THE Salem Women's club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the Commercial club rooms with Mrs. Z. J. Riggs presiding. The club endorsed the concert of Miss Winifred Byrd and Harry Whitehall, which will be given in Salem at the Armory next month.

At the meeting seven new members were taken into the club. Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Miss Elma Weller, Miss Ada Miller, Mrs. Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Charles A. Johns and Mrs. Thomas S. Anderson. Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. A. J. Rahn and Mrs. H. Chase made applications for membership. The club will take an active part with the Rotary club in selling the Red Cross seals.

Mrs. William M. Hamilton was elected vice president. The meeting as a whole was very interesting and those who attended were very enthusiastic over the club work for the winter. A large number of members were present at yesterday's meeting.

Miss Constance Cartwright entertained very charmingly last night when she was hostess at dinner for the members of the football squad of the Pacific university who were here for the game with Willamette yesterday. The dinner was at 5 o'clock, following the game, and the handsomely appointed table was adorned with red and black colors, which are the colors of Pacific university. A large basket of red carnations formed the centerpiece and dainty red baskets filled with nuts were at each plate. Place cards of red and black, bearing cartoons of each of the guests, marked places for Miss Dorothy Hall of Forest Grove, house guest of Miss Cartwright, Ralph Jack, Orlando Romey, Glenn Shealey, Francis Taylor, Verle Stanley, Byron Goodman, Coach Jesse Day, Albert Snyder, Thomas Fowler, Harold Read, Taylor Graham, Larry Devlin, Ernest Wolf, John Garrigut, Harry Jack, Miss Florence Cartwright, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright and the hostess. The men of the Pacific team left Salem on the 8 o'clock train for Portland.

The Sigma Tau fraternity house at Willamette university held its first open house last night to about 600 bidden guests. The reception rooms and downstairs were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and ferns, combined with white feathery, white chrysanthemums, arranged in tall baskets. In the receiving line were Harold Dimick, president of the house, Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Matthews, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, honorary house mother, Herald Emmel, Oscar Olsson, Harold Miller, Merrill Ohling, Kenneth Legge, Leland Austin, Russell Rary and Francis Cramer. In the dining room which also was adorned with fern and chrysanthemum, a group of the Beta Chi girls served. Miss Velma Baker, Miss Evelyn Gordon, Miss Sybil Smith, Miss Charlotte Carlson and Miss Muriel Steeves.

Mrs. W. W. Moore was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the P. E. O. sisterhood for its regular meeting. After the business meeting a delightful informal social time was enjoyed.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayne, Miss Ina Proctor and Miss Grace Uphreys, popular O. A. C. students, are spending the weekend in Salem with their parents.

Mrs. B. F. Shannon was a charming hostess last night at her home at Oak Lodge. An attractive bowl of autumn flowers adorned the prettily appointed table, around which covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Piper, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Stover, Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown, C. Maraby and Mr. and Mrs. Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Piper of Council, Idaho, are spending the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown.

Lewis Griffith is spending the weekend in Salem with his mother, Mrs. J. C. Griffith.

The women of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar next Friday in the church parlors. They have been working for some time with plans and arrangements and it bids fair to be an exceptional bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay will entertain the members of the Merry Go Round club at their attractive home on Tuesday night. Five hundred, which is the diversion of all this club's meetings, will be enjoyed, and since this is the first meeting of this year the members are looking forward to the evening at the Kays with much pleasure.

Miss Laura Marr entertained last night with a jolly little party for her brother, Edward Marr, who celebrated his tenth birthday. Games and music were enjoyed by the boys and at a late hour light refreshments were served. Guests were Kenneth Allen, Chandler Brown, Harold Ohlinger, Howard Kurtz and Arthur Anderson.

E. S. Tillinghast has returned from Seattle where he attended the Washington state teachers' association. Mr. Tillinghast read a paper to the department on special education on the Education of the Deaf.

St. Monica's Altar society met in the Knights of Columbus hall Wednesday afternoon with 35 members in attendance. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Albert O'Brien, past president who turned the gavel over to Mrs. C. W. Niemeyer, the newly elected president. Plans for conducting a bazaar December 2 and 4 in St. Joseph's hall were discussed. Last week a committee met at the home of Mrs. D. J. McKinnon where articles for the housekeepers booth were planned. Next Wednesday at 2 o'clock all the members are invited to the residence of Mrs. F. M. Barr for an afternoon of serving for the coming bazaar. After the business meeting a social time was enjoyed, light refreshments being served by Mrs. A. J. Davidson and Mrs. A. A. Mickel, the two hostesses for this occasion. The society will hold the next meeting December 10 in St. Joseph's hall, with Mrs. James Heenan and Mrs. Frank Alley acting as hostesses.

