75 Year Old Rheumatic

Throws Away His Crutches

"I am now 75 years of age, and for a number of years have suffered with rheumatism, eczema and a severe itching. I was compelled to walk on crutches. I obtained no relief until I began to take Number 40 For The Blood. Have taken eight bottles and my rheumatism and the itching eczema is all gone. On Christmas day I laid away my crutches and get around pretty well without them. You have my permission to use this letter to advertise Number 40, as I feel that I have received great benefit and will continue the treatment, believing I will receive more, and I wish to recommend it to other like sufferers to do as I have done and try Number 40 and get relief. With great pleasure I subscribe myself. Yours very truly, Isaac Ludwig, Delphos, Ohio, March 17, 1917." Number 40 is demanded in gouty conditions, malnutrition, poisoning, auto-toxication, constipation, rheumatism, rheumatoid and catarrh, liver complaint and all diseases arising from impure blood. Made by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., 40 years a druggist. Sold by Perry's drug store.

state fair board, is here from Roseburg for fair week.

J. M. Devers, assistant attorney general, has returned from The Dalles, Arlington and Heppner where he went on business for the state highway department.

C. B. McCulloch, bridge engineer in the state highway department, has returned from eastern Oregon.

BABY TESTS

W. H. Byrd, an experienced nurse.

Four Salem women will assist in the registration. They are Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. E. C. Patton and Mrs. E. F. Carlton. Four nurses will do the measuring and weighing. Three of them are Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Ruth Perlich and Mrs. Viola Frizier, and the fourth has not yet been selected. Two dentists will contribute their services, but these have not yet been announced definitely.

Mrs. Flegel in Charge.

Mrs. A. F. Flegel of Portland, chairman of the bureau committee of the Oregon Congress of Mothers, will be in Salem Thursday and Friday to take charge of the work. Mrs. Fred J. Meindl of Portland, chairman of fair work, is making the arrangements.

The testing will take place in the women's rest room. A charge of 25 cents will be made for the complete test.

BIGGEST STATE FAIR WILL OPEN TOMORROW

immense machinery exhibit. Twenty tractors are entered, and each day demonstrators in plowing, harrowing, seeding and rolling will be given. Every bit of space in the old machinery pavilion has been appropriated by the automobile show and there will be colossal display of industrial exhibits.

Horse Show Leading Attraction
For lovers of horses, the horse show, which will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings will be the leading attraction. Horses have been entered from California, Washington, Oregon and British Columbia, and it will be the greatest display of horse-flesh ever shown in the northwest. The Portland Hunt club will take a leading part in the show. It is expected that records for high jumping will be shattered.

"The exhibits of the war, and naval departments will be other interesting and attractive features of this year's fair. Trophies captured on European battlefields by American soldiers, and the implements of war with which they halted the German onslaught will part of the exhibition of war department. Models of fighting ships showing the application of camouflage will be shown for the first time in the navy department's exhibit."

Soldiers Free Monday
The new coliseum will be dedicated on Monday evening, and special services will be held in conjunction with the dedicatory exercises for the late Governor Withycombe, and the soldiers who helped win the war. During his lifetime the late Governor Withycombe probably did more for the agricultural and livestock industries than any other man in the state, and it was at the suggestion of Governor Olcott that Monday, the opening day of the fair was set apart in his honor. Soldiers in uniform will be admitted free to the grounds on Monday.

The services will be held at 8 o'clock, and they will be of patriotic character. Governor Ben W. Olcott, Wallace McCamant and Judge George A. Stapleton, both of Portland; Chester Moores, private secretary of the late Governor Withycombe; P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, and W. J. Kerr, president of Oregon Agricultural college, will deliver addresses. There will be patriotic musical selections between the addresses.

Tuesday, the day set apart for the women's organizations and dairymen of the state, will be observed by musical programs arranged by organizations representing each, and Wednesday Salem population will pay homage to the fair. Portland people and the Elks will hold away Thursday, and Friday the people of the Willamette valley and the good roads enthusiasts will hold forth. Saturday, the closing day, will be celebrated by the manufacturers, and the grangers of the state.

