Mrs. M. B. Shirley and Miss Conifred Hurd entertained the teachers of the Washington school Friday night with a jolly taffy pull at the home of Mrs. Shirley. The guests were Miss Margaret Cosper, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Durham, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Axley, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Leland Brown, Mrs. E. Douglas, Mrs. L. S. Sheldon, Mrs. J. I. Creatch, Misses Dickey, Palmer, Lena Belle Tartar, Theresa Fowle, Ada Ross, Alma Poble, Lora Perkins, Hiale, Anna Cough, Higgins, Wilson, Carrie Martin Alpha Belle and John Miller.

The Loyal Daughters and the Loyal Sons of the First Christian church enjoyed a jolly automobile party in the church on Friday night. Games and music made the evening hours pass quickly until at a late hour a navel supper of hot biscuits, hot syrup and buttermilk was served. About 50 guests were present, including a number of the matrons of the church. Dr. H. C. Epley, Charles Knowland, Stephen Wolf and Ivan Martin presented "Echoes From the Old Plantation."

The pledges for the girls' clubs were made at the various society halls Friday afternoon. At the Philadonian hall a pretty pledge service was held during which Miss Corine Howard gave a piano selection and Miss Vivien Ishom sang the "Watermill." Miss Peryl Holt told of the Philadonians of the past and at the close the formal pledges were made. The hall was tastefully decorated with baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and fernery. Those who pledged to the Philadonian society were Misses Audrey Montagu, Grace Brainerd, Alice Worthley, Dorothy Stratford, Mary Spaulding, Pauline McClintock, Wilma Chatton, Vesta Dick, Lois Geddes, Constance McClain, Nell Fake, Maude Collins, Margaret Bowen, Miriam Cox, Esther Parnouzian, Betty Skages, Genevieve Findley, Della Enzlehart, Mildred Clark, Belle Williams, Myrtle Smith, Mildred Wells, Marguerite Cook, Cora Smith, Ruth Smith and Viola Ash.

Miss Lucille Dunbar of Monmouth and Miss Helen Wastell of Portland are the week-end guests of Miss Beryl Holt.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deane of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dean of Woodburn, who motored up for the day.

Miss Gertrude East, a popular bride-elect, was the inspiration for a prettily planned dinner when Miss Grace Holt assembled a company of the younger set on Thursday evening at the U. G. Holt home on Oak street. Large yellow chrysanthemums arranged in baskets formed the centerpiece and emphasized the yellow and white color scheme which was carried out throughout the appointments and dinner. At each plate a tiny keypie bride was placed. Plates were placed for Miss East, Miss Marie Marshall, Miss Marybelle Reinhart, Miss Laura (Marr), Miss Edna How, Miss Vivien Hopson, Miss Clara Breitenstein, Miss Marie Breitenstein, Miss Olga Grey, Mrs. Arch Jeiman and the hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner were hosts for a delightfully informal party to the young folk of the First Congregational church at their home on Center street Wednesday evening. The evening was most pleasantly spent with games and music and at the close Mrs. Kantner, assisted by her daughters, Miss Laverne Kantner and Miss Constance Kantner, served dainty refreshments to the guests, who numbered 30.

Mrs. W. P. Fowle charmingly entertained the matrons of the Piety Hill club at her home on North Capitol street Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent with chatting informally over the sewing. At the close Mrs. Fowle, assisted by Mrs. T. B. Kay, served a dainty luncheon. Members of the club who enjoyed Mrs. Fowle's hospitality were Mesdames Irwin Griffith, E. Hartley, John Scott, T. B. Kay, A. E. Hoff, William Kirk, William Brown, Frank Spencer, E. T. Barnes, C. H. Robertson and J. H. Walker.

Mrs. Ida Babcock is spending several days in Portland visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Rollin K. Page was hostess for a happily planned dinner Wednesday evening when she had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer and Mrs. A. V. Page of Portland. The dinner was planned to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of Mr. Spencer and Mrs. Page, which occurred on the same dates.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page returned Tuesday from a several days' stay in Portland. Accompanying them on their return was the former's mother, Mrs. A. V. Page of that city, who is their guest over the week-end.

The Brotherhood of the First Baptist church will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday evening. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. E. V. Steiters, the "fishline parson" who will speak on "Christianity, a Man's Job."

Mrs. Frank Durbin went to Portland Friday and is spending the week-end as the guest of friends in that city.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the homecoming of the United Artisans which was held in the Masonic temple, Thursday evening. The reception hall was beautifully decorated with art baskets and jardiniere of flowers. Here the guests of the evening enjoyed a special hour of cards and music. At 7 o'clock the grand march terminated in the banquet hall where a sumptuous dinner was served. The tables were gayly draped with large yellow chrysanthemums supported by long graceful wreaths from the ceiling. At the conclusion of the banquet a splendid program was enjoyed by those present.

