Travelled 1,500 Miles in Boy's Clothes to Get "Color" for Stories

Miss Ellen Valley
Seeking "local color" for articles she intended to write, Miss Ellen Valley, twenty-one years old, left Youngstown, O., dressed in boy's clothing. Before she was arrested in Denver, Col., she had travelled 1500 miles, working in restaurants as a bus boy and waiter and earning her living in other men's jobs. She had her head shaved and she has been paroled in Denver until her hair grows and she can return to Youngstown as Miss Valley.

"It is not unusual for a good-sized living room nowadays to have three or four attractive lamps that are a distinct feature of the room. There will be the big lamp on the main table with a wood, metal or pottery base and a large silk or parchment shade. Then there will be a smaller lamp for the desk or small table—also a standing or tall floor lamp near the piano and possibly a "bridge" lamp or just a comfy reading lamp alongside Father's chair. If the lamps have been carefully selected with an eye to the furnishings of the room and to each other, when lighted, they will represent a most harmonious and attractive ensemble both from the room itself and from the street."
