

Society

By Ruth Lenore Fisher

WITH a beautiful setting of rose chrysanthemums and the artistic rooms of the T. A. Livesley home, Mrs. Livesley entertained the matrons of the Bridge Luncheon club and a few additional guests at her home on Tuesday. The day for the club meeting is on Wednesday's usually, but because of this being Thanksgiving week, Mrs. Livesley entertained the club a day earlier. Additional guests which Mrs. Livesley invited were Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. B. O. Shucking, and Miss Elizabeth Lord.

MR. and Mrs. John McNary were hosts for one of the most delightful of the Thanksgiving family dinners. A large basket of fruit was the most attractive centerpiece and yellow chrysanthemums emphasized the yellow color scheme for the handsomely appointed dinner. Covers were placed for Miss Margaret Gray, Miss Gertrude Gray of Portland, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. M. E. Bruce of Portland, Miss Margaret Stolz, Senator Charles McNary, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stoltz, Richard Stoltz, and Mr. and Mrs. John McNary.

In these days of the high cost of everything, it is not unusual to hear of singers, such as Italian tenors and coloratura sopranos receiving from $1000 to $5000 an appearance, but what comes as a surprise is that we now hear of a pianist, an American at that, who did not have to come here from abroad as a winner, but who won recognition here in her own country, being paid $1000 to travel a few hundred miles to be heard in one number. Last October, Winifred Byrd, the pianist who created a sensation in New York and Chicago, appeared at Winthrop college, Rock Hill, South Carolina, the largest girls college in the south. There was an attendance of about 2000 people, and great enthusiasm was manifested throughout the brilliant program which was played, but the climax of applause was reached

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith who sang at the East-Kyle nuptials on Wednesday

after the playing of "La Campanella."

A wealthy plantation owner whose daughter attended Winthrop college remarked that he would give $1000 to hear Miss Byrd play "La Campanella." So a short time later Miss Byrd played for his entire household this famous number receiving the largest sum ever paid for one single piano number.

Everywhere Miss Byrd goes in her tour she is meeting with the heartiest of welcome and has won to her hearts of all who have heard her play, for she brings from the piano wonders that have been thought impossible for a woman.

Miss Theresa Fowle will entertain a small company this afternoon at her home for an informal tea, her guests including Miss Veva Smith, Miss Florence Laird of North Bend, George Laird of North Bend, and Alfred Olson of Silverton.

MISS DOROTHY CHAMBERS and Miss Dorothea Stensloff were hostesses for one of the most delightful events of the week when they assembled a company of friends for a dancing party on Thursday evening. After the guests had finished dancing at a late hour the two hostesses served a dainty supper. Pink chrysanthemums were used in a pretty profusion throughout the rooms. Those included for the evening were the Misses Maud McCoy, Catherine Slade, Mamie Victor, Grace Holt, Mrs. S. F. Chambers, Fred Deckbach, Alvin Jacobson, Harold Bastford, Joe Chambers, Claude Stensloff and Ira Mercer.

One of the merriest of Thanksgiving dinner parties was the one over which Mrs. P. E. Fullerton presided. The prettily arranged table was centered with a large pumpkin filled with fruit and orange shades of candles illuminated the table. A sumptuous dinner was served and the afternoon was passed with a social time. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton were Mrs. M. E. Hull of Newport, Mrs. Eva Terwilliger of Dallas, Mrs. Emma Young of Spokane, Mrs. Ada Petram, Mrs. Charles Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnside and three children, David Petram, Merle Petram, and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Tyrell of Brooks.

The annual Thanksgiving jolly-up at Willamette university took place Thursday evening in the gymnasium. It was a masquerade and many clever and comical costumes were in evidence. Miss Dorothy Buchner as an old fashioned woman took the prize for the girls and Fred Blake as a Jewish peddler, carried off the prize for the men. The gold dust twins, two giraffes, negroes, Indians, senoritas and many other impersonations were noticeable for their cleverness. After games and contests a light supper was served the guests who numbered 200.

The Julius Caesar club entertained with a jolly little dancing party last night in the Masonic temple. A large number of the Julius Caesars who are home from colleges were present last night and altogether the affair was one of much delight as are all the dancing parties given by this popular group of men. The active members of the club now are: Gene Gill, Breyman Boise, Rowland Reihart, Emery Gill, George White, William Ringle, Archie Holt, Kenneth Wilson, Dan Ringle, Millard Marshall, John Griffith, Paul Staley, William Ashby, Asahel Eoff, Milton Steiner, Evan Jones, Virgil Busey and Ted Purvine. The Revelation orchestra furnished the music for the dancing and the party was chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Eoff and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Staley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hargrove had a large family Thanksgiving dinner at their home Thursday. Yellow chrysanthemums formed a pretty centerpiece and yellow candles illuminated the table. The guests were their children, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith of Corvallis, C. C. Hargrove of Portland, Miss Winifred Hargrove of Oregon Agricultural college, Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Frank White and their two grandsons, James White and Jack Hargrove.

