Cow Disappears—
A cow belonging to Mrs. Nellie Hughes of 1285 Market street was securely anchored in a pasture near the Hughes home but disappeared despite a strong picket rope, the night of November 26. Desk Sergeant Rowe, who received the report said that it was bad enough for one Salem homesteader to lose the Thanksgiving goose as occurred on the same night, but if the thieves had also figured on barbecued cow—the sergeant said that it was time to draw the line. Mrs. Hughes was not certain that the cow had been stolen, but thought that someone might have seized the animal as an stray. No impounding notices descriptive of the cow have been received by the city or county authorities.

Winifred Byrd Praised—
Perhaps not a great many Salem people know that Henry T. Finck, dramatic critic of the New York Evening Post, author of many books, including several on music, the dean of American critics, and one of the best if not the best of them all in this and other countries, was born at Aurora, Marion county; and that his father was at the head of the musical activities of the Aurora colony, which in his day supported the best brass and string bands on the Pacific coast. Well, this is what Henry T. Finck said of Winifred Byrd, who is to play before all the people who can get into the Salem armory next Friday evening, December 5: "In Liszt's 'St. Francis Walking on the Waters,' she best displayed her pianistic gifts, making herself seem bigger to the ears than to the eyes."

Dance Tonight—
While Pepper sings at armory.

Advanced Milk Prices—
To take effect December 1, 1910: 1 qt. per day per month $2.40; 1 qt. per day per month $4.50; 2 qt. per day per month $8.60; 2 qt. per day per month $8.70; 5 pt. per day per month $10.75; 3 qt. per day per month $12.25; 4 qt. per day per month $15.25. All extra milk 8c per pt. 15c per qt. Table cream 25c pt., whipping cream 45c per pt. 1/4 pt. table cream 10c per bottle. Wholesale in bottle, per gal. 48c, in cans, 2 gallons or less 45c per gal. In cans 3 gal. or more 40c per gal. The advance in price was demanded by producers owing to high price of mill feed and advance in operating expenses in general over that of a year ago. The dealers being aware of the shortage of dairy timber of the responsible kind, agreed to pay and additional expense of 40c per hundred to reliable dairymen and
