Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Arthur Jordan, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reigelman, on Mill street, New Year's day, will make their home in Penetion, where Mr. Jordan is engaged in road engineering for the state of Oregon.

The marriage came as a complete surprise to all but a few intimate friends as it was planned for a later date. It culminates a romance that began in the mountains east of Eugene during the summer of 1917, while the bride was visiting relatives at Belknap springs and the groom was surveying.

Calvin Arthur Jordan is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and during his undergraduate years was a prominent athlete. He was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and took a keen interest in college life. When the United States entered the war he enlisted in the Twenty-third regiment of Engineers and, after a strenuous period of training in the east, was sent overseas and experienced still more strenuous times on various battle fronts and in various portions of France after the signing of the armistice.

Mrs. Jordan is a graduate of the Salem high school and Willamette University. Last year she taught in the Gold Hill high school and this year was teaching in the Silverton high school when she resigned. She is a talented musician and has a host of friends.

Shortly after 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Marie Keller Fisher of Portland, a cousin of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly." This was followed by a wedding march played by Miss Beatrice Shelton, who had been the bride's music instructor for many years. The wedding procession was led by Donna Mayre Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Marie Keller Fisher, with the ring, Miss Olive Mark of Sheridan, a university chum of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Perry Prescott Reigelman, brother of the bride, was best man.

During the service as read by Dr. Richard N. Avison, Miss Shelton played a selection with a nuptial theme. After the ceremony the relatives and friends of the contracting couple extended their congratulations. A light luncheon was served and at 5:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left for Portland by way of the Southern Pacific. They will be at home in Pendleton after January 6 at 218 South Thompson street.

The Filipino club of this city was host for the evening on Tuesday when the members celebrated the twenty-third anniversary of the death of their national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal. The affair took place in the First Methodist church and was attended by a large number of the society folk of Salem. A banquet was enjoyed and the following program finished the evening's entertainment:

Invocation—Rev. R. N. Avison.
Song—"Philippines, My Philippines." (Tune: "Maryland, My Maryland.")
Remarks by the president—M. M. Alicante.
Speech—"Rizal's Life and Labor" C. C. Areola.

Vocal solo—Miss Joanna James.
Speech—"International Relationship Between the United States and the Philippines" Judge Henry L. Benson.

Piano solo—T. S. Roberts.
Speech—"Spirit of the Philippines" B. B. Gapuz.
Piano duet—Misses Louise and Genevieve Findley.

Remarks—Governor Olcott.
Address—"Education in the Philippines" Professor Abbott Magruder, Ph. D.

Solo—Superintendent John Todd.
Speech—"Rizal's Devotion To His Country" J. Mendoza.
Piano solo—T. S. Roberts.

Speech—"The Filipino Flag," H. B. Carbohol.
Song—"America."

Miss Irene Howard and Lieutenant Harvey Edwin Miller were married at noon Wednesday at the home of the groom's father, E. C. Miller at 155 South Nineteenth street. Rev. J. J. Miller of St. Louis, an uncle of the groom, read the service in the presence of the immediate family. The house was decorated with narcissus, ferns and smilax. Following the ceremony a three course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Howard, formerly assistant city librarian who left Salem last summer for the east. She has lived in Salem for a number of years and during the war saw a year's service as a nurse in a field hospital in France. Lieutenant Miller also saw a year's service in France. Lieutenant Miller and his bride will make their home in Lexington, Oregon, where the former owns a large wheat ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lampport are home again after an absence of two months while they were traveling through the east. They included in their travels Chicago, New York, Detroit, Boston, Washington, D. C., Charleston, New Orleans, and Los Angeles and San Francisco enroute home. Mr. and Mrs. Lampport arrived home Thursday night.

Miss Alma Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby, and William E. Knower were married at a beautiful service at the home of the bride's parents at 210 South Nineteenth street on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. H. C. Stover read the immediate families of the young couple. The bride was attractive in a gown of purple chiffon velvet with a hat to match. She wore a corsage of Cecil Bruner roses. Miss Pearl Eyre, a close friend of the bride, played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the party entered the room. Following the ceremony a wedding lunch was enjoyed. Miss Ashby was a popular employee at the state highway commission. She has lived in Salem for a number of years and is a graduate of Salem high school. Formerly she was at the city library.

The groom is a well known Polk county farmer. He has recently returned from service in France during the recent war. Mr. and Mrs. Knower left for Portland for a short honeymoon after which they will make their home in Polk county.

Miss Marie Largent and Oscar Olson surprised their friends last night and were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Christian church at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Leland W. Porter officiated. The wedding was quiet with no guests.

Mrs. Olson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Largent of Marshfield, and is a former student at Willamette university. This winter she has been attending the Capital Business college. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Olson of Woodburn and is a graduate of Woodburn high school. He was president of the junior class at Willamette university, president of the Wedsterian literary society and manager of the Sigma Tau house at the university. He was a prominent athlete at the university until leaving school a short time ago. At present he is employed at Clancey's. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will make their home at 1215 North Commercial street.

Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott were in Portland for New Year's this week and were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald West. They went down to attend the dancing party on New Year's eve given at Miss Helen West, the affair given at the Multnomah hotel given to her Portland friends. Governor and Mrs. Olcott received with Mr. and Mrs. West and Miss West in the holly room and the rose room adjoining was used as a setting for the merry dancers.

The members of the Byrd family enjoyed a family dinner New Year's day at the home of Mrs. L. A. Byrd when they celebrated the sixty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Byrd. All of Mrs. Byrd's children were present and a group of her grandchildren. Seated around the pretty table were Mrs. L. A. Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Byrd, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Byrd, Dr. and Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. William Harger, Miss Virginia Byrd, Harold Harger and Clarence Byrd.

One of the delightful events of the week were the community dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk at 340 Mill street, on New Year's day. The table was adorned with a centerpiece of holly and with red candles which illuminated the party. Plates were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Armin T. Steiner, Miss Florence Howe, Miss Ruth Busch, and Mr. and Mrs. Kirk.

Next Wednesday evening Miss Flora M. Case of the city library and her assistants will give a library at home to the friends and patrons of the library. It will be held in the main library room and will be from 8 until 10 o'clock. The object will be to acquaint the people of Salem with the work of the library and to give them a social evening. There will be a victrola concert.

Mrs. George H. Saubert and daughter, Miss Eleanor Saubert, of Spokane, are guests for several days in this city, of Miss Miffie Hayden. They are former well known Solom folk when Mr. Saubert was with The Statesman. He is now with the Spokesman Review. Miss Saubert is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Mabel Childs of Roseburg is visiting for several days at the C. M. Eppley home. Miss Childs has just recently returned from over a year in reconstruction work at Fort McPherson in Georgia.

Mrs. W. A. Zimmerman and Miss Frances Zimmerman of Crowley, Alberta, Canada, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk.

Miss Doris Churchill will return to school this afternoon at the University of Oregon where she is a Delta Delta Delta sorority girl.
