

CITY NEWS

Special meeting of Salem Lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the M. M. degree. Visiting brethren welcome.

Dog Licenses Delayed— Because dog collars and license tags have not yet been received at the office of the county clerk it is probable that there will be a delay of about two weeks before licenses can be issued, according to County Clerk Boyer. Many dog owners are applying for 1920 licenses. The fee is $1 for males and $2 for females.

Dance Tonight— From 8 to 12 at the armory.

Boy Escapes from School— Jack Phininger, 15 years old, escaped from the state training school for boys last night and at midnight had not been retaken. He is described as weighing 100 pounds, 5 feet 3 to 4 inches in height, dark complexioned, and was wearing the regulation uniform of the school.

Big Game Announced— Play by play, armory, 2 p. m.

Postoffice Closes Today— In observance of New Year's day, the Salem postoffice will be closed all day, except the general delivery department, which will be open from 9 until 10 a. m.

Dance Tonight— From 8 to 12 at the armory.

Collins Sues to Recover— J. W. Collins of Brooks took action in circuit court yesterday to recover a balance of $400 from the Weyl Zuckerman company of California, which he alleges is due him from the sale of 20,000 pounds of onions to the company in 1917. Collins claims that prior to the delivery of the shipment he was advanced $300 on condition that he receive the balance of the sale price when the onions were delivered.

High Pockets— A thrilling drama of the open plains at Ye Liberty today.

Judge Comes Friday— Motions and demurrers will be heard by presiding Judge Percy H. Kelley of department No. 1 of the circuit court Friday and all cases on the docket will be called for the January court term. The grand jury adjourned yesterday until Friday at 9:30 o'clock. No report has yet been made.

Four Shows— At the Bligh today.

Has Valued Charm— L. H. Roberts, who has been one of the leading developers of the loganberry industry, is sporting a watch charm which he prizes very highly. The large gem is a rare specimen of agate which he found at Newport. Experts say its commercial value is about $100. Mr. Roberts is attending the O.A.C. this week where about 500 of Oregon's progressive farmers are attending "school" for one week.

Rigdon Company— Superior funeral service for less.

Protecting His Orchard— A. S. Elford, inspector of agencies for the New York Life Insurance company, with headquarters at Seattle, who is the owner of 80 acres of fruit in the Bohemian plantings a few miles southeast of Salem, has let a contract to Percy Brothers of this city to prune, cultivate, spray and otherwise care for his acreage during the season of 1920, as he is not situated so that he can give his personal attention to it, but is determined to give it scientific care.

Dance Tonight— From 8 to 12 at the armory.

Home Coming Friday— Home coming day at Salem high school will be held Friday afternoon, beginning at 2:45 o'clock. A program will be given and in the evening there will be a basketball game that promises much interest. All alumni are invited to attend.

Legal Blanks— Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.

Coquille Mills Incorporate— Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Coquille Lumber Mills, having headquarters in Portland, and capitalized at $100,000. The incorporators are J. S. O'Gorman, H. T. Nicolai and Charles C. McCulloch. Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Stevens-Perzis Lumber company of Walton, Lane county, by the Bankers' Investment company of Portland, and by the Vale Hardware company of Vale, Malheur county.

Root for Oregon— At armory today, 2 p. m.

Wanted for Perjury— Governor Olcott yesterday issued requisition papers on the governor of California demanding extradition of E. B. Babcock who is wanted in Multnomah county to answer to a charge of perjury. Babcock is held at Oakland. Roy Kendall, a deputy sheriff of Multnomah county, will be sent to Oakland to return Babcock in case the requisition is honored.

Girl Show— The Tag Day Girls at the Bligh today.

Teachers Wanted— For one-room schools in the valley and in eastern and central Oregon. Also a teacher for lower grades in a two-room school and one for 7th and 8th grades in good location. Salary $100 to $115 to teachers of experience and good qualifications. Communicate with Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, 115 S. Commercial St., or phone 23.

Millinery Sale Continues— I have still a variety of untrimmed shapes at $1.00 to $2.50. All trimmed hats at cost. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, 125 North High street.

Itney Service Desired— Advisability of establishing a Itney service between the business district and North Salem will be discussed at the next meeting of the North Salem Improvement association which will be tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Highland school. Officers will be elected for 1920. On the program will be an address by Robert C. Paulus, president of the Salem Commercial club; a vocal solo by Mrs. Cora Hendry; and a violin solo by William Sherwood.

Boy Wanted— Large boy, to deliver papers. Good pay. Apply at Statesman office.

A HAPPY and PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

U. G. SHIPLEY CO.

Clubs, Lodges and Committees— On dancing. I am now in position to furnish music for any occasion, especially that adapted to the modern style of dancing. Warren J. Hunt, Phone 1296.

Lewis Addresses Rotarians— Prof. C. I. Lewis, field manager for the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association, gave the address at the regular meeting of the Rotary club at the Marion hotel yesterday. He discussed Marion county agricultural resources.

1920 Calendars for Practical Use— Homer H. Smith, McCormack bldg.

"Grayling" Are Running— White fish, known to many people as grayling, are said to be running plentifully in North Mill creek and several successful catches are reported. It is said the name "grayling" as applied to these fish is incorrect, and that there are no grayling in Oregon waters. White fish is said to be the proper name.

Tag Day Girls— A big girl act at the Bligh today.

New Realty Concern— George W. Swegle and Henry S. Bell, residents of Salem for the past 30 or 40 years and known to every man, woman and child in this community, have formed a partnership and will engage in real estate and insurance. The name given this baby concern is The Oregon Land Company. They will advise the public within a short time where to find them and will expect every one with real estate to sell to list it with them, as they are live wires and expect to put deals over just as fast as any of the realty dealers.

Receiver is Relieved— Maybelle Jette, receiver of the property of Kin Daw, filed a report covering her activities in behalf of Kin Daw's property in county court yesterday, which was approved and accepted and she was released by the court from further responsibility. S. and F. Uhlman & Co. was plaintiff and Kin Daw was defendant in a suit filed for nonpayment of a lease contract between the above parties. As an alternative a receiver was appointed to assume charge of the property and crops that are mostly on hop lands. According to the report filed by Maybelle Jette, this year's crop sales amounted to $25,225.29, enough to pay all financial claims against Kin Daw and leave a reasonable balance.

Continuous Show— At Ye Liberty today.

Holstrom Will Admitted— The will of Charles A. Holstrom, who died December 20, was admitted to probate in county court yesterday. Mr. Holstrom left an estate to the probable value of $7500. Most of the estate is composed of real property and $5000 is a probable estimate for personal property. The heirs are Angela Holstrom, widow, residing at 242 North Fourteenth street; Clara A. Weizel, 35, daughter, 470 North Summer street; Mary A. Fountain, 37, daughter, Merced, Calif.; Laurella Shelton, 33, daughter, Seattle. A niece and grandson were also mentioned in the will which Holstrom made previous to his death. The appraisers appointed were F. L. Wood, Robin J. Day and Hazelle Gearhart.
