In an evening paper to the effect that the recall of Mayor Wilson is contemplated, the Business Men's league took action yesterday to support the appointment of the two officers. The action was taken at a special meeting of the league called immediately following the adjournment of the businessmen's lunch at the Commercial club.

Kay and Denton Mix. A tilt between Walter Denton and T. B. Kay was going strong within a few moments after the special meeting had been called, having started on a motion of Mr. Denton in which he urged that the league bring it forcibly to the attention of the council that the officers are needed and that petty personality in city politics should be forgotten in the building up of the city. Mr. Kay took the stand that the league was attempting to dominate the council, that it was "carrying a chip on its shoulder" and he urged that the delegation to wait on the council be composed of some citizens at large in addition to the members of the league.

Mr. Kay expressed himself as unalterably opposed to recall of the mayor or any other city official and Mr. Denton gave him the assurance that he was not behind any movement for recall of the mayor and denied that he knew anything of any such action except that he had read in a newspaper. Mr. Kay said he had his information from the same source.

E. H. Choate, president of the league, appointed a committee to meet with the council, the members being the following: Walter Denton, Paul Hauser, Joseph Baumgartner, I. Greenbaum, Zaac Riggs, T. B. Kay, Dan J. Fry, Sr., W. M. Hamilton, William Gahldorf, N. D. Elliott, L. J. Chapin, W. H. Nancy, A. Kafoury, C. F. Olmstead, Frank Gibson, Mr. Kay and Mr. Nancy upon their request were excused from serving on the committee both saying that other business of importance prevented them serving.

Luncheon Informal. The luncheon which preceded the meeting was informal and speakers were called upon from those present. Hal Patton spoke on the school book situation, William Gahldorf on the price of coffee, Joseph Baumgartner on the hardware market, Luther J. Chapin on dehydration and crop rotation, Paul Hauser on game preserves and C. O. Rice on the city funds.

A committee composed of L. J. Chapin, R. O. Snelling, W. H. Nancy was appointed to arrange for an exhibition of Salem products at the horticultural show to be held at Corvallis on November 6. The Salem display will be sent to Corvallis tomorrow and will consist of the products of the various plants of the city.

Sixty Young People at Turner Hallowe'en Party

TURNER, Or., Nov. 3.—About 60 young people attended the Epworth League Hallowe'en party at the Hyatt home Friday night. There were several very unique disguises and Frances Martin, dressed as a "kitty" took first prize. Ernest Larson spent the week end visiting Turner friends. Earl Bear is at the Salem hospital ill with quinsy. Justus Robertson was home from Corvallis for the week end.

The Epworth league held a business meeting Sunday afternoon and elected new officers. Miss Evelyn Osborn was elected president.

OLCOTT ASKS EARLY ACTION ON MANDAMUS

No Time to Be Lost in Settling Question of Tenure As Governor

NOTICE TO BE PREPARED

Forty-Fifth Day Prior to Primary Not to be Awaited by Secretary

Declaring that he is anxious for an early determination by the supreme court on the question whether a governor is to be elected in 1920, Governor Olcott yesterday let it be known that as secretary of state he will cause the certification of officers to be filled by election next year to be prepared in the near future, omitting the office of governor. This will open the way for the mandamus action suggested by Attorney General Brown in his opinion Saturday, such mandamus to be brought by any voter of the state to compel the secretary of state to file the certification of officers at any time prior to the 45th day. This is the action Mr. Olcott, as secretary of state, proposes to take, and preparation of the certification without the office of governor will constitute a basis for the mandamus procedure. After preparing the certification it will not be necessary for the secretary to send it to the county clerks before the 45th day unless he desires. A statement of the offices included in the certification will serve notice to the public of the official act on which mandamus can be brought, and withholding the certification from the mail until the 45th day, or until the supreme court shall have acted, would avoid the confusion that would be caused by revising the certification in the event the court should hold that the office of governor should be included.

"In order that this matter may reach an early determination at the hands of the supreme court I will see that the work of preparing the statement for certification to the county clerks is started at once," said Secretary Olcott. "I am advised by the attorney general that under the court decisions as they now stand I can do but one thing as secretary of state, and that is to omit the office of governor from the certification. I hope to see this matter cleared up as soon as possible, so that if the refusal of a governor to certify in 1920 the court's decision will come down sufficiently early to clarify the situation for all concerned. I take it that the action in preparing the certification with the office of governor omitted will pave the way for any citizen and voter to start proceedings in mandamus at once.