Miss Marjory Kay will return tonight to the University of Oregon after having spent the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay.

The G. T. club gave an enjoyable party at the home of Miss Frances Ingels on Monday evening. It was the first club party of the season. Games were played followed by refreshments. Those present were Lloyd Neptune, Helen Savage, Clara

Mrs. W. H. East (Bernice Clark) a recent bride, who assisted at the East-Kyle wedding this week.

Homyer, Mamie Rostein, Marjorie Mellinger, Eugene Zeiber, Lelieth Kuhn, Blanche Rowley, Frances Ingels, Ellis Willey, Donald Worden, Ritter Huddleson, Max Moon, Rex Adolph, David Adolph, Reginald Bussey, Nummy Arnold, Roy Simmons and Everett Gittens.

The Three Link Needle club was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Siegmund, 1496 Lee street. The afternoon was spent in needle work and guessing contests. Those present were Mrs. R. Simeral, Mrs. George Willis, Mrs. Fred Swanson, Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mrs. C. L. Cameron, Mrs. R. G. Henderson, Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mrs. F. L. Waters, Mrs. P. W. Hubbard, Mrs. C. G. Nichols, Mrs. Richard Carlson, Mrs. Roy Bremner, Mrs. Louisa Loveland, Mrs. James Carico, Mrs. Oren Noyce, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. T. F. Claggett, Mrs. Mae Radloff, Mrs. Homer Ingrey, Miss Jennie Krutzenga and Miss Ethel Fletcher. Dainty refreshments were served. Miss Siegmund was assisted in entertaining by her daughters, Misses Eugenia and Wilma and Miss Ruth Parsons. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Bremner on December 12.

Tuesday afternoon the department president of the ladies of the G. A. R., Mrs. Loretta Miller of Milton, Oregon, and the state inspector, Mrs. Johns Simmons of Portland will honor guests at a meeting of the U. S. Grant No. 5 of the ladies of the G. A. R. which will be held in the armory at 2 o'clock. It is urged that all members and comrades who are members of the ladies of the G. A. R. be present for this meeting.

Mrs. J. N. Shantz and sons spent Thanksgiving day in Woodburn with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Steelhammer.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith were hosts for a delightful family dinner on Thanksgiving day. A basket fashioned with chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece for the attractive table around which Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thompson, Miss Helen Thompson, Mrs. S. A. Smith of Pratum and the hosts were seated. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with music and social converse.

One of the smartest events of the week was the large family dinner on Thanksgiving day at the Milton L. Meyers home when Mrs. Meyers presided over a handsomely appointed meal. Bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, held in a tall vase, formed a beautiful centerpiece. The same shaded blooms adorned the other rooms of the house. Around the sumptuously laden board were seated Mrs. G. Steiner, mother of Mrs. Meyers, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kerron of Portland, Mrs. Earle Conson Flexel, Milton Steiner, and Mr. and Mrs. Meyers.

The announcement of the marriage in Oregon City of Miss Mabel Volkman of that city and J. C. Jones of the Waldo Hills has been made known in this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on November 20. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are in Newport at present spending their honeymoon and will be at home to their friends on December 4 at their new home on the former's ranch in the Waldo Hills.

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith were hosts for a prettily arranged dinner on Thanksgiving day when covers were placed for eight. Rose chrysanthemums and maidenhair fern were fashioned into a beautiful centerpiece for the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Powers and their baby arrived in Salem Wednesday for Thanksgiving with Mrs. Powers' parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith. Mrs. Power and the baby will remain with her parents until after the holidays while her husband is in the east on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort and Miss Junelle Vandervort spent Thanksgiving in Stayton with Mrs. Vandervort's sister, Mrs. R. G. Caspell.

Mrs. Wayne Pettit presided over a delightful dinner on Thanksgiving day at her home at 1370 Chemeketa street. A bowl of marigold and ferns fashioned a pretty centerpiece for the happily appointed dinner. Covers were placed for four.

