

IN A SOCIAL WAY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

Mrs. John H. Albert spent several days in Portland this week visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rodgers are spending several days in Portland as the guests of friends.

Dr. E. E. Fisher is at present visiting in Rochester, Minnesota, with relatives. He will arrive in Salem the first of the week from his trip.

Miss Josephine Baumgartner of the University of Oregon is spending the week end in Salem at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner.

Little Gladys Edgar entertained a number of her school mates at a Halloween party on Friday afternoon at her home, 127 Union street. The rooms were tastefully decorated in orange and black. The little folk spent the time in playing games and having their fortunes told by Miss Verda Williamson, a cousin of the little hostess. At the close Mrs. Edgar served a dainty lunch. Those present were Mildred Roberts, Maxine Myers, Gwendolyn Jarman, Louisa Breitzke, Virginia Berger, Monema Davis, Blanche Bonfield, Lotie Nuting, Augusta Nuting and Gladys Edgar.

The members of the Papillon class of the First Presbyterian Sunday school, of which Miss Lucille Ross is teacher, were hostesses to the boys of Harold Cook's class for a jolly Halloween masquerade on Wednesday night at the church parlors. The Sunday school room was converted into a habitat of ghosts, witches, ballet dancers, Pierrots, Old Father Time, peasants and many other personages with jack o'lanterns, corn stalks, cats and owls as a background for all their merrymaking. Halloween games and sports were enjoyed until a late hour when a supper was served. Those present were Misses Bessie Brant, Dorothy Smart, Florence Jones, Louise Nunn, Dorothy Gilbert, Mary Gilbert, Loraine Fletcher, Genevieve Mulkey, Hazen Pearce, Willetta Welch, Catharine Hartley, Hester Welch, Mrs. J. J. Nunn, Miss Ross, and Messrs. Charles Nunn, Joseph Nunn, Albert Keifer, Arthur Hamilton, Reginald Busick, Clifford Hulse, Frank Hutchison, Lester Rice, Dwight Mulkey, Robert Walker, John Eaton, Clarence Eaton, Clifford Wilson and Harold Cook.

Miss Hilda Tillinghast was a charming hostess Monday night when she entertained the members of the Snikpoh society of the high school. Three new members, Miss Ruth Ross, Miss Jeanette Meredith and Breyman Boise were initiated into the society and the evening was filled with the initiation. At the close the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Members present were: Misses Margaret Griffith, Letha Wilson, Miriam Lovell, Joan Compiton, Johanna James, Marion Emmons, Ruth Ross Kenette Meredith, Nellie Rowland, and Messrs. Milton Steiner, Gene Gill, Emory Gill, Evans Jones, Harold Walling, Donald Davidson, John Griffith, Breyman Boise, Frank Chapman, and the hostess.

The Intermediate Young People's society of the First Baptist church has recently been organized and gave its first social at the church on Monday evening. Rev. G. P. Holt, Mrs. J. W. Troy, their newly elected superintendent, and Miss Marybelle Reinhardt acted as chaperones. The evening's entertainment consisted of an indoor track meet, with the young people divided into four groups, each representing a college. A great deal of amusement was created with this and other games for the evening. Dainty refreshments were served at the close by the chaperones. The members present numbered 30.

Mrs. R. L. Steeves and Mrs. F. A. Legge were joint hostesses Wednesday night for the Potlatch club which met that night for the first time this season. The guests enjoyed an Edison concert and at the close the hostesses served a dainty supper. The rooms and the table were artistically adorned with profusions of autumn leaves. Guests of the club for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Price, Miss Laura Bell, Miss Faye Perringer, Miss Junelle Vandortvort, Miss Margaret Legge, Paul Lee, and the club members present were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kutz, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Professor and Mrs. V. E. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Todd and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge, and Dr. and Mrs. Steeves.

Saturday afternoon the Women's Relief corps honored Judge Daniel Webster who returned Thursday night from a two months' trip in the east going back to attend the annual Grand Army Veterans encampment. The afternoon was spent enjoyably in a social way and Judge Webster told of his experiences in the war and told of his trip. The members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Spanish War Veterans, the Sons of Veterans, the Daughters of Veterans and the Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans were those included in the invitation list.

One of the most enjoyable afternoons of the week was spent at the home of Mrs. A. M. Clough, 1129 Broadway, on Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Elite Embroidery club. The afternoon was passed chatting gaily over the sewing and at the close the hostess served a dainty lunch.

A birthday dinner was given Grandma Hoven at the home of her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hoven, on Sunday, October 26. The dinner was a surprise as the children had all planned and made ready. The table was laden with plenty of good things to eat and a large cake with 76 candles which she cut herself. Those present at the dinner were her own family, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith and two children, Eula and Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoven and two sons, Lenna and Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoven and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hoven.

Mrs. K. Coshov of Roseburg is spending several days in Salem with her mother, Mrs. H. K. Pichens.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Clancy and C. B. Clancy formed a motor party to Portland yesterday, planning to stay several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clancy were the honor guests at a delightful little dinner at which Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist presided on Wednesday night. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Clancy, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bolinger, C. B. Clancy and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Galloway and small children left Salem Friday morning for their new home in Portland. It is with much regret that Salem folk see the Galloways leaving this city, for they are very popular and have a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNary are spending the week-end in Portland.

One of the most enjoyable Halloween parties was that given by little Mildred Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Gilbert to 17 of her little friends on Friday evening. The early evening was spent in the open, mingling with ghosts, witches and goblins, after which the merry crowd was seated at an elaborate feast at the "Graybeils." The artistic table decorations, unique favors and original costumes of the happy children will long be remembered by the future belles and beaux of Salem.

Miss Emma Waldorf, fiancée of Mem Pearce was the inspiration for a surprise miscellaneous shower given by the LaArca club on Tuesday night. The honoree was the recipient of many dainty and useful gifts. Those who made up the party were: Miss Echo Hunt, Miss Thelma Blessing, Miss Velma Cook, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Miss Esther Anderson, Mrs. S. Bernardi and Mrs. Fred Bernardi.

Mrs. John W. Todd entertained Friday afternoon with a merry little Halloween party for her children, John Jr., Lowell, Margaret and Mary. The twelve bidden guests frolicked over Halloween games through the afternoon until the hostess served a dainty lunch at the close of the afternoon.

The officers of Chadwick chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star motored to Turner on Wednesday night where they were invited by the Victorian chapter for an evening's entertainment. A sumptuous banquet was prepared for them, along with the other ways of entertainment. Those who formed the party from here were Mrs. Elizabeth Shafer, Mrs. Emma Brown, Miss Mary Cook.
