

U. OF O. DEFEATS AGGIES 13-0 IN STATE CLASSIC

University Outplays O. A. C. in Every Department Throughout Game

CLASH IS 23RD OF KIND

State Intercollegiate Championship Goes With Victory

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 15.—The University of Oregon's football team won from the Oregon Agricultural college eleven here today on Kin-kaid field, 9 to 0, outplaying the Corvallis eleven in every department of the game. It was the 23rd annual clash between these two institutions.

With Oregon's victory goes the state intercollegiate championship. Oregon's points consisted of a touchdown in the second period and a goal from the field in the final quarter.

Steers Knocked Out. Bill Steers, Oregon's great back field man, made most of Oregon's yardage until he was knocked out in the latter part of the third quarter. The varsity carried the ball more consistently, showed better field judgment, made better use of their kicking ability and showed a much greater aptitude in using the forward pass to gain ground.

Aggies Defensive Stronger. Oregon's defense, while strong in the pinches, lacked punch at times and the Aggies appeared almost the equals of the Eugene eleven in defensive line work. Fullback Powell was the star for the losing eleven.

The summary:

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

They had a great day Saturday. The Statesman advertisers did.

They are firing the reds out of Brazil in bunches. If they all go back to Russia, the American people may lose their sympathy with the starving people of that country.

Someone suggested that the reason why the business of the Statesman Pub. Co. for October was the largest for a single month in the history of the institution was the great prosperity of Salem. That helped some. But the percentage of increase in the business was the greatest for the outside publications and patronage. The Statesman publications and business bring into Salem from the outside over $100,000 a year, to be expended here. So they are a contributing cause of the growth and prosperity of Salem. And are growing more so, fast.

You will be surprised at the number of new houses going up in Salem. But there will not be enough, even if all the house building schemes succeed.

Work on the big paper mill is making a showing. Before very long the roof will be on; and then, after a while, the big wheels will begin to go around. It will take a lot of new houses to make homes for the workers there.

MASSACRE PLANS ARE CONFESSED IS REPORT

men were to be put but Smith was to stay in the hall. I know O. C. Bland, rit Smith, Roy ecker, Hansen, alias Loughnoff, the other fellow that was with us and myself, took part in the shooting. After the shooting I went home and hid across the field from the house in the brush. The other two men went to a shack of Hansen's up at the head of the Hanford river, Hansen and the other man went together. I took the guns up in a suitcase and Hansen carried the suitcase. That was the suitcase that was found up there.

(Signed) "L. Roberts, Witnesses, "Robert Jackson, "G. H. Lewis.

Confession Friday Report

Roberts, who, it is said is known as "Grand Mount" made the alleged confession while in jail here Friday. Roberts was one of 10 prisoners charged here yesterday with murder in the first degree.

It was said here tonight that County Attorney Herman Allen and C. D. Cunningham, his special assistant, have obtained a more detailed confession from Roberts since Friday.

Seminary Hill, which Roberts mentions in the alleged confession lies not far from Tower avenue and Second avenue, the street corner here near which Tuesday's shooting occurred. After the attack a small boy reported he saw three men on the hill during the parade. They were shooting toward town he told the police. Later the boy found the suitcase mentioned in the statement.

No one here seems to know anything about the Hanford river mentioned. There is a Hanford valley near here and it is thought possibly some small stream in the valley is called the Hanford river.

Mrs. Bland Points Gun

Several American legion members today went to the home here of Commodore Bland, alleged I. W. W. held in jail in connection with the Armistice day shooting. When Mrs. Bland opened the door to meet them, she pointed a revolver in their faces, witnesses said. At the same time, it was asserted a man ran out of the back door of the Bland home and dashed over a nearby hill. The former soldiers gave chase. Persons who were in the vicinity said they heard shots soon after from across the hill. No details were received here early tonight regarding the shooting.

Captain Lloyd Dysart, who is directing the work for the American legion men here, announced tonight that every Industrial Worker of the World under arrest will be prosecuted under the state syndicalism law. Captain Dysart said Frank Christensen, assistant state attorney general authorized the announcement.

Three Men Wanted

Only about three men are now wanted by the American legion members who are seeking those believed implicated in the shooting.

POLITICS IS HUMMING

West is expected to come out for reelection, and as rivals Oscar Steelhammer, former deputy assessor, and J. F. Jones, district deputy sealer of weights and measures, are both expected to enter the lists. A. A. Lee is also mentioned.

Woodburn Has Aspirant.

No announcement has been made by Sheriff W. I. Needham as to whether he will be a candidate for reelection. Special interest has been centered in this office, due to the fact that at the present time a bill is being initiated by the terms of which the tenure of all county offices may be made four years. Among the possible candidates mentioned for sheriff are Grover Todd of Woodburn, Chief of Police Varney and Ralph Thompson, of Salem, and in case Sheriff Needham does not consent, Deputy Oscar Bower is regarded as a likely candidate.

In the lineup for representatives in the legislature, most of the present holders are expected out for reelection. Others regarded as possible candidates are George Keach of Stayton, Bruce Cunningham of Liberty, Dr. Ben Giesy of Aurora, Frank Davey and R. E. Downing of Salem, and George Hubbs of Silverton. Incumbents are Seymour Jones, speaker at the last session; Ivan G. Martin, George Weeks, D. H. Loomery and S. A. Hunter.

Little Opposition Here.

In the other offices of the county the incumbents are expected to ask reelection. At the present time no other candidates have been mentioned for county treasurer, held by D. G. Drage; county commissioner, held by J. T. Hunt; county coroner, held by A. M. Clough; county superintendent of schools, held by W. M. Smith; county recorder, held by M. H. Robertson; Brooks; county surveyor, held by B. B. Herrick; or county clerk, held by U. G. Boyer.