Considering the large attendance and interest evinced at the last two meetings St. Monica's Altar society will surpass all previous records on sociability and good work this winter.

The Sedgewick post of the Woman's Relief corps, No. 1, gave a reception at the McGormick hall last Saturday afternoon honoring Comrade Daniel Webster, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Oregon. The spacious rooms on the upper floor were all thrown open and an atmosphere of good fellowship prevailed. Yellow and black predominated in the color scheme while the lights were subdued, casting a weird glow on the witches, bats, owls, black cats, and pumpkins peering out from secluded places.

During the reception hour Mrs. Florence Spencer introduced the guests to those in the receiving line headed by Mrs. Alice Caldwell, president of the Woman's Relief corps, Comrade Frank Thompson, commander of Sedgewick post, No. 10, department commander, Daniel Webster, past commander, W. W. Faulkner, first department president of Oregon, Mrs. Ida M. Babeock, past department president; Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, U. G. Boyer of the Sons of Veterans, and Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, delegate to the national encampment in Columbus, Ohio.

An informal program followed. Mrs. Alice Caldwell calling the meeting to order and presiding throughout. Comrade Webster spoke most entertainingly of his recent visit east attending the national encampment. Reading, selected, Professor Della Crowder Miller.

Remarks, W. W. Faulkner. Whistling solo, Mrs. C. Clark. Refreshments were served the 150 guests present.

This week will be headed by the formal dancing party tomorrow night by the Monday Night Dancing club which will be held in the Moose hall. This is the second of a series of dances by the club the other having been given three weeks ago and was one of the most delightful dances of the season. Several little supper parties have been planned to follow the dance.

The second general meeting of the Salem Art league will occur on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the library auditorium. A very interesting program is planned with each department of the league furnishing some part of the program. Every one in Salem who is interested in encouraging art of any kind is most heartily welcomed to this meeting.

The art appreciation class of the Art league will hold its regular meeting in the city library at 8 o'clock on Monday evening.

The music department of the league will hold another meeting on Thursday night at the home of Miss Elma Weller. Schubert will again be the subject of the evening and a phase of his work other than that taken up last meeting will be studied.

Mrs. Frank Baker entertained the women of the missionary society of the Court Street Christian church on Friday afternoon at her home, 315 North Engletheth street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white and lavender chrysanthemums, which are the society colors.

After the interesting meeting the guests were served a delicious luncheon. The centerpiece was most attractive, a large squash cut into a rover boat with the name "Oregon" carved in each side. The boat which was fitted with a mast and was flying the American flag and laden with fruit and nuts. The boat was to typify the river boat "Oregon" which was built and sent a few years ago by the society to Africa laden with provisions and which is now plying up the Congo river in Africa. Eighteen members were present.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Donaldson and Bret Sears took place yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Donaldson, 858 Glenn avenue, Portland. The impressive services were read at 6 o'clock in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sears left for their future home in Olympia, Wash.

Miss Donaldson during her two years' residence in Salem was very popular with the younger set. She was employed as head stenographer of the Salem-King Products company, coming here from their Dallas plant to take the position. She is a very charming young girl and won a host of friends in this city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sears of Portland. He is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college and has recently returned from active service overseas. Since his return from France he has been associated with his father who is a contractor of Portland. They

The Chrestomathian society of the Willamette university entertained with their annual at home yesterday afternoon in the Chrestomathian hall. The rooms were beautifully hung with large French baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. The handles of the baskets were tied with fluffy yellow tulle. In the receiving line were Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. Gustave Ebsen, Miss Fake and Miss Evelyn Gordon, president of the society. Presiding in the dining room with a group of younger maids assisting were Miss Esther Yeengo and Miss Mae Mickey, of the class of '18. About 150 matrons and maids of the college set were bidden.

Mrs. Lee Canfield was a delightful hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained the women of the Amicus club at her home. Sewing and chatting constituted the diversions of the club and at the close the hostess served a dainty luncheon. The members of the club are: Mrs. William J. Busick, Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mrs. Jesse Campbell,

Mrs. C. E. Chapman, Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mrs. Cid Doolittle, Mrs. Chas. Knokland, Mrs. E. A. Kruz, Mrs. Frank Loose, Mrs. Harley White, and Mrs. Lawrence Simon.

Mrs. S. S. East has invitations out for a large tea on Wednesday of this week, to be given at the East home on Court Street. It will be a very charming affair for the maids and matrons of the social set who have been bidden.
