

SOCIETY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

ONE of the most beautiful parties of the week was the meeting on Wednesday of the Ridge Luncheon club when Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., was a charming hostess. The rooms themselves were a very pleasing background for the party and they were made more beautiful with the profusions of brilliant autumn leaves and with quantities of yellow candles burning in brass candlesticks. Pale yellow Chinese lanterns shaded the lights. On the tables were tiny bouquets of scarlet barberry leaves and yellow placards marked places for the guests. All the appointments were in the scarlet and gold and at 4 o'clock Mrs. Burghardt served tea using scarlet cups and saucers finishing a charming party. Mrs. Burghardt was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. Frederick Thielsen. Other guests of the club were Mrs. Percy A. Young of Albany, Mrs. Amos Strong and Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

Club members present were: Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. William Root, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Mrs. John McNarcy, Mrs. W. M. Plimpton, Mrs. J. L. Van Doren and Mrs. Burghardt.

Mrs. R. L. Matthews and her sister, Mrs. O. P. Allen are home again from an absence from the city. Mrs. Matthews has been spending several months visiting with relatives in Ohio and in California. Mrs. Allen left Salem several weeks ago and joined her sister in Oakland where they passed several weeks visiting their uncle, D. C. Ambron. Before returning they also visited in San Francisco and Sacramento. Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Allen arrived in Salem yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Q. Mills of Portland are being welcomed to Salem. They came up Saturday from their home in Portland and are visiting at the J. H. Baker, the S. W. Power and the E. T. Barnes homes for this week. They have recently come to Portland from Denver, Col., the former home of Mrs. Mills and where they were married on October 16. For their honor Mrs. E. T. Barnes will be hostess for a large family dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Earl L. Fisher and small children, Lucy and Howard, have arrived from their former home in Albany and joined the former's husband who has been in Salem for several weeks since beginning his work in the state tax commission. They are domiciled in their new home at State and Fourteenth streets.

Mrs. James E. Godfrey entertained the past matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star at her home on Friday evening in a delightful manner. A short business meeting occupied the first part of the evening and later the party enjoyed a social time. Mrs. Godfrey had the rooms of her attractive house decorated with Halloween ideas. At the finish of the evening she served dainty refreshments. The past matrons who were present numbered 15.

Mrs. H. N. Aldrich of the Leslie Methodist church will be hostess for the ladies aid society at the home Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Jerman were hosts for a charming supper that followed the dancing party of Mrs. Ralph White's. The delightful affair took place at the home of Mrs. Jerman's grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Fayer. Covers were placed for eight.

The members of Mrs. White's senior dancing class enjoyed a delightful party on Wednesday night. It was in the nature of a Halloween affair and Cotillion hall was gay

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or nostrils will open, the air passages of catarrh disappear. Your closed your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.
