

Flares and Flickers

Another good Washburn picture, "Too Much Johnson," will be shown at the Oregon on Thursday and Friday of this week.

The name of Constance Talmadge, who is universally admired by screen patrons for her fascination, personality and charm of manner, will soar even higher into the Milky Way of film stars when the public views her appearance in the role of Susanne Ercoli in her latest Select picture, "Experimental Marriage," which can be seen at Ye Liberty theater starting today.

A story of the Yukon—a romance of the great northwest. What powerful dramatic adventures do these words not conjure up—what visions of towering peaks and untrodden snow! If these appeal to you see the gripping play "The Way of the Strong," which will be shown at Ye Liberty theater with Anna Q. Nilsson starting Wednesday.

School teachers should ask their pupils to see "Evangeline" to be shown at the Oregon.

A fight to free herself from the clutches of a band of Apaches in their underground den is but one of the thrilling tasks assigned Geraldine Farrar in "The Stronger Vow."

her latest Goldwyn picture, which comes to the Liberty theatre beginning Thursday.

The secrets of Paris police methods made famous in French detective stories are revealed in "L'Apache," the latest Dorothy Dalton picture, which Thomas H. Ince produced for Paramount-Artcraft release.

Lonesome Hearts and Loose Lions, with thrills, laughs and everything, the big double reel comedy at the Liberty today.

Can you imagine a more humiliating experience than to have your nose tweaked by a big husky in the presence of a beautiful woman? That is the unique and quite effective method that Robert Warwick uses to place the "villain" in his correct position in "An Adventure in Hears." The victim is a handsome blackmailer who is seeking the ruin of a pretty Italian countess.

Ed and Edna Fanton. A happy dispositioned good looking young chap and a charmingly attractive curly-haired miss comprise this sunny-natured couple who present under the title of "A Dainty Aerial Oddity" a gymnastic offering consisting of remarkable exploits on the woman rings so interspersed with smart patter as to make the act the acme of class and cleverness. On the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

The Texas state flag and seal both bear a single star. The flag is the emblem of law and order for which William Farnum stands as the star of "The Lone Star Ranger."

Cleveland and Fay. Are two excellent performers who have hit upon a clever idea for a vaudeville stunt which they have incorporated in an offering which they present under the title of "Oh! Doctor," on the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

Frank Campeau, who plays the role of "Mark Drake" in "When the Clouds Roll By," has had important roles in the last six Fairbanks pictures.

Miss Billie Bowman offers an excellently clever and highly artistic novelty which she bills as "Character Descriptive Melodies" which is conceded to be one of the prettiest novelties in vaudeville. Miss Bowman's reputation as one of America's greatest portrayals of characterizations, which in conjunction with her wonderful singing voice gives her the opportunity of presenting a most unusual and delightfully entertaining offering. On the Hippodrome show at the Bligh today.

Harry Morey in "The Man Who Won," a real scrappy feature at the Bligh today.

Prof. Noah Porter, the eminent historian, was a great admirer of "Evangeline." Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's vitally dramatic poem, which William Fox will present in elaborate motion picture form at the Oregon theatre soon.

"A Hair Raising Journey." Another one of the thrilling educational Outing Chester scenic at the Liberty today.

An excellent cast supports the star, headed by Harrison Ford, the popular young leading man. The scenario was written by Alice Epton and the picture directed by Robert G. Vignola. "Experimental Marriage" can be seen at the Liberty theatre starting today.

Charles Ray's very latest release "Red Hot Dollars" is now showing at The Oregon.

CLARK TO SPEAK AT CLUB LUNCH

Secretary of Associated Industries to Address Monday Noon Meeting

A. C. Clark, secretary of the Associated Industries of Oregon, will be the speaker at the business men's lunch at the commercial club Monday noon. Mr. Clark is well known in Salem, having spoken here last spring and having visited here on numerous occasions. He is considered one of the most entertaining speakers among the commercial organizations of the coast and he has a crisp epigrammatic style which won him much applause at his last address in this city, which was delivered at a luncheon at the commercial club.