Justice and Mrs. Henry J. Bean presided at a charming Thanksgiving dinner inviting a few of their friends to spend the day with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bond of Pendleton and their small daughter Mary, are guests at the Will H. Bennett home. They arrived Wednesday and will remain for a week. Friday A. R. and Mrs. Bond and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett spent the day in Portland with friends. Mrs. Bond and Mrs. Bennett are sisters.

The Live Wire class of the Leslie Methodist church entertained about 40 Willamette university students for a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner at the church parlors at noon on Thursday. Two long tables were used and they were prettily adorned with chrysanthemums and fern arranged in pretty baskets. The class was assisted by a group of the matrons of the church. Following the dinner which was immensely enjoyed by the guests the party adjourned to the football game.

A merry group gathered at the Mason Bishop home Thanksgiving day for a sumptuous dinner and a jolly day. Those who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bishop were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bishop, Miss Hazel Bishop and Miss Mabel Campbell.

Alfred Bennett of Antelope was a Thanksgiving guest of Salem friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mishler entertained at a happy Thanksgiving dinner at their home on Thursday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, Mrs. M. M. Cotton, Mrs. Emma Cline of Albany, Mrs. E. Young and son of Chicago, and Mrs. M. E. Kern.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Galloway, Mrs. Gertrude Brown and Wallace Brown were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell for a happily arranged dinner at their home.

Professor and Mrs. John R. Sites entertained with a large Thanksgiving dinner at their home Thursday evening. Yellow, which is such a popular color for Thanksgiving decorations, was used throughout the dinner and a large basket of chrysanthemums centered the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Alice Holman, Miss Genevieve Sevy, Miss Fay McKinnis, Francis Cramer and Professor and Mrs. Sites.

Another charming Thanksgiving dinner party that was assembled at the H. E. Carrier home on Court street. The rooms were aglow with various shaded chrysanthemums and in the dining room the red and green were used most effectively, and a beautiful basket of fruit centered the daintily appointed table. Plates were placed for Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Belle of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hayes of Portland, Miss Ocie Brown, Miss Laura Belle, Miss Lynn Miles, Miss Eva Miles, Joseph C. Belle of Portland, Hugh Belle, Burton Belle, Ross Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Carrier.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge were hosts for a charmingly appointed Thanksgiving dinner to a company of friends whom they assembled at their home on South High street. Dainty yellow chrysanthemums held in an art basket formed an attractive centerpiece for the table, around which were seated Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. C. G. Doney, Miss Velma Baker, Miss Muriel Steeves, Miss Faye Perringe, Paul Doney, Hugh Doney, Miss Margaret Legge, Kenneth Legge and the hosts.

One of the very delightful Thanksgiving family dinners occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson Jr., when they were hosts to a company of relatives. A large vase of white chrysanthemums centered the prettily appointed table, around which covers were placed for Mrs. M. A. Walker, Mrs. John Valentine, Miss Bessie Edwards, Miss Jessie Edwards, Miss Arieta Stickman, Miss Rilla Lepong, Warren Edwards, Walter Edwards, Homer Edwards, Phillip Burnett of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

(Continued on page 3)

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

If You Are Looking For FINE FURS We Have Them
521 Court Street WEST FUR CO. Opposite Court House

WHEN THE MONEY GROWS—INSTEAD OF GOES

THERE'S a lot of satisfaction in making one's money increase instead of decrease. And yet there are still many people right here in Salem who have never learned the value of a bank account—as an aid to getting ahead.

The United States National Bank is a mighty good place to find that out—too.

Liberal Interest on Savings

Boys and Girls

If you are not already collecting DIXIE BREAD wrappers and planning to win one of the

23 Holiday Prizes

You should begin today while your chances for winning are good. Contest has only started and will close December 22, 1919.

START TODAY! Get all your friends to help.

Ask Your Grocer

Salem Baking Co., Salem

Haynes-Foster Baking Co., Portland, Dixie Baking Co., Astoria

"Save the Wrappers"

Smart Footwear

For Dress Wear, possessing the stylish lines are to be found in the Winter Models of Maxine Shoes at the

Buster Brown Shoe Store

125 North Commercial Street

Brown is the favorite fashion shade for street wear. We are showing the newest models in mahogany and Havana brown with moderately high practical walking heels.

Scientific fitting of foot deformities

For Christmas

Let your Christmas phonograph be a SONORA. No better gift than a phonograph and no better phonograph than the Sonora, the choice of experts, the instrument which received highest award for tone quality at the San Francisco Exposition, 1915. Choose by comparison, hear the others, then hear the Sonora, it's TONE will decide.

Myrtle Knowland

Sonora Dealer in Salem
415 Court Street

BEAUTIFUL CABINET DESIGNS