"EVERYTHING HAS GONE REPUBLICAN"

Everything went Republican at the elections yesterday. Or nearly everything. Even Kentucky. What does this mean?

It means that the people of this country are tired of Democratic inefficiency and blundering; tired of dillydallying and pussyfooting. Some red corpses are wanted in the political system at Washington.

And a thorough cleaning out of dead wood. The United States, which should lead the world, has been milling around in circles.

The great, ambitious, pushing masses of the people of this country want action.

Unless the bunch training with Hiram Johnson is allowed some kind of a look-in, in making up the ticket and formulating the platform; the Republican party will carry the country next year, hands down.

"There will be nothing to it." Unless this happens, this country will soon begin to see a recession of the high tide of business.

Despite all her handicaps, commercial Europe is clearing her decks and getting into action.

And commercial Asia, too. The September imports of goods into this country were in value $435,000,000; they broke the records in the history of American trade; they were almost a quarter of our entire imports for the year 1913.

And the average rate of duty was the lowest ever recorded, almost down to 5 per cent, and realizing but $24,724,000 in customs revenues.

Had they paid the protective duties of the former regime, still too low for present times, the revenues would have been nearly $85,000,000, for September.

Our balance of trade dwindled in September to $158,000,000, against $635,000,000 last June.

Our exports of gold and silver have exceeded our imports by $250,000,000 for the first eight months of this year.

The foreigner gets our silver and gold to pay for his goods, and we get his paper to pay for ours. And it is his intention to take up that paper with goods.

And he will do it—and he will run the balance of trade against us—and then he will overwhelm the American market and throw our people out of employment—if there is not a change.

There must be a change. Republicans, who believe in protection, must be put on guard at Washington.

And Republicans who believe in every sound and progressive principle of government.

And Republicans who believe this nation was set apart for world leadership in all material and all higher things.

We must head the other way; toward the heights instead of toward the depths.

We can help the world by retaining our leadership in all things.

Filbert slogan tomorrow. Of course, the world is up in the air, so to speak, but it will come down, all right; civilization is not a failure.

Dr. Mayo says that "elderly men" are the best assets of the nation. But where does that "elderly" stuff begin, dock?—Exchange.

The royal family of Austria has renounced its imperial standing, but is the general view of the case that they did not give up very much.

Daintiness in regard to food is one of the causes of the high prices of certain articles. We pay as much for seven or eight ounces of biscuits, all done up in a pasteboard carton and pretty labeled, as will buy a pound of them out of a barrel. So it is with chipped beef, butter, prunes, raisins, figs, fancy flours and scores of other foods. Salesmen are schooled to play upon the finickiness of the city housewife. Our parents bought butter from a tub, crackers from the barrel and chipped beef from the end of a fitch. But that was before the days of the germ theory.

King Albert is a clever diplomat. In a recent address in the east he congratulated America as being the country "where everybody is educated." If it were only true!

If you are a filbert "nut," and you are if you are a filbert grower (all of them are), it is not yet too late

Perfection In Glasses

The eye is one of the most delicate organs in the body and when one's vision becomes defective it requires the most exact scientific treatment.

Glasses must be perfectly adapted to the defect and this perfect adaptation can be secured by our specially ground lenses.

Come in all, let us show you how this special grinding is done.

to help tell about filberts in the slogan pages of The Statesman tomorrow. But you will have to speak up.

There is to be another mass meeting next Tuesday evening, at the city hall, to devise plans for building houses. The more the merrier—if only some of the plans mature in actual construction of real houses.

"BABY FINGERS."

Justice Robitzek is a police court official of a borough of Greater New York. His name would indicate that he is probably a naturalized citizen; and he may owe his nomination and election to Tammany Hall. But Justice Robitzek gave voice to a sentiment recently in deciding a case involving a petty suit over damages to an apartment occupied by a couple with children that deserves to be engraved on a tablet of marble.