LUMBER DEMANDS BECOME HEAVY

Rail Shipments Particularly Heavy in Eastern Oregon and Washington

Demand for lumber—especially for rail shipments—now is well under way among the mills in western Oregon and western Washington and gives every prospect of continuing with increased proportion through the remainder of the winter.

The 125 mills contributing to the regular report of the West Coast Lumbermen's association accepted orders last week for 6,447,843 feet more than they actually cut. Inquiries from all over the country are brisk and the sales movement that usually sets in along about the first of the year appears to be making good progress already.

Rail Orders Heavy.

The aggregate volume of new business accepted at the mills for the week was $8,802,079 feet—the heaviest for more than four months. Most of this was for rail delivery. The rail orders alone were enough to fill 266 cars.

The prevailing car shortage prevented the mills from keeping their shipments on a level with their new business. The rail movement for the week was only 1495 cars—1111 cars less than the rail orders. The mills now have an aggregate of 8723 cars of unfilled rail orders on their books. No immediate relief from the car shortage is in prospect, say the mill men, although more cars probably will be available toward the first of the year.

Cargo orders, top, continue in good volume, the total for the week being in excess of 6,900,000 feet. Most of this is for domestic delivery.

Hanning at Capacity.

The industry is running on nearly a capacity basis, production at 125 mills for the week reaching $2,354,236 feet—an average of 658,834 feet per mill. The normal production at this same group of mills was $7,555,000 feet, so the actual was within 6 per cent of the normal.

Fees Are Increased by Doctors of Three Counties

Physicians of Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties, who are organized in a single association, met in Salem, Friday night and adopted a schedule of fees that are an increase over fees that have prevailed heretofore. Whether the new fees shall go into effect immediately or not until January has not been determined. The schedule follows:

Day visits within city limits, $3; night visits within city limits, between the hours of 9 p. m. and 7 a. m., $5; visits to contagious diseases $5; country calls $1 a mile in addition to the regular fees; office consultation, 2; telephone consultation, $1. Heretofore no charge has been made for the latter.

Red Cross Memberships

Now Show Total of 3665

Many of the outside districts are slow in sending in their Red Cross returns. The total number of membership secured to date in the two weeks campaign sums us to 3665.

William Egan of Hopmore conceived an unusual plan to aid the Red Cross. Bill was made the goal of the week. But this was another "Bill" and a genuine goat at that. Mr. Egan raffled the can eating license jumper to his friends, the proceeds of the raffle helping to swell the coffers of the Red Cross. The goat was won by Marvin Bendix of Waconda. Waconda boasts another winner in the incident, as Mr. Egan promised a prize of $1 to the school girl who sold the most tickets to the raffle. Katherine Keen of Waconda won the award.

Three Marion Boys to Judge Stock in Portland

To take part in the judging of dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep and hogs three members of the Boys and Girls Industrial clubs will journey to Portland today in readiness to participate in the Pacific International Livestock exposition which will be held in Portland November 17 to 22.

The lads making the trip have qualified as experts in stock judging at previous contests. The boys and the districts which they represent are: Homer Bray, Auburn; Oliver Fuestman, Bethel, and Louis Drager of Pringle. W. M. Smith will accompany the party which does not plan to be in Portland for more than the first two days of the show.

Baker Urges Legislation to Cope With Radicalism

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Declaring the public inflamed against the activities of radicals and the situation serious, Mayor Baker of Portland, Ore., and chairman of the League of Mayors, telegraphed Vice President Marshall today urging federal legislation to meet the situation.

Soft Coal Output for Week Lowest Record in Years

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The soft coal output for the week ending November 8, the first week of the strike, was 3,477,000 tons, the lowest recorded in many years, according to the report today of the United States geological survey.

Mrs. George Marley Dies After Lengthy Illness

SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 15.—(Special to the Statesman.)—Mrs. Geo. Marley died at her home on South Water street Monday at 11 p. m. after an illness of long duration. Mrs. Marley was born near McKee, O., in 1860 and had lived in and near Silverton all her life. She was the daughter of one of Silverton's oldest pioneers. Her maiden name was Louise Shepherd. In 1877 she was married to George Marley.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Marley leaves three children, one grandchild six brothers and six sisters. The funeral services were held by Rev. J. A. Bennett from the home on Wednesday at 1:30 p. m.

WRITERS' WORKS STUDY SUBJECT

Literary Department of Salem Art League Tries Original Composition

The Modern Writers club which is one of the divisions of the Salem Art league, met at the city library for the purpose of outlining active work in the literary field. Mrs. C. V. Barton is chairman of the literary division.

The club will do short story writing and the subject for a story to be submitted at the next meeting will be "The Red Road to Lydays."

The members will also discuss the works of some of the modern story writers and poets. Later on the writing of scenarios will be considered. Mrs. C. V. Barton, Miss Laura Pratt, Mrs. Victor Collins and Miss Renska Swart presented some original work in poetry.

The next meeting of the Modern Writers club will meet at the home of Mrs. Fargo, 1945 North Church street. Mrs. Barton submitted the following:

Oregon.
I love the hue
Of the clouded blue
When the lingering summer dies,
And the rain's soft sweep
Under the Oregon skies.
For the rains will cease
And the sun increase,
The mist from the valleys rise;
And after the showers
Will a myriad flowers
Laugh up at the Orego skies.

EARLY NOVEMBER SALE Continues All This Week

Eager buyers crowded our parlors each day last week. Discriminating women, who knew values, bought several hats each.

But our stock is still large as it has been augmented by the arrival of new models bought in anticipation of large sales.

Why this confidence and response to our sales?

Because the hats are from our regular sources—the most desirable millinery markets. The price of the hats in this sale is approximately what the wholesale price would have been had they been bought earlier.