Horses Known Nation Over
An excellent racing program has been prepared for the week. Probably the feature of the program will be the 2:08 pace for which there is a purse of $2000. It is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, and the fast horses will participate in the event are: Valentine, Jr., Daisy D. Little Bernice, Mack Fitzsimmons, and Tillamook Maid. Other fast horses that will race during the week are Dr. Dyre, Lou Hal, May Day Hall, Great Ella, Surety, Bonkin, James Oliver, Lady Tango, Vest Vernon, and Butt Hale.

There will be running races Monday afternoon, and Saturday afternoon will occur the automobile races. It is expected that records will be broken in the free-for-all 25-mile race.

Besides Tomasi's famous Italian band of New York, which will be the official band this year, music will be furnished by the Elks, Shriners and Multnomah Guard bands.

Every evening with the exception of Monday and Thursday evenings concerts will be given in the agricultural pavilion by Tomasi's band, and between selections there will be high class vaudeville.

HOP YIELD QUARTER SHORT OF ESTIMATES

is figured the crop for the entire valley will fall 25 per cent below previous estimates. However, the high market price, now ranging above 60 cents a pound, will fill the pockets of growers with a lot of money.

Speaking of yields, no bigger crop has yet been reported for this season than the tonnage of hops gathered from the large acreage in South Bottom owned and operated by A. M. and H. Jerman. The crop will average a little less than one ton of dried hops for each of the 85 acres covered with vines.

This output is considered rather remarkable in view of the long drought. The secret of the success of the Jerman Brothers in producing this crop is found in the fertile, loamy soil in which the plants are rooted and also their practical knowledge of just how to grow hops.

Cultivation was started early in the spring and kept up until nearly August. A blanket of dust, six inches deep, was stirred at intervals, breaking the capillary action and preventing the escape of moisture.

Jerman Brothers use the latest improved machinery in their work. They believe where intelligent cultivation is practical irrigation is unnecessary as enough moisture is stored up in the subsoil from the winter rainfall to produce a large yield of any cultivated crop.

NORTH SALEM IS ON MOVE

Improvement Association Plans Activity to Attract Residents

Improvement of North Salem as a residence section is the prime object of the North Salem Improvement association which has now been fully organized and which held a meeting at the State School for the Deaf last night to perfect working plans. A committee composed of Postmaster August Hucklestein, chairman, Ward K. Richardson and J. A. Carter, was named to arrange for further meetings.

One improvement planned for North Salem is a children's public playground, urged strongly last night in an address by Postmaster Hucklestein. A vacant space at the North end of Liberty street is the proposed location.

Arrangements were made for another meeting in the auditorium of the Highland school on the night of Saturday, October 2. At this meeting the following persons will be among the speakers:

T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Salem Commercial club, on "The Economic Value of Civic Improvement;" J. H. Walker, manager of the Salem King's Products company, on "What Dehydration Means for Salem;" Fred W. Stensloff, representing the new Valley Packing company; Street Commissioner Walter S. Low, on "North Salem Street Improvements Compared With Other Sections of the City;" City Engineer Walter Skelton, on "Facts and Figures;" August Hucklestein, on "Playgrounds." A representative of the new paper mill also will be invited to talk.

Woman's Day Program Set For Two O'Clock Tuesday

Women who are prominent in various progressive movements in the state are on the woman's day program which will open at the state fair at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of the Agricultural building.

TO MY SALEM FRIENDS AND PATRONS

I wish to state that I am now located in Portland with offices at 414 Failing Building. My new offices are fully equipped with all modern appliances for the scientific fitting of glasses and correction of eye troubles. Salem people are cordially invited to call on me when in Portland.

dress of welcome will be given by Mrs. Fred G. Schilke of La Grande, president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and the Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. John Waldron and Mrs. John Risley of Portland will contribute a vocal duet, and Mrs. Mattie M. Sleeth of Portland, state president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, will speak on the work of that organization during the last year.

Perhaps some sensation may be caused by an address of Mrs. John Waldron, who will speak in advocacy of a woman member for every school board in the state.