"It is my personal wish that such action be taken."

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ENDORSE PLAN

Community Training School Movement Is Explained by H. F. Humbert

A gathering of Salem Sunday school workers, held in the public library last night, endorsed a plan for a community training school. Fifteen Sunday schools were represented at the meeting, over which Joseph H. Albert presided. The institute plan was presented by Harold F. Humbert of Portland, general secretary of the Oregon Sunday School association.

"A community training school," said Mr. Humbert, "is a high grade night school, meeting once each week. During the first period of instruction, from 7:30 to 8:15, three or four courses are given, such as 'The Life of Christ,' 'Teaching Values of the Old Testament,' 'The Unfolding Life' and 'Principles of Teaching.' During the second period, classes in methods are conducted covering 'The Religious Instruction of Little Children,' 'The Teaching of Juniors,' 'Young People and the Church School,' and 'The Administration of the Sunday School.' Students select one course for each period. The entire school meets in assembly from 9 to 9:50, with demonstrations on the successive evenings of hand work, the sand table, building a worship program, music, the organized class, religious education through pictures and pageantry."

The plan is to be referred to the Sunday schools of the city for ratification. The committee on course of study and promotion consists of T. E. McCroskey, Mrs. F. A. Elliott and C. F. Hageman. Teachers for the training school are to be chosen from among local religious leaders. The state Sunday school association has promised to provide an instructor from its staff.

Certification of $100,000 in bonds Asked by District

Question of the certification of $100,000 in bonds for the Grants Pass Irrigation district resolutions have been received by State Engineer Copper from the board of directors of the district. The resolution also makes known the plan of the board to divide the district into units.

The 1919 session of the legislature provided that districts may be divided into units of different reclamation costs, and the Grants Pass district has been divided into four units. W. C. Brown, engineer for Multnomah county drainage district No. 1, has been in conference with State Engineer Copper relative to approval of the plans of the district and the certification of district bonds of $400,000. The district is located on the Columbia river, extending from Portland to Sandy river and covers 8300 acres. The plans contemplate the construction of a levee 12 miles long along the Columbia river.

Collin McKenzie of Hood River has filed application to appropriate water for the irrigation of a small tract near Odell.

TWO OFFICERS MUST DROP FROM FORCE

"Do you or do you not believe in a larger force," pursued Utter. "Public Expression Demanded." "I have told you personally what I believe," replied the mayor. "But I want a public expression," demanded Utter.

The mayor was silent. "The refusal to answer," Utter said and took his seat. After further routine business Alderman Wiest brought up the police matter for the third time during the session.

"I wish you would explain the status of the estimate," he said to Mayor Wilson. "How are we going to get along with the men we have on this estimate?" "I will refer that to the ways and means committee—your committee," answered Wilson.

The ordinance increasing the salary of City Recorder Race because of his additional duties as the city purchasing agent was at last passed last night in the shape of an amendment to the present applying ordinance. This was after an opinion from City Attorney Macy had been read declaring that the recorder, under the city statute, is not compelled to serve in the additional capacity without extra pay.

Before adjournment Harry Hutton fire chief, and Chief of Police Varney addressed the council relative to conventions they recently have attended. Hutton reported on the convention of fire chiefs in Portland and incidentally recommended the adoption of one and one-half fire hose for use inside buildings and a fire alarm system. The latter he said would be a factor in procuring a decreased insurance rate in the city.

Chief Varney told entertainingly of the convention of traffic officers in Seattle. Routine Business Transacted. The council voted to patch holes that have been shot in the roof of the city hall by pigeon shooters.

Petitions were read calling upon the city to contract several sewers. A petition was read from Will H. Purdy and others asking that the city council call a mass meeting in the near future to devise means of housing new comers to the city. Alderman moved that the mayor call the meeting. Volk wanted to know how the council could call a mass meeting. Wiest considered it out of the council's province and the business of the Commercial club. No action was taken.

