Court Street Christian.
North Seventeenth and Court streets. There will be the usual services for the Lord's day. Bible school at 10 a. m. The weather has moderated and so let's see if we cannot have the regular attendance at Bible school. The pastor will deliver the fifth of a series of sermons on "Prayer" at the morning worship hour. The theme will be "The Cost of Communion With God." The Junior Christian Endeavor has changed to the afternoon hour again. The Young People's society meets at 6:30 p. m. "The Christmas Message and the Christmas Spirit" is the topic for Endeavor. Song service and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The First Christmas Gift." We hope to be able to have the monthly Bible school conference Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Every teacher and officer is asked to be present with a report. This is the last conference before the annual meeting, and much is to be considered relative to our new year's work. Wednesday is Christmas eve, and the Bible school will render a Christmas program. Fuller announcement will be made from platform. Thursday being Christmas day, the prayer meeting and teacher training will be postponed. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to worship with us. R. L. Putnam, pastor.

First Christian.
Center and High streets, two blocks north of the city hall. Bible school at 9:45 a. m., with classes for all corners. Morning worship at 11 a. m., a Christmas service of song and sermon. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Our Christmas program will be given on Sunday evening this year, instead of on Christmas eve, and the Armenian relief offering of $300 will be given at this time. The program will include the pipe organ, a 12-piece orchestra and a Christmas play, "The Little Boy Who Stayed With the Sheep," presented by Ira Cave, Karl Wenger, Vergil Anderson, Miss Virginia Dorcas, Miss Viola Ash and Mary Porter. Mrs. Porter, who coaches the play, dramatized it from a tale by Montanye Perry, which was printed in a popular magazine in 1914. Special music will be rendered by the pupils from the blind school. Keep in mind the Gray-Lhevinne concert January 13. There will be no prayer meeting this week, but let each keep the prayer hour in heart on the night of our Saviour's blessed birthday. The pastor wishes all a merry, merry Christmas, and asks all to remember that true joy and happiness flows only from the heart of love, as born anew in Christ. Leland W. Porter, pastor.

Jason Lee Memorial.
Winter and Jefferson streets. Thomas Acheson, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45; classes for all ages, and well equipped for thorough work. Strangers welcomed and made to feel at home. Public worship at 11 a. m. A Christmas message by the pastor; class meeting at 12:15. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. This is the most wide-awake service of the church. We invite young people, especially, to attend this service. Evening worship 7:30. The Rev. J. W. Warrell will preside. Do not try to celebrate the Christmas season by leaving God out. It will only be real to the extent that you recognize Him. We invite you to our services because we know we can help you into the real meaning of the season. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 a Christmas program will be given in the auditorium of the church. Come, and bring your friends with you.

Leslie Methodist Episcopal.

THE REASONS FOR THE CLUB

- To provide a way for those of moderate and even small means to bank their money.
- To teach "the saving habit" to those who have never learned it.
- To give young folks a practical education about money—by showing them that if they give up the little things they want today, they can get the big things later.
- To give you a "bank connection" and show you how our bank can be of service to you.

WHO GETS THE MONEY YOU EARN?

Money spent is money gone—Money Banked is money SAVED.

It isn't the money you make that counts, but the money you save, and there is no better way to acquire a bank account than by joining our Christmas Banking Club.

Ask any wealthy man how he "got his start"—he will tell you that he saved and banked his money.

Get your start. Get it today. Come in and join our Christmas Banking Club.

WE PAY YOU 3 PER CENT ON YOUR CHRISTMAS SAVINGS
