All interest of the social and especially the musical life of the city centers around the concert Friday night of Miss Winifred Byrd, the Salem girl who has created such a future in the musical circles of New York. It is with great pride in their hearts that the Salem folk will go to the concert Friday night to hear the little girl who has worked so hard and fought so for her musical career, and who has returned to her home with the musical world conquered to give her home-coming concert.

To those who have known Miss Byrd since her early childhood and see the wonderful musical genius of her as well as the undaunted ambition which has been hers for her musical work, it is not a surprise that upon the occasion of her debut that James Hunekar, the eminent musical critic announced that she is one of the four women in the world who can play the piano with a much ability as a man.

They will of course be interested to know the numbers which Miss Byrd has chosen to give. The ones which are upon her program as announced by her manager are:

1. Fantaisie, Opus 49 . . . . . Chopin
2. Etude, A Minor (Winter Wind) . . . . . Chopin
3. On the Wings of Song . . . . . Mendelssohn-Liszt
4. Dance of the Gnomes . . . . . Liszt
5. Legend, St. Francis Walking on the Water . . . . . Liszt
6. Nocturne . . . . . Chopin
7. Witches' Dance . . . . . Grieg
8. Marche Militaire, Schubert-Tausig

Miss Byrd will be the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, for several days. Clarence Whitehill who appears with her, will also be a guest at the Byrd home. Many charming and delightful affairs are being planned for Miss Byrd during her short sojourn here.

Mrs. Homer Smith delightfully entertained the women of the Junior Guild of the St. Pauls church at her home yesterday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. Plans were completed for the bazaar which they will hold Thursday afternoon and altogether an interesting meeting was held.

The Thevyan class of the First Methodist Sunday school was delightfully entertained at the B. E. Carrier home on Monday evening. The class has recently been organized and is composed of a group of teachers in the public schools. Mrs. F. Van Eechen is teacher of the class and Miss Bell is president. The evening was merrily spent with chatting over their Christmas fancywork and at the close Miss Belle assisted by her sister Mrs. E. Hays of Portland, served a dainty lunch. About 20 of the members of the class were present.

Mrs. U. S. Page was hostess Saturday night for a jolly little card party when she celebrated the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mrs. Delbert Burton and herself which all occurred on that day. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening and at the end of the play Mrs. Quinn and Mrs. Stiff scored high. At the close of the delightful evening Mrs. Page served a dainty supper. The guests who made up three tables included Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quinn, Dr. and Mrs. Delbert Burton and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson.

Mrs. John Bayne will entertain the women of the South Circle of the First Congregational church this afternoon at her home at 414 Bellevue street. A very pleasant and interesting time is planned and it is urged that all members attend the meeting.

A company of 10 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blevins at the Cottage-farm when they entertained at dinner last Sunday. The sumptuously laden table was centered with a beautiful basket of white pon pons. Covers were laid

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more application will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Ford Owners Attention

Beginning Monday, December 1st, we will open our garage at 260 North High Street at 7 a. m. and CLOSE at 6 p. m.

This action is taken in line with the Ford Motor Co.'s plan of sales and service. The personal comfort of our employes is considered as important to both our patrons and ourselves. Men do not like to work on the night shift. It is particularly important in the present shortage of skilled labor.

If our patrons will anticipate their wants and still have their work done in daylight hours, it will make for better work and more efficient service.

We are counting on your hearty co-operation, bearing in mind the help you have rendered us in the past.

Prohibition Cuts Down Crime, Says Governor

Governor Oicott yesterday addressed a letter to W. E. Johnson, editor of the American Issue, a prohibition paper published at Westerville, Ohio, and London, England, informing him that Oregon has profited immensely since prohibition of the liquor traffic became effective and that there has been a marked decrease in crime. The letter was in reply to a letter from Mr. Johnson in which he asked if crime had decreased.

Exciting Times Ahead for Willamette Debaters

The season of debate at Willamette university promises to be one of the most important that the university has had for several years, according to Forensic Manager Fred McGrew. McGrew is at present in correspondence with several of the leading institutions of the northwest asking for dates. The subject for debate will be decided in the next few days and then work will begin in earnest.

At chapel yesterday Mr. McGrew came before the student body with a proposal of interclass debates. The three lower classes met the proposal with enthusiasm, the seniors deciding they would not enter an amount of smallness of their numbers and work which is already lined up for them. Mr. McGrew displayed a large gold cup which Attorney White will give to the class winning in debate. The class debaters will use the same subject as the varsity team. As soon as this subject is announced, the class members will begin preparing for the try-out which will precede the varsity try-out by a few days.
