehicle fuel in Oregon during the month of July, 1919, shows a total of 2,654,864 gallons of gasoline and 42,633 gallons of distillate, on which the tax of 1 cent per gallon on gasoline and one-half cent per gallon on distillate amounts to $28,761.80.

This is an increase of substantially $2,000 over the amount paid covering the sales during the month of June, 1919, when the aggregate paid into the state treasury on account of sales of motor vehicle fuel during that month was $26,789.12.