Suit had been brought because the frieze of the apartment was embellished by prints of baby fingers. The tenants probably were forced to move because the landlord had raised the rent; and the complainant demanded damages for injury done to the frieze in one of the rooms. In giving a decision in favor of the defendant and assessing the costs on the landlord Judge Robitzek said:

"I would rather see the print of baby fingers on my walls than have them adorned with the world's masterpieces. This would be a happy world if baby fingers could only make their imprint on the hearts of men and women."

It was only a petty suit in a justice court; but that opinion, if given general application, would be of vast importance than those written in great cases involving millions decided frequently by the supreme courts of New York. Judge Robitzek may have a limited legal education, but he possesses a depth of feeling that is the best asset of humanity.

While his name indicates a middle-European ancestry, we know that he is not of the stuff of which Bolsheviks and dynamiters are made. He believes in humanizing the laws that relate to property interests and he is an apostle of the true gospel of human rights.

"The imprint of baby fingers!" A judge whose heart responds to that appeal is worthy of any bench. In these days of grasping landlords and high rents there would be less industrial unrest if the principle involved in that decision were more generally applied. And a country which will respond to that appeal is in no danger of subjugation by red radicals who preach alike the nationalization of women and the nationalization of industry. How vividly it envisions:

"A pure white flower of holy love that grew in the one green spot Of the arid desert of Phyrne's life, where all was parched and hot."

MATTER OF DIET.

The Finnish diet is expected to authorize a national campaign against the Russian Bolsheviks. The Finnish diet at once confers a mental suggestion of the Diet of Worms.

TURN THE RASCALS OUT.

The federal trade commission has not increased the respect of the country for that body by its reply to the charge of Senator Watson that more than a score of known enemies of American institutions are upon the commission's payroll as inspectors. The commission replies by quoting some correspondence tending to show that Mr. Watson was attorney for a packing company some years before he became a United States senator.

Senator Watson's charges were too clearly made to be answered in such a fashion. The country wants to know whether it is true that a number of the leading writers for the Bolshevik and anarchist press in America have been selected by the commission to conduct its investigations. The country wants to know whether agitators who have been arrested for preaching sedition are now on the commission's pay roll.

The country wants to know whether it is true that some of those inspectors have gone into industrial establishments on the authority of the government permit issued by the commission and have made use of the occasion to harrange workmen and urge them to go on strike. The country wants to know if it is true that some of those inspectors are members of workingmen's councils which have been organized in this country by Bolshevik emissaries.

Calling Senator Watson names is but a puerile defense. The country wants some positive testimony.

It wants answers to the charges which Senator Watson made on the floor of the senate.

He named the inspectors whom he accused and told of their radical affiliations.

If his statements were true the action of the commission in naming them is a disgrace to the administration. Industry has been harassed enough since the armistice was signed without having its books and its business placed at the mercy of government agents who are working to sovietize free America.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

They see their finish.

The handwriting is on the wall for the pollywog and peanut politicians.

It was written there by the elections of yesterday, in large, luminous, lambent letters.

The American people are tired of the tired bunch; they are going to tie tin cans to their tails.

Ad astra per aspera—to the stars through rough stuff—that's the spirit of the American people, and they want to step out and do things—and to hell with all the Bolsheviks, reds that are yellow and black and maroon; and all the time-serving, swivel-chair, Democratic dopsters of high and low degree who are loafing on their jobs and letting everything slide.

The slogan pages of The Statesman will be mope nutty with filbert stuff tomorrow than was thought possible. The slogan man has 'em on the brain. It's the biggest little industry that ever came down the pike in old Willamette land.

Lough it was a fad, didn't you, this filbert business?

Well, you read 'er through tomorrow and you'll learn something that will be good for you.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

The Finnish diet is expected to authorize a national campaign against the Russian Bolsheviks. The Finnish diet at once confers a mental suggestion of the Diet of Worms.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

State Board Importuned to License Voting Machine

A representative of the Auto Registering Machine company of Jamestown, N. Y., makers of a voting machine were before the state board yesterday seeking a license for the voting machine so that it may be sold in this state. A law enacted in 1909 asks the governor secretary of state and state treasurer a board of examiners for voting machines with power to issue licenses for their sale. The board will take application under consideration and may secure the services of a competent mechanic to examine the machine before deciding whether a license shall be issued.