CONSTIPATION MAKES YOU EASY VICTIM OF FLU, COLDS AND GRIP

Old Fashioned Herb Tea Often Relieves Chronic Cases. You can't afford to be constipated. If your kidneys, liver and bowels fail to carry off the waste matter it soon poisons your entire system. It lowers your joint disease. At this time of year, when the air is filled with influenza, colds and grip, you should keep in the best condition. No physician will tell you that most ills could be avoided if people would keep their livers, kidneys and bowels in good working order.

If you are constipated, bilious and sluggish? Does your head ache? Don't neglect Nature's warnings. Just get a package of Lincolin. You'll take a cup before retiring. It soon cleans you out and makes you feel fine. Does not create the phlegm habit. This famous herb tea is an unexcelled remedy for colds, gripe, influenza, chronic constipation, rheumatism, etc. Nothing is better to keep the children in fine condition. 25 cents at all drug stores.—Lincolin Proprietary Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PROGRESS RAPID IN TRIALS OF RACE RIOTERS

Negro Convicted of First Degree Murder After Eight Minutes Deliberation

DEFENSE IS LACKING

Indictments Returned Against 122, Most of Whom Are Negroes

HELENA, Ark., Nov. 3.—Rapid progress marked the trials today of cases growing out of the recent race disturbances south of this city, one negro being convicted of first degree murder after eight minutes' deliberation by a circuit court jury and five others receiving a verdict of guilty to a similar charge, all at the same time, after the jury had been out seven minutes. The verdict means electrocution for the six negroes.

Two Cases Tried. In the first of the two cases tried today, that of Frank Hicks, several witnesses for the state testified they saw Hicks fire the shots the morning of October 1, which resulted in the death of Clinton Lee, an ex-soldier. The defense announced it had no witnesses, argument was waived, the jury was instructed and in 8 minutes a verdict was returned.

Defendants in the second case were Frank Moore, Ed Hicks, J. E. Knox, Paul Hall and Ed Coleman, charged jointly with the murder of Lee. Witnesses testified that Moore, Knox and Hicks acted as leaders, arguments for a verdict of second degree were presented by counsel appointed, instructions were given the jury and a verdict of first degree murder was returned in seven minutes.

122 Indictments. Indictments have been brought against 122 persons, mostly negroes, as a result of the disorders. Evidence showed the existence of a post of the Progressive Farmers and Household Union of America, the organization under which it is alleged the negroes were banded for the uprising at Elaine, resulting in the death of five whites and a larger number of negroes and the wounding of others.

CHERRIANS PLAN HIGH JINX DEC. 2

Gay and Festive Meeting Is Set—Dance to Be Thanksgiving Night

Initiative Bill Gives Rise to Many Questions

An initiative bill, petitions for which are now in circulation, providing that 4 per cent instead of 6 per cent be made the legal rate of interest in Oregon, gives rise to a number of problems that have caused Will H. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, to ask a number of questions of Attorney General Brown.

What effect would the amendment have on chapter 219, laws of 1915, commonly known as the pawnbrokers' act, in which licensed persons are permitted to loan on interest rates up to 3 per cent per month? What would be usury under the proposed amendment? The questions asked under the assumption that the measure pass, are: Would a person or a bank be permitted to loan on notes drawing interest up to 10 per cent as at present? In case no interest is specified what rate would be collectible?

Arkansas Woman Wants to Find Out About Oregon. Evidently tired of the climatical and social disadvantages of the sovereign state of Arkansas, Mrs. M. V. Tolliver, a resident of Summit, that state, has written to the Salem Commercial club in quest of a "sunnier climate" and better advantages for herself and son. While the letter is composed in the wording and phraseology of an older generation there is a ring of sincerity that inspires the reader with the wish that the quest will end successfully.

Accompanied by a stamped envelope the letter was received in Salem yesterday, and the text follows: "I am writing you to find out about the state of Oregon as I have heard so much about that country. Is it cold and is the country rough? What kind of crops are raised; are there many colored people in the state? Does it rain or do they irrigate the land, and is the land rented? Do you think that a good woman who is a good worker and can do any kind of work could get a place on a farm? I have a boy who is 12 years old. He is a big boy and stout, would be willing to work on a farm, in a hotel or business house. I can do any kind of work and desire to find out all about the country before I make the change. I would rather get farm work for I love that kind of work and I can't be beat at gardening and raising truckery. Hoping that this letter will bring me good news, I await your reply."

The Cherrians will not appear on the floor as the dance is for service men and their women friends exclusively.
