OBITUARY

Sarah Jane Lemmon, daughter of John and Jane Crocker Lemmon, was born in Sangamoatown, Illinois, September 26, 1828, and later came to St. Joseph, Mo., where she was married to Benjamia Walden April 16, 1845. They started across the plains to O:egon May 3, 18:5, and on reaching The Dalles Mr. and Mrs. Walden, with her brother, Lemuel Lemmon, and some others, took their stock of horses and cattle across the Cascade mountains south of Mt. Hood, and after 19 days of toil and suffering finally reached Oregon City with out loss of life.

They spent the winter in Oregon City and in 1846 settled on French Prairie near the present town of Brooks. One year later they filed a government donation claim on land the little wers of Macieny Oregon, where their children were bo:n and raised. The house and improvements remain almost intact and are familiar land mark to tourists in hat part of the state.

In 1875 they sold that home and located near Weston, Umatilla county. Oregon, where Mr. Walden was buried in November, 1886.

On October 8, 1394, she was married to Dr. R. Cummins of Touchet, Wast. His death occurred Decomiber *, 1912, and since that time she has resided with her children until 1915 when Mrs. Cummins went to Chetser, Montana, with her daughter Mrs. Mary Bassett, where she died August 11, 1919.

In her 84th year Mrs. Cummins prepared her autobiography and the book has been widely read throughout the northwest.

She is survived by two sons and wo daughters. Joha E. Walden of Weston, Oregon, Nathan B. Walden of California, Dr. Martha J. Alien of La Grande, Oregon, and Mrs. Mary Bassett of Chetser, Mont., also 21 grandchildren and 16 great grandays Doctor Connor formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo; the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.
