Montana School of Mines to Meet Six Tams at Home

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 20.—Washington, Washington State colleges, Idaho, Utah and Montana state college basketball teams will oppose the Montana School of Mines quintet in Butte this season. It was announced here today.

to register the examinations. This may be done by applying to secretary, civil service commission. At the money order window of the Salem postoffice. Information concerning the postoffice examination to be held about the first of the coming year may be obtained at the postoffice.

Entrance Soon Completed—
The stone masons and mechanics have nearly finished their labors on the new vestibule at the north entrance at the north entrance of the postoffice. The old narrow entrance has been eliminated and a storm-proof, well-heated entrance space provided. Radiators have been installed and the new system of double doors will eliminate the annoyances incidental to the old system. When completed the vestibule will be a monument to the successful efforts of Postmaster Hucklestein in over the postoffice. Silvertons returns netted 638 members and represented much efficient work by the volunteer workers of that city. Willamette university has added to its reputation of helpfulness in the drive by turning in a supplementary list of 151 members. The little town of Gates turned in a list of 11 who believe in the Red Cross as a unit of helpfulness. The report from Gervais carried 23 members.

Study Class Tonight—
The study class of the Salem Art league meets in the educational room of the Salem public library, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Besides a brief study of the story of Rip Van Winkle it will be decided upon which course to accept to regulate future study. It is thought that the one offered by the University of Oregon will be taken. All men and women in the city interested in a serious, systematic study of literature are extended an invitation to join the class. The active class of the literary branch of the league will meet this evening at the same hour at the home of Mrs. W. F. Fargo, 1055 North Church. The members will continue their short story writing activities. The photographic section will hold its first separate meeting next Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the library, the hour to be 7:30 o'clock.

Divorce is Granted—
In the divorce case of Ada Hotop vs. William Hotop, a decree of divorce is awarded to the plaintiff and she is given the care and custody of the six minor children of the couple. For the care, education and maintenance of the minors, William Hotop is ordered by the decree to contribute $40 monthly. The defendant is also ordered to pay the plaintiff's costs and disbursements in the action.