1. Selection by Artisan orchestra.
2. Kipling's "If", Harold Cook.
3. Piano solo, "A Dance in Scottish," (Baker) Wendell Helm; Alabama Lullaby, Wyndell Helm.
4. "For the Sake of Good Old Yale," Mr. McGree.
5. Vocal solo, "Lonesome for You"; "Roses of Picardy," Johana James.
6. "Bobby Dyvenforth and the Mustard Plaster"; "Caught Suzzan-br Whistlin'" Miss Cevie.
7. Selection by Artisan orchestra.

Dancing furnished the entertainment for the rest of the evening. Mr. McGree and Miss Cevie are students of Professor Della Crowder Miller of the public speaking department of Willamette university and their selections were sincerely appreciated. The evening's entertainment was given under the auspices of that Artisan membership team, designated by the color white, under the captaincy of Mrs. F. W. Cook. Each member of the entering team was arrayed in white, with little fringed white caps as a distinctive mark.

Mrs. L. L. Gilbert was completely surprised Friday night when a coterie of friends called at her home to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. After the hostess recovered from her surprise "500" was enjoyed for the evening. O. P. Hoff scored high while F. G. DeLano received the consolation prize. After the play the party opened their well laden lunch baskets and a delicious luncheon was served. The remainder of the evening was augmented by dancing. Those who made up the arpy crew Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buchner, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. DeLano, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Cashatt, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Miss Ruth Buchner, Miss Dorothy Buchner, Miss Ariel Gilbert, Miss Cynthia DeLano, Mrs. William Busher, Mrs. A. L. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilbert.

Mrs. Moses T. Adams entertained the Sweet Briar club Wednesday afternoon for a very enjoyable time. White chrysanthemums intermingled with ferns artistically decorated the rooms. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Adams served a dainty collation. Guests of the club were Mrs. William Ellis of California who is visiting at the Moses T. Adams home and Mrs. C. B. Minute of Wisconsin who is spending the winter with Mrs. D. F. Adams. Ten members of the club were present.

Miss Augusta Condit and Fred A. Denham were married at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam. About 15 relatives and friends were present and immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Denham went to their new home on Oak and South Sixteenth streets. The groom is in the employ of the Standard Oil company and the bride was a teacher in the Anusville school.

The many friends in Salem of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millard, nee Shirley Eastham of Portland, will be very interested to know that they will leave December 2 for a several months' tour through Australia, New Zealand and the South Sea Islands. Mrs. Millard, then Miss Eastham, was a favorite visitor in this city in the social set. She was with the first unit of army nurses sent to France during the war and preparatory to leaving she took a special training course in one of the large hospitals in New York. Mr. Millard and she were married in Paris shortly after the signing of the armistice.

The Womens' Relief corps air society was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, 1575 South Commercial street, Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with a short business session, social conversation and sewing. The corps made plans for the entertainment of the Marion County Veterans association to be held in Salem on December 4 and for their Christmas bazaar to be held on December 11.

Many of the G.A.R. veterans were present and Mr. Thompson is commander of the Sedwick post No. 19. The hostess served delicious refreshments assisted by Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Cordelia Labear, Mrs. Jennie Miller, Mrs. Mary Lisle, and Mrs. Ellen Thompson. About 75 guests were present.

Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson went to Portland Friday where she met her two grandchildren, Charles Kay Bishop and Robert Bishop who came down from Pendleton for a ten day visit in Salem with their grandparents, Mrs. Gabrielson and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bishop. They will be joined Thanksgiving by their father, Chascey R. Bishop of Pendleton.

THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY Sonora CLEAR AS A BELL

What has made it famous?

ADVERTISING?

NO—The Sonora is extensively and well advertised, but the advertising has been kept within rational limits.

APPEARANCE?

NC—A phonograph is bought because it sounds right—not merely because it looks right. The Sonora is extremely handsome as an article of furniture, but this would never account for its success.

EXAGGERATED CLAIMS?

NO—The Sonora is sold for what it is—not for what it pretends to be. The belief that a real sale is made on any other basis than by satisfying the customer, is dead as far as Sonora is concerned.

TONE? BEAUTY? SATISFACTION?

YES—Most emphatically, yes. The Sonora claims the supremacy for tonal beauty. This claim was substantiated at the Panama-Pacific Exposition where the highest score for tone was given the Sonora.
