

People of Chihuahua Placing Flowers on Coffin of General Angeles, Executed by Carranza Firing Squad

The people of Chihuahua were greatly stirred by the execution of General Felipe Angeles. This photograph, taken after Villa's lieutenant had faced a firing squad, shows men and women placing flowers on his coffin. General Angeles, who was captured near Parral with a few followers, was convicted by a court martial of conspiring against the Carranza government. Many pleas for clemency were made to President Carranza.

Woman Is Badly Burned When Clothing Catches Fire From Stove

STAYTON, Or., Jan. 2.—There has been considerable activity in the business life of Stayton the past week, several deals in real estate and other transactions having been made.

B. A. Schaefer has purchased the stock of S. A. Starr and wife and is now the proprietor of the 10 and 15 cent store. Mr. Schaefer has leased the building and will continue the business in its present location.

W. E. Thomas of Salem was in Stayton a day or two this week. While here Mr. Thomas leased his store building on Third street to Peiser brothers, who will occupy it with their business in the near future. The Peiser brothers operate a pool and billiard hall and will be better located in their new quarters. E. C. Titus who now occupies the building with his garage, will move early in the year to another building.

J. F. Mack closed a deal Tuesday with Joe Sestak for the business property on Third street where the Stayton bakery and Davies barber shop stand. This is one of the most desirable locations in Stayton at present. The bakery will probably continue in its present location while Mr. Mack will occupy the other half of the lot.

Building Work Rushed
Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Starr who have conducted a business in the 10 and 15 cent store for the past five years, will move to Albany in the very near future where Mr. Starr holds a position in an Albany bank. These estimable people will be greatly missed both in church and business circles, as they have made many friends in Stayton who regret their leaving.

Since the snow and ice are gone work has been resumed on the big store building being erected by Ralph Urban for a garage and a large force of men is kept constantly on the works. Mr. Urban, thus far has been greatly handicapped, but from now on expects to rush it through as fast as the weather will permit.

Dr. Beauchamp's office building which has occupied a corner of the Urban block, has been moved across the alley to the rear of the Stayton bank building.

Holiday Trade Heavy
The heavy snowfall preceding the severe cold snap, protected the fall grain from being injured, in the least, and has put the ground in a particularly mellow state for the spring plowing throughout this section of the country.

Sheriff and Posse Helping Carlisle, Wounded Train Bandit, to Mount Horse at Cabin Where He Made Last Stand

This unusual photograph shows the beginning of the return to prison of William Carlisle who had made his last stand in a little mountain cabin. The escaped Union Pacific train bandit had been pursued by Sheriff Roach and a posse and it was Sheriff Roach who wounded Carlisle. He is seen here being helped to mount a horse on which he had to ride a narrow, rocky trail to Esterbrook and from there he was taken by automobile to Douglas, Arl., twenty-five miles distant.

Crabtree, probably saved the woman's life, although she was badly burned about the body.

The Foresters held their annual jubilee in their lodge rooms last night. It was an open meeting for their families.
